The Palatinate Migration And The Swishers

By H. R. SWISHER
1733 Sunset, Springfield, Ohio

According to various sources on the history of the German Swiss people, nearly 30,000 of them came to America from 1700 to 1770. This tribe which is known as the "ALEMNI" was the fourth and last Germanic tribe to push up out of southeastern Asia and began their movement around 300 A.D. They moved up across southeastern Europe and became members of a religious sect who were Christians; but believed in different concepts than the Orthodox Greek church which was in the profess of formation at that period. This caused some friction over the years and because of the friction and a rapidly expanding population, they kept pushing northward in the path of the tribes who had gone before. By around 1200 they began to push into Northern Switzerland and finally formed what became the Palatinate which reached clear across Southern Germany to France. By 1500 to 1600 they had increased in population to around 500,000 people and had held their own and conquered all in their path as well as breaking up the attempts of the Roman Empire to forage clear across Europe, sometimes as far as England. This was of course the time of the Reformation, Martin Luther, Calvin, and other movements. No doubt being adverse to the Greek Orthodox church they were not easy to convert to the Roman Church and the majority were converted to Lutherans and the German Reformed, which I understand followed after Calvin. Of course many were converted to Catholicism and here the downfall of these people started as they commenced to fight among themselves over this issue. Up to this time they had held their own with all comers; but in a short time they became victims to forays from the German Princes on the North and particularly to raids from the French on the West who were activated supposedly by the Roman church of the time. By 1650 or roughly there abouts the previous population of around 500,000 had been depleted to around 50,000 people. Unable to defend themselves they went into other parts of the German Provinces and many of the first ones into Holland. The French raids were fairly constant and finally the palatinates who strangely were ruled by Princes and not Kings, had the ruling Prince of the time converted to Catholicism via marriage to a French Princess. Since they were predominately Protestant and particularly since the French King continued to raid both Protestant and Catholic alike, the population largely started to move.

Movement from Europe

So many came to Holland, destitute, because of the immediate past experiences, that the Hollanders had to figure out what to do about it. The easiest thing was to unload them on the English, which they proceeded to do.

Apparently the problems of the people to wish to go to a different country did not exist at the time and the Dutch just kept loading them on their boats for the SHORT haul to England. This continued roughly from around 1700 to 1710 and finally seven to ten thousand of these people were on the hands of the English who had to feed those who could not find work to subsist on. Pastor Kotheral, a Lutheran Minister, was able to gain a hearing with the English Queen, around 1707-08, and she decided to start colonizing the State of New York, or at least a certain portion of it, with these people and in turn for land to be given them, they were to help in the manufacture of marine products, such as tar and turpentine, for the British Navy. In 1708 the first couple of boat loads came and later in early 1709, some 13 more brought approximately 3000 people. At the same time some 3000 of these people were colonized in Southern Ireland. What happened to them, I sofar, have been unable to ascertain; although no doubt many later came over to America.

Early American History

The first of these people coming to America were graciously received; but when the larger group came, the previous English settlers felt too many were brought and that it constituted a menace to the safety of the colony to have so many Palatinates put down on them. Governor Hunter was governor of New York at the time. He was determined to use them to the greatest advantage in the manufacture of marine products for the British Navy. He no doubt would have succeeded if the English had given the land they had promised, since they were at the time essentially agricultural in experience, and if the pine in New York had been the right variety to use in manufacturing the products the British wanted. The land was not given as promised and the pine specie was not suitable for the purpose at hand, so trouble started. These people were held largely by force in villages and forced to work against their desire, to nearly 1720. In the meantime emissaries of the Wm. Penn Foundation had succeeded in starting later immigrants of our people to coming into Southeastern Penna via Philadelphia. Many thousands of these came and were treated well and given land. Of course, this story soon reached the first ones to come to New York and they started drifting southward to Penna. While the main exodus from New York did not start until after the 1720's, there is reason to believe the first of the Swisher clan had made it to Philadelphia Co. by earlier than 1714. At that time they sold land in Philadelphia Co. and one of the early Swishers, (Lorenze,) went on to Virginia where he and his family lived until his death. Only one son, Philip, returned to Penna., according to records sofar. (Heinrich) apparently went to Baltimore, Md., and where else is simple conjecture since he came to Lancaster Co. Penna, from Baltimore, Md., in 1732.

Possible Early Swishers

Among the people who came with the 'KOTHERAL' immigration were Lorenze Schweitzer, Heinreich Schweitzler, (Michael) Schweitzer and Christop Schweitzer. Heinreich's name was spelled Schweitzer when he left Rotterdam so he and Lorentz were the Brothers, no doubt, in the two brother legend, as they are established by record. However, in the Swisher Family runs also a four brother legend and the above are the four, in my opinion, although so far I have no data on Michael or Christop. Lorenze had two children born in New York, Joahana and Heinrich, and how many more is as yet unknown, although Philip was born in 1739, some 37 years later. Heinrich came with four children over ten years old, one of which was Hans Georg, and the rest are possible to secure, when and if I ever get to New York to search the records. Members of this family who have been found on record as Schweitzler, Schweitzer, Switzer, Swisser, and Swisher, of course, came some time after 1790. In 1749, John and Valentine Swisher came on the ship "Fane" via Philadephia. Their younger brother Nicholas came in 1761 on the ship, "Snow Squirrell". I find on checking, that John (above) came on the ship "Fane", and Valentine on the ship "Lydia". These last three start the three brother legend. Considering the fact these brothers came to some part of Virginia, and that Lorenze and family were living in some part of Virginia and later settled in Hampshire County, which later became a part of West Virginia, and also the fact these folks apparently started the name 'SWISHER', since they and SWISHERS in York County Penna. were the only ones listed as Swisher in the 1790 census, and the fact that later the Switzers at that time in Lancaster Co. took the Swisher spelling, along with many others who had migrated elsewhere, certainly proves without a doubt that those first taking the spelling (outside of Colored Retainers who later adopted the name after freedom) were close BLOOD KIN. It is possible to secure from the one who has it, a fairly good chart of the three brother family. However, such is not the case with the family who came earlier. Many of their descendants, no doubt, still carry the first spellings. Consider the Heinrich or Henry who had four children over ten when he came. Hans Georg was apprenticed out in New York around 1710, or later, so by 1732 he must have been in his thirties, so he and other brothers must have married along the road, and no doubt settled, at least for a time, in the spots where they married. Record jumps from Hans Georg in Henry's case, to JOHN who was born in 1720, somewhere along the line from New State to Lancaster Co. Penna. Possibilities of other brothers, according to place and age and association, were: Heinrich, Stephan and Leonhart. Considering also that some 37 variations of Schweitzer immigrated through Philadelphia from 1708 to 1770, it increases the difficulty of identifying relatives.

Starting with John, who succeeded to the home place and vicinity, the picture still needs verification as to what happened to the descendents—John had four sons: JOHN, ADAM, Henry and Philip—if you remember the Philip of Lorenze who returned to Penna. from Virginia. He is no doubt, an Uncle to this younger Philip, the son of John. Lorenze's boy, Philip as above, was seized with cramps while swimming in a branch of the Susquenna River, and at 36 years old, was drowned. He, however, left three sons: Philip, Abraham and Jacob, and the family, no doubt, was not too far from the close relative, JOHN. John's son John, had five sons and three daughters. The sons were John Jr., Simeon, Henry, Jerimah and Uriah, born from 1790 to 1809. So far as is known, Henry (Bro). had only one son, Henry Jr., who in turn had Uriah, George, Joseph and John. So far as Adam and Philip of John's family, born in 1720, no record is available as yet.

Legends

Most all SWISHERS, through legend, originally start from the vicinity of Berne, Switzerland, if the story goes back far enough. However, some recall Manheim, Strassburg, and other places which no doubt were places of refuge at the time Philip of France was carrying out his nefarious expeditions against the people of the Palatinate, murdering and pillaging and destroying.

Of course, the three brother legend would link up to Virginia, since they first came there so far as this country is concerned. The two or four brother legend, if assumptions are correct, should carry something about coming from New York State. One of my uncles still claims he is a New York Yankee, and he can't be shaken from it. Even though his father's record is established in court and church records, and his father never saw any place but Pennsylvania and Ohio. Also descendents of Henreich the First, no doubt will have some story about their first land being secured from the Quakers or the Indians for some payment of wheat, of which quantity I've heard many conflicting stories. It may be true some payment was also given the Indians, since the Home Village of what was left of the Susquenna Indians was located on the Swisher Homestead. Prior to 1732, probably in 1731, Heinrich and family came by Lancaster County and went to Western Pennsylvania and stayed about a year, and then came back to Lancaster County with Son John, and so far as I know, he may have left other sons in Western Pennsylvania. Swishers migrated to Ohio in or around 1800 from Washington County, Pennsylvania, and elder relatives claimed them as cousins. Others came into Ohio about the same time from New Jersey, West Virginia and Virginia. It is entirely within reason to believe the migration story was traveling in the family at that time, so they came and settled fairly close, although the particulars are not available. Boys from this family also went back to Virginia, south to Tennessee, and likely from there all over the south, and the family today is well scattered over the nation, with little or any connections being known—largely because, without research, it is difficult to go back and find the connecting link. Places and birth dates are more important in checking than names, since the spelling of the name depended largely on the one spelling it.

SWISHER

The Swisher family is of Swiss-German descent, and its decendants are now scattered in almost every state of the union, and in nearly every instance their habits of industry and perseverance have won for them the respect of their fellow citizens and an honorable place in society. The name, at differen times, has been spelled in different forms, namely-- Schweiber, Sweitzer, and Schweighiger. About the year 1750, four brothers named Schweiber set out from Switzerlend for America in order to better their condition. It is positively known that they reached the new world, but from that period the history of three of the brothers is lost. The supposition is that one settled near Winchester, while two of the other three went northward into Pennsylvania, and their descendants afterwards migrated into what are now the counties of Marion, Monongalia and Harrison, West Virginia.

(1) John Schweiber, the progenitor of the Branch of the family here under consideration, was born in 1730, and was one of the four brothers aforementioned. He became an Indian trader and merchant, making extensive trips into the interior of the state and returning to Philadelphia, with valuable furs. These trips were made about once in six weeks and the value of the merchandise brought back varied from two hundred to seven hundred dollars, as shown by receipts given at that time, the oldest one of which is dated at Philadelphia, July 24, 1767, and is for thirty-nine pounds, two shillings, nine pence. It seems his trading in Philadelphia was largely with two persons, named Daniel and William Wister, as their names are attached to many of the receipts. Shortly after his marriage in Philadelphia to Anna Warner, he moved to McGaheysville, Rockingham Co., Va. where he engaged in merchandising, and later moved to Augusta Co., Va., where he died in 1802 an was interred on what is known as the Spring Hill Farm. Children: John, Jacob, Henry, Samuel, Daniel, George, Nancy, married ------Pence; Elizabeth, married------Fauber, Mary, married Philip Thurman of Illinois.

(II) John Switzer, or Swisher, son of John (I) Schweiber, married (1) in 1811, Catherine Trout, who bore him the following children;

MARY MARRIED JOHN KOINER;

Anna, married Joseph Spore, Elizabeth, married William Henderson, John; Sarah, married Jacob Swisher, Jacob; Margaret, married Stuart Bennett; David Warner; George, Henry; Samuel, Rebecca, married Taylor Parker; William. John Switzer or Swisher married (2) Mary Grow, who bore him two children: Daniel and James; etc.

GEORGE A. AND MAXINE SWISHER

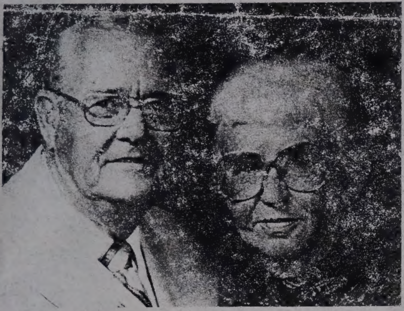
George Adrian Swisher was born in Jefferson Twp., Boone Co., Indiana, August 21, 1913, son of William E. (5-23-1877/3-31 1962) and Emma F. Reed Swisher (9-20-1881/10-28-1962), on the farm where he now resides. He was the third son; others being Russell H. (5-2-1901/5-1-77) and Wyvone Pete (5-14-1907/9-19-68). George attended Dover School for twelve years, being active in basketball and a member of the first class to graduate from the school. A forefather, Samuel Pickerill, Jr. enlisted at Dumfries VA, in 1776 for service in the Revolutionary War, serving three years as a drummer boy. His daughter, Mary Swisher, is this subject's great-grandmother.



George and Maxine Swisher

George married Maxine Butler May 18, 1935 at New Castle, IN.

Maxine, born February 25, 1916, was the daughter of Dorsa R. (1-14-1885/10-27-1972) and Ada M. Billingsly Butler (2-24-1887/4-28-1965). Ada was the 21st death recorded in Boone Co. as the result of injuries suffered in a Palm Sunday tornado. A great-grandfather, William Pink Butler, at the age of 16, walked from West Virginia to settle in Indiana. Maxine has one sister Pauline E. Ross, born August 11, 1912.

The children and grandchildren of George and Maxine Swisher follows: 1. George Allen, born September 10, 1936, married Nancy M. Butner. Their children are Bret Allen, born February 22, 1959, Deborah S. Ross, born April 30, 1961, Tammy L. Clanton, born October 2, 1962. 2. Alice Butler, born September 20, 1941, married Kendall L. Wells, D.V.M.; he served with the U.S. Army 1965/67; when discharged held the rank of Captain. Their children are Bradley Kendall, born December 2, 1964; Gregory Allen, born February 14, 1967. 3. Wallace. Their children are Kimberly Lynn, born March 4, 1968; Ken Jay, born April 8, 1970.

The subject was reared a farmer and throughout his life has been engaged in that occupation. His sons, after assuming the reins of the agriculture operation, freed their father of responsibilites; thus he and his wife spend their winters in Florida.

He has never held a political office, although a life-long supporter of the principles embraced by the Republican party and a zealous advocate for its success.

George is a Past Master of the Advance Masonic Lodge and member of Elks Lodge of Lebanon, IN. Both are members and attend Dover Christian Church and the Christian Church in Punta Gorda, Florida.

He married Patricia (Elkins) Griffith who had four children. Christy graduated from the University of Illinois and married Patrick Gaughan. They have two children, Bridget and Daniel. Bryan married Margaret Vanderwall. Carol Sue and Catherine are students at the University of Illinois.

Pete and Mary's first home was a remodeled house on his father's farm which they later purchased. They lived there until 1963 when they purchased 160 acres that joined their farm from Roy Isenberg and moved there.

Pete was engaged in farming, assisted by his sons as long as his health permitted. He died on September 19, 1968. In addition to being a homemaker, Mary was manager of the Dover School hot lunch for thirteen years, and has always enjoyed gardening and flowers. She has been an active member of the Pleasant View Church since 1919.

ED SWISHER WAS PRINTER FOR OVER 30 YEARS

Death Came As Shock To His Many Friends Who Thought He Was Recovering

After a decline in health which had been rapid in the past few months, E. E. Swisher, for over 30 years connected with this newspaper, died in a hospital in Cincinnati last Friday morning about 5:30.

His death came as a severe shock to his legion of friends, who while knowing that he was seriously ill, believed him slowly recovering.

Funeral services of the deceased were held in the M. E. Church here on Sunday afternoon, with Rev. W. S. Dibert in charge, and interment in Maplewood cemetery.

Ed, as he was familiarly known to his many friends had been a lifelong resident of Ripley, having been born and raised and received his education in this place.

As his life work he took up the printing trade and followed it, first working in a small job printing office and later coming with the BEE there to remain until about a year ago, when he entered the employ of the Government as a Clerk in the Ripley postoffice holding this position/ until a short time before his death. Through his journalistic connections he became well known all over this and neighboring counties and marked his friends by the score, both was a good printer typographically speaking but he was a writer of note. His special interest in this line lay in baseball and the only games he ever missed were those which were played when he was ill or away from Ripley, and probably no other sport writer knew as many players in the national sport as he did.

In the tobacco war during which few newspaper men had the grit to stay here in the heat of it Swisher was given credit for having written the complete story and keeping the metropolitan papers in touch with the situation.

He was always a very public spirited man, his interest here being centered around the schools and he was Clerk of the Board of Education of this town for many years, a position which he filled most capably up until the last.

Besides his widow, he is survived by his eleven children: Mrs. E. L. Hiatt of Portsmouth; John of Ambridge, Pa.; Glenn and Burgess of Cincinnati; George of Columbus, O.; Mrs. L. E. Klinker of Ripley; Louis, Katherine, Alice, Louise, and June, all of this place; besides a host of friends who will sadly miss him among their ranks.

after them;
"The good is oft interred with their bones."

But the good which Ed Swisher did here on earth for his fellowmen, the kindness he spread about him everywhere, the outcroppings from his warm heart that throbbed for others woes cannot possibly be buried with him today.

His career was so laden with the fruits of a well spent life as to establish a character firm in his faith, pure in worth, honest in purpose and so outstanding for industry and rugged manhood that his good name will endure long after his body is returned to mother earth.

This day marks the loss to Ripley and community of a loyal, splendid citizen, in the passing of Mr. Swshier. His wife and children bid farewell to a true and faithful husband, a fond, devoted father, an agreeable companion and an honest, upright newspaper offices, those who knew and worked with him these many years past—will drop many a silent tear when they learn that the 30 tap has sounded for him. Because for thirty three long years he worked faithfully for the Ripley Bee until he became a valuable fixture of that paper and it grew to be a part of his life.

Mr. Swisher was always ready for his work and never shirked a duty. In the midst of his regular avocation and entrusted public duties he always prided himself on his garden and his ability as a gardener. And in this line he proved that his liking was both a pleasure and a profit.

He also loved clean, honest sport as well as proper labor and for several seasons past was the able unprejudiced Editor of the base ball column of his paper.

But the crowning delight of his latter day life was Education and our public schools. For a long time past he was a member of and Clerk of the Ripley School Board to the success of which he gave an infatuated devotion, justly earning the praise and thanks of both County and State School authorities.

It is a fine tribute to his memory to know that this sterling characteristic has shown beautiful results in the training and education of his sons and daughters. Taken all in all, he was an exemplary man and citizen and a good neighbor, friend and Christian gentleman.

The dread malady that cost him his life did not seem to in any manner interfere with his duties, so he kept moving on and striving for the welfare of those near and dear to him.

When it became evident that he was failing in health and strength, he gave up his newspaper work and acted for a time as Assistant Postmaster here.

Yet on Thanksgiving eve he was jovial and happy, surrounded as he then was by his kinship, and in ten short days we geather around his bier to honor his life and memory. "Indeed it is but the wink of an eye, the draft of a breath."

From the blossom of life to the paleness of death. But in a case like the present one we can well believe that a good and faithful servant having well done his part, he will receive the reward of everlasting peace and rest.

Edward Ernst Swisher was born at Ripley, Ohio, on December 25, 1872 and died at Cincinnati on December 8, 1926.

He was the youngest son of Valentine and Mary Jane Vanlandingham Swisher, spent his childhood in Ripley and was educated in the Ripley Public Schools.

On April 6, 1893, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Katherine Monroe, who survives him. To this union eleven children were born, all of whom are also living, namely—Mrs. E. L. Haitt, of Portsmouth, O., John L. Swisher, of Ambridge, Pa., Glenn and Burgess Swisher, of Cincinnati, George Swisher, of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. L. E. Klinker, Louis Swisher, and Misses Katherine Alice, Louise and June Swisher of Ripley.

Besides these children, he also left two brothers, towit: Charles and Walter Swisher, who reside at Cincinnati and two grandchildren Richard and Gene Lloyd Hiatt of Portsmouth. Peace to his ashes.

Mr. Chas. Swisher.

Edward Ernst Swisher, youngest son of Valentine and Mary Jane, was born 25 December 1872 in Ripley, Ohio. He died 3 December 1926 in Cincinnati, Ohio, buried Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Brown County, Ohio. He married Elizabeth Katherine Monroe on 6 April 1893 in Ripley. The ceremony was performed by Paster Jacob Pister, recorded in Volume 17, page 222 of Brown County Marriage Records. His wife was the daughter of George Monroe and Helena Scheer.

"Ed" Swisher, as he was affectionately known in Ripley, was educated in the Ripley schools, and took up the printing trade as his life's work. He worked at the local newspaper "The Ripley Bee" for 33 years, as composing room foreman and reporter, both general news and sports. He was especially interested in baseball, attending many of the local games. He was an avid gardner, and member and Clerk of the Ripley Board of Education for many years. He was also Treasurer of Union Township for many years. When he becams ill in 1926, he resigned from the "Bee" and became Assistant Postmaster in Ripley.

Hugh Burns (father of Jessie who was wife of John H. Hiatt, Jr.) was born 3 September 1837 in Oran, Shelby County, Ohio, son of Hugh died 21 May 1908 in Oran, was buried in Houston, Shelby County, Ohio. The first record of this ancestor is in the U.S. Census dated 8 June 1860, page 285, Shelby County lists a Hugh Burns as ordinary laborer in the household of James M. Owens.

President Lincoln issued a call to the Northern States for volunteer soldiers to serve for 90 days in the War of the Rebellion. This call was dated Monday April 15, 1861. It appears that Hugh Burns may have travelled the 9 miles from Oran to Sidney, Shelby County, Ohio 2 days later, as he enlisted on 17 April 1861. At 24 years of age he was enrolled into Company "F", 15th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, where he served his enlistment as a private. He was mustered into Federal service at Columbus, Ohio on 27 April 1861, where records indicate he was charged $11.95 for clothing. His unit fought the Confederate forces in the western part of the State of Virginia (now West Virginia), as outlined in the following excerpt from the book "The Civil War" by Shelby Foote:-

> "At 34, Major General George Brinton McClellan, commanding the Ohio Volunteers, had earned both a military and a business reputation since the 15 years since his graduation from the U. S. Military Academy, as a Mexican War soldier, observer at the Crimean War, superintendent of the Illinois Central Railroad and now President of the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad. In late May, directing operations from Cincinnati, he sent troops to Grafton, east of Clarksburg on the B&O, who then marched southward 30 miles against Philippi (W.Va.), where they surprised the Confederates with a night attack on June 3rd; the rebels retreated to the mountains. Then McClellan moved to the front.
> "When the rebels retreated up the Tygart Valley and divided their forces to defend the passes at Rich Mountain and Laurel Hill, McClellan divided his army, too. He sent Brigadier General William Rosecrans around with part of his forces to strike the enemy on the flank, at Rich Mountain. This column made a rear attack, forced the surrender, which then rendered the rebel forces on Laurel Hill untenable. The Confederates under the command of Brigadier General Robert Garnett retreated northward across Cheat River. In the rear guard action at Carrick's Ford (14 July 1861) Garnett was killed, the first general officer to die on either side in battle. By mid-July the 'brief but brilliant campaign' as McClellan called it in his report 'was over.'"

The troops returned to Ohio, where Hugh Burns was mustered out at Columbus, Ohio on 27 August 1861.

Hugh Burns married (1) 10 October 1861 to Sarah Anna Cethcart in Houston, Shelby County, Ohio by John Gartley, J.P., as recorded in Volume 4, p. 187 in Probate Court. Children born to Hugh and Sarah were:

1. Robert, b. 7 August 1862
2. James, b. 28 November 1864
3. Anna, b. 24 December 1868

Hugh Burns married (2) 6 November 1873 to Mrs. Lucinda Rickey Morris by J. H. DeBruin, minister, in Brown County, Ohio (some 150 miles from Houston, Ohio) as recorded in Probate Court (the license was issued 25 October 1873). Lucinda was the daughter of Brice Rickey and Elizabeth Greathouse and was born 7 May 1839. Her first marriage was to Elijah Morris. Their children were Mary Tina (married________Mathias) Martha (married_________Black, ch. Hazel, Dorothy & Edward), Frank and Margaret (married________Sams). Children of Hugh and Lucinda Burns were:

Mt.Olivet Chap

1. Jessie M., b. 3 Nov. 1875 near Winchester, Adams County, Ohio
   d. 3 March 1896 Russellville,Oh m. John Harmon Hiatt, Jr.
   ch. Elmer Lloyd & Priscilla Mae
   Jessie Burns died 3 Mar. 1896, buried Linwood
   Cemetery east of Russellville, Brown County, Ohio

Hugh Burns evidently left his second wife Lucinda, probably to Shelby County. Lucinda appears to have filed for a widow's pension in August 1897, but does not seem to have been granted one. Hugh was already getting a veteran's pension on Certificate No. 809939, as in a declaration dated June 1, 1898 Hugh listed his marriage, three living children and other facts for the Department of the Interior as requested. (His writing is clear and very legible on this form). The form asked for "former marriage" but not subsequent ones, so he did not report Lucinda Rickey Morris Burns as second wife, also stated did not marry a Lucinda Morris in Brown County, Ohio in 1873!

The Death Certificate of Hugh Burns on file in the U.S. Archives shows death on 21 May 1908 at Cynthian T. P., Shelby County, Ohio, age 70 years, 8 months, 18 days, retired farmer, born Shelby County, Ohio (obit. days in Pennsylvania) native American, no parents names listed, buried Houston, Ohio, O. B. Taylor, undertaker. His widow, Sarah filed for a widow's pension and was granted $30.00 per month under Certificate No. 658570. She died 1 March 1923 a resident of Dawson, Shelby County, Ohio, Rural Route #1.

Jesse Monroe (grandfather of Edward E. Swisher's wife Elizabeth K.) was born 11 June 1796 in Virginia, died 13 April 1877, buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio, married (1) 23 March 1819 Margaret Kirkpatrick born 3 August 1794 daughter of Samuel Kirkpatrick and Martha Rosebourgh (Rosbery?). Martha was daughter of Samuel and Agnes. Margaret Kirkpatrick was born in Flemingsburg, Fleming County, Kentucky, and may have moved to Mason County Kentucky, as she married Jesse there. Children of Jesse and Margaret Monroe were:

1. John, b. 26 March 1820 d. 8 April 1857 ae 37-0-13
2. Samuel, b. 18 Oct 1823, d. 15 Nov 1860, m. 1 Aug 1844 Mary Ann Butt
3. Alexander, b. 25 Nov 1826 m. Mary E. Sutton, dau. of Benjamin Sutton

6. Alfred, b. 1835, m. 21 May 1861 Mary Jane Kelley, dau. of John and Frances Kelley.
7. George, b. 6 Dec 1837, d. 5 Jun 1917, m. (1) 2 May 1872 Helena Scheer (2) 7 Mar 1883 Hattie Lake.
8.? William, b. ca.1839

U.S. Census records show the Jesse Monroe family lived in Byrd and Union Townships, Brown County. Jesse's first wife Margaret died 12 May 1844 and is buried in Old Red Oak Cemetery located North of Ripley, Ohio. Jesse married (2) Martha Hodgkins d.ca1848 on 20 March 1845, (3) 18 January 1849 to Sarah Cumberland ca1805-ca1854-55, (4) 5 July 1855 to Rhoda Barton ca1814 VA - by Sept. 1861 who died probably in early 1861. Jesse married (5) 5 September 1861 Sarah Perkins ca1805-17 July 1875 (Brown County Marriage Records Vol. 2, p. 155, J.S.West M.C.). Sarah predeceased Jesse, as his death record, Book1, p. 166 reveals him to be 82 years old, widower, died in Union Township, Brown County, Ohio of chronic diarrhea.

His estate is recorded as #12728 as "no estate whatsoever, this only done to release a mortgage of record". Mr. Orange Sutton (son of Benjamin and sister to Mary E. Sutton wife of Alexander Monroe) was administrator. The note of Mr. Washington White was paid in four payments in 1877/79 Dr. J.C.Winters attended Jesse until 13 April 1877, his fees paid to 12 April 1877. Burial clothes, casket and hearseage paid on 14 April 1877.

Probable siblings of Jesse Monroe living in Brown County were Hugh Monroe, b. 1798, m. 18 Nov 1819 to Isabella Espry; Margaret Monroe, b. 1800/10 m. 10 March 1825 Robert Kirkpatrick (brother of Margaret Kirkpatrick Monroe); George Monroe, b. 1805/08, m. 19 May 1825 Zena Prickett in Byrd Township.

George Monroe, born 6 December 1837, died 5 June 1917, married (1) Helena Scheer on 2 May 1872, (2) Hattie ~~Lake~~ Lake LAKE on 7 March 1883. Helena Scheer was born in Germany in 1853, daughter of Nicholas Scheer (born 1823 probably in Bavaria, Germany) and Katherine Seimann, born in Germany in 1822. Helena Scheer Monroe died 25 April 1878 of typhoid fever at age 25, in Union Township, Brown County, Ohio (Death Record Book 1, p. 172). Both Nicholas and Katherine Scheer are buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio alongside of their other child, daughter Emma, born 1863, who worked as a nurse in an Ohio State Hospital, Columbus, Ohio, never married, died 1929. Children of George and Helena Monroe were:

1. Elizabeth Katherine, b. 18 May 1873, died 7 May 1951, married 6 April 1893 Edward Ernst Swisher. Both are buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio
2. Flora A., b. 31 December 1876 (Birth Records Book 1, p. 308), d. 1942, buried German Reformed Church Cemetery on Delhi Road, western edge of village of Arnheim, Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio.

Page 241 of the U. S. Census dated 18 June 1860 for Union Township, Brown County records George Monroe as aged 22, residing in the household ow Wilson Smith. The next year George volunteered to serve his country in the Union Army. He enlisted 20 September 1861 (less than 6 months after the start of The War of the Rebellion) for a period of three years. He was mustered into Battery "F", First Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Light Artillery. He served some time as a teamster for the horses pulling the cannons. He re-enlisted in Nashville, Tenn. after a furlough home, thus earning the rank of "veteran" instead of "volunteer". His Army records show that George was 6'2½" tall with hazel eyes, brown hair. He was engaged in these battles: Corinth, Miss. 8 April/30 May 1862; Perryville, Ky. 8 October 1862; Stone River, Tenn. 31 December 1862/2 January 1863; Chickamaguga, Ga. 19/20 September, 1863. Mustered out 22 July, 1865.

George received an invalid pension of $30.00 per month from 1891 until his death in 1917. Army Pension Records indicate he was partially deaf from the roar of the cannons, and contracted rhumatism from chills and fever contracted in Decatur, Ala. during the Civil War. George, his daughter Flora A., and second wife Hattie, are all buried in the German Reformed Church Cemetery, Delhi Road, Arnheim, Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio. In 1880 he lived in Union Township, occupation-engineer. In the 1900 U.S. Census, he is recorded as living in Franklin Township.

U.S.Census reports show Thomas Swisher as a farmer or farm laborer living with his family in Byrd Township, Brown County, Ohio, which is just North of the Huntington Township farm of his father, Jacob. Much of the research for the foregoing information was performed by Mrs. James Wilson (Linda Heizer), 314 E. Grant St.,Georgetown,Oh 45121. She is the great-granddaughter of Margaret Estella Swisher Johnson.

Valentine Swisher was born on the 28th of October 1831 in Adams County (per his Army enlistment papers) although more probably in Brown County, son of Thomas Swisher and Mary Ann Shelton. Valentine died 12 October 1915, almost 84 years old, and is buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio. He married 4 July 1854 to Mary Jane Vanlandingham in Brown County, Ohio by James Culter, J.P. His occupation was Miller or Laborer in a sawmill.

Mary Jane Vanlandingham was born in Bath County, Kentucky on 15 April 1834, daughter of John Manley Vanlandingham and Sarah Jane Gray. For some reason, Mary Jane always spelled her last name "Valandingham" from her wedding records to her death, although the spelling in her obituary was Vallandingham. Her brothers and sisters living in the same village of Ripley, Ohio used the correct spelling however. Mary Jane's religion was Methodist, but Valentine was a "Campbellite" Christian. In their later years (1885/90? on) they lived on West Third Street in Ripley, Ohio and attended church regularly. Part of this time they occupied a duplex house, with their youngest son, Edward E. and his family living in the other side. Mary Jane loved flowers and various kinds were planted all around in the yard. A swing was built in the rear yard for their grandchildren to enjoy. It is doubtful if either of them received much schooling, as Census records indicate that they could neither read nor write. They signed documents with "X" mark, although later in 1890, Valentine did sign his full name.

Their four children were:

1. Charles W.,b. 11 May 1855
2. James Gray, b. 1860, d. 9 Oct 1870; bur. Maplewood, Ripley,Oh
3. Walter Sherman (Scott), b. 5 Nov 1864, d. 5 May 1930, m. 26 Jan 1902 Martha Helen Spaulding; bur Manchester,Oh. Dau.Phyllis, never m.
4. Edward Ernst, b. 25 Dec 1872, d. 3 Dec 1926, m. 6 Apr 1893 to Elizabeth Katherine Monroe by Jacob Pister, Vol. 17 P. 222 Brown County Marriage Records

A record of the ancestors and descendents of Edward Ernst Swisher and Elizabeth Katherine Monroe should hopefully begin somewhere in Europe. However, no proven record has been located up to 1984, although the D.A.R. Magazine of January 1943, page 51 states "John Switzer (later spelled Swisher) came to America with brothers Nicholas and Valentine from Switzerland in 1750/70 residing in Wardinsville, Hardin County, W.Va. The 1786 Roll of "Oath of Allegiance Roll 1778-1800 of Sussex County" contains the name of Jacob Swisher, ensign Swisher Co.

The 1803 Male Enumeration list of free white males, 21 years and older of Huntington Township, Adams County, Ohio contains the names of Nicholas and George Swisher. The 1807 list records the names of Nicholas and Jacob Swisher, while the 1815 list shows John and Jonathon Swisher.

Our first confirmed ancestor was Jacob Swisher, born 5 March 1784 in Pennsylvania as recorded in the U.S.Census of 1830 and later in Huntington Township, Adams County, Ohio. This Jacob may be the son of the Jacob who took the oath of allegiance in Sussex County. On 13 June 1805 Jacob Swisher 1st married Mary Patterson in Adams County, Ohio, service performed by James Parker, as recorded in the Probate Court of Adams County. Jacob had settled in the vicinity of the Brushy Fork of Eagle Creek in Southern Ohio, then Adams County, but now the Eastern part of Brown County, just North of Hiett P.O. along Ohio route #763.

Mary Patterson was born in Pennsylvania about 1794 and was possibly the daughter of either Thomas or William Patterson who were recorded in the 1803 Enumeration List of Huntington Township of Adams County. Deeds Book 2, page 305 records that on 25 April 1817 James Taylor sold to Jacob Swisher of Adams County a tract of land containing 500 acres on Brushy Fork of Eagle Creek, a part of Isaac Hites Survey #1686. The Hickory Ridge Cemetery is located adjacent to this land, and Jacob Swisher who died 5 January 1854 is buried there. His wife's grave is unknown.

A record of the ancestors and descendants of Albert Ernest Swisher and Elizabeth Catharine Naylor should logically begin somewhere in Europe. However, the proven record has been located up to 1977, although the D.A.R. Magazine of January 1963, page 50 states "Jacob Sweitzer (later spelled Swisher), came to America with brothers Nicholas and Valentine from Switzerland in 1760/70 residing at [illegible], Lincoln County, N.C. The 1790 [illegible] "Oath of Allegiance, 1778-1800 of Sussex County" contains the name of Jacob Swisher, among Swisher Co.

The 1820 Male Enumeration List of free white males, 21 years and older of Franklin Township, Adams County, Ohio contains the names of Nicholas and George Swisher. The 1827 list records the names of Nicholas and Jacob Swisher, while the 1833 list shows John and Jonathan Swisher.

Our first confirmed ancestor was Jacob Swisher, born March 1790 in Pennsylvania as recorded in the U.S. Census of 1850 and later in ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible], who took the oath of allegiance in Sussex County.

On 13 June 1815 Jacob Swisher married Mary Jane Patterson in Adams County, Ohio, service performed by James Parker, as recorded in the Probate Court of Adams County. Jacob had settled in the vicinity of the Brushy Fork of Eagle Creek in Jackson, Ohio, now Adams County, but not the Eastern part of Brown County, just North of Mount Pleasant along Ohio State #763.

Mary Jane Patterson was born in Pennsylvania about 1794 and was probably the daughter of either Thomas or William Patterson who were recorded in the 1810 Enumeration List of [illegible] Township, Adams County. Deeds Book 2, page 105 records that on 25 April 1817 [illegible] sold to Jacob Swisher of Adams County a tract of land containing 100 acres on Brushy Fork of Eagle Creek, a part of [illegible] Survey. The Hickory Ridge Cemetery is located nearby on this land, and Jacob Swisher who died 9 October 1854 is buried there. His simple grave is unknown.

Nine children are recorded in Census racords as having been born to Jacob Swisher and Mary 1st wf Jane Patterson:-

1. Thomas Abraham, b. 1 Jan 1808 d. 17 Mar 1884, married 8 Feb 1830 to Mary Ann Shelton

Thomas Abraham Swisher was born 1 January 1808 on Brushy Fork, Adams County, Ohio, died 17 March 1884, married 8 February 1830 to Mary Ann Shelton, performed by Alex. McClain, E.C.C. Mary Ann was born 27 November 1814 in Adams County, Ohio, daughter of Valentins Shelton and Sarah Jacobs. The marriage of Thomas and Mary Ann is recorded in Brown County, Ohio Book D4, page 29. Mary Ann died April 4th 1890, and she and Thomas are both buried in Maplewood Cemetery in Ripley, Brown County, Ohio. U.S. Census records, family bibles, court archives, tombstones, etc. indicate Thomas and Mary Ann Swisher had 16 children:-

With the War of the Rebellion almost four years old, Valentine Swisher enlisted in the service of the Union Army at the age of 34, with three young children at home. He was mustered into U.S.A. service at Ripley, Ohio on the 14th of February 1865 by 2nd Lt. John T. McCormick (who was later Captain commanding the company in which Valentine served). Valentine's enlistment papers state that he was born in Adams County, had grey eyes, dark hair, light complexion and stood 5 feet 7 inches tall. He served as a private in Company "K", 188th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry until he was mustered out in Nashville, Tenn. with an honorable discharge on the 21st of September 1865. His papers indicate he was paid an enlistment bounty of $100.00.

His military pension file shows that he applied for a pension sometime around 1880. One of his friends, James Cunningham, made an affidavit in Adams County on May 26, 1883, stating he was a personal friend of Valentine, knew him prior to the Civil War, and that he was a stout, hearty man, especially free of any injuries. He claimed he had served with Valentine in the same Company "K", testifying that Valentine was injured in the line of duty during September 1865 at Edgefield Station, Tenn. by being hit by an Army locomotive. He was knocked down, shoved to the side of the railroad track, injurying his left shoulder. In 1893 the War Department asked Mr. Cunninghsm for another statement, but James stated his 1883 affidavit was correct, although he did not exactly remember what he had written.

Another statement was provided by former Captain John T. McCormick, a resident of Ripley, Brown County, Ohio, outlining his acquaintanceship of several years with Valentine prior to enlisting him. He stated Valentine never complained of any injury at that time. He admitted Valentine did complain of shoulder injury after he returned from detached service at Edgefield Station, Tenn. in July 1865. The Army records did not show any report of his injury at the time. Valentine's pension application the second time was dated July 18, 1890, witnessed by John Maddox and Frank Shafer, and Valentine signed his own name.

Valentine received an Army pension under Certificate #611261 which amounted to only $22.50 at the time of his death. Under the U.S. Congressional Act of February 6, 1907, Valentine was required to file another declaration, which was attested to by H. H. Eveslage and J. W. Tweed on the 18th February, 1907, when he was aged 75. After his death on 12th October 1915, his widow, Mary Jane, filed a Declaration for Widow's Pension dated 18th October 1915, with her mark witnessed by Son-in-law E. E. Swisher and Catherine A. Heck. Her pension was $30.00 at the time of her death on January 23rd, 1923.

The Valentine Swisher family lived on West Third Street in Ripley, Brown County, Ohio from about 1885/89 to their deaths. The home was a duplex, where their youngest son, Edward Ernst Swisher, and his family occupied the other half during at least part of that period. In her memoirs written in 1964, Valentine's grand daughter Mary Helen Swisher Hiatt, stated that her grandmother Swisher loved flowers, and had many of them blooming around her home all the time. Grandpa built a swing in the cherry tree in the back yard for his grandchildren. The Ohio River flooded much of Ripley in 1913, with water up almost to the Swisher's front stoop, when groceries were delivered to them in a rowboat. Valentine and his wife attended church services regularly, including Wednesday night prayer meetings at the Methodist church only a short distance from their home.

Both Valentine and Mary Jane are buried in the "Swisher section" of Maplewood Cemetery in Ripley, along with their sons Charles, James and Edward Ernst and his wife.

Obituary

MARY ELSIE STILLWELL

Weep not that her toils are over,
Weep not that her race is run.
God grant we may rest as calmly,
When our work on earth is done.
Til then, we yield with gladness,
Our mother to Him to keep.
And rejoice in sweet assurance,
He giveth His loved one sleep.

Mary Elsie Swisher Stillwell was born February 4, 1891 and departed this life at Meadow Wood Nursing Home on March 19, 1985 at the age of 94 years, 1 month, 15 days.

She was one of three children born to Charles Oscar and Agnes Belle Thoroman Swisher. Her brother Roy preceded her in death in August, 1975.

She joined the Methodist faith at an early age and remained faithful and dedicated to the Lord throughout her life.

On May 16, 1912 she was united in marriage to Harry Cleveland Stillwell and they shared 63 years together until his death August 22, 1975.

She leaves to mourn her loss: daughter Mildred, wife of Robert L. Martin; and daughter Mabel Lewis; two sons, Russell and Lawrence; 14 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren; 1 sister, Florence Shoemaker of Cincinnati; and a host of other relatives and many friends.

A life of true devotion
And sacrifice and love
Is what she daily lived for us
And her Master up above
She is gone but not forgotten
Only lost from present view
She has left this world of sorrow
In heaven to live anew.
All the years we spent together
All the happy golden hours,
Shall be cherished in remembrance
Fragrance sweet from memories' flowers.

A life has closed, but her memory will remain with those of us left to mourn her passing. There are no words to express the empty place she leaves in all our hearts. May God grant that we mean half as much to others as Mother meant to us.

CARD OF THANKS

Sincere thanks and appreciation to relatives and friends for visits and prayers during the illness of our loved one and for the flowers, cards, food and all expressions of sympathy at the time of her death. A special thanks to the pallbearers; the Rev. Fischer for his consoling words of comfort; the Edgington Funeral Home for their kind and efficient service, the Sardinia Medical Clinic for their professional services and the staff of Meadow Wood for the loving care given her. Every kindness will be held as a cherished memory.

JOSEPH B. WILES.

Joseph B. Wiles, former trustee of Fairview township and the proprietor of a well-improved farm in that township, was born on a pioneer farm near his present place of residence and has lived in that neighborhood all his life. He was born on June 11, 1853, son of Peter M. and 2ND wf Harriet (Goodwise) Wiles, the former a native of the state of Pennsylvania and the latter of Ohio, pioneers of that section, whose last days were spent there.

X Peter M. Wiles was born not far from the city of Pittsburgh and grew to manhood in Pennsylvania. He served as a soldier during the War of 1812 and later moved to Butler county, Ohio. For his services in the War of 1812 he was given a land warrant, but not being then ready to enter a claim on the same sold it. Later he came up the White Water valley and settled in Fayette county, buying a tract of land in Fairview township, one and one-half miles east of Glenwood, established his home there and there spent the remainder of his life, becoming one of the most substantial pioneers of that part of the county. He took an active part in local affairs and held various township offices at one time and another. He was an earnest member of the Christian church and although not an ordained minister of the gospel frequently occupied the pulpit and was widely known throughout this part of the state as a preacher of much power. Peter M. Wiles was a man of sturdy and vigorous physique and retained his extraordinary physical powers almost to the time of his death, at the age of eighty-five riding a horse that younger men feared to ride. He was twice married. His first wife bore him nine children. His second wife, Harriet Goodwise, survived him for more than twenty years, her death occurring in 1904. She was born in Butler county, Ohio, and was but a child when her parents came up the valley of the White Water and settled in Fayette county. She was the mother of five children, of whom two, Morton and Charlotte, are deceased, the others besides the subject of this sketch being Ross and George Wiles.

X Joseph B. Wiles was reared on the paternal farm in Fairview township, receiving his schooling in the neighborhood school, and remained at home, a valued assistant to his father in the labors of the home farm, until his mar-law, in 1872, with W. H. Sly, of Ripley, and was admitted to practice in the Circuit Court in September, 1874. He practiced his profession there one year, then engaged in buying and shipping tobacco at Logan s Gap till 1880. He resumed his law practice in Ripley, and, in the early part of 1881, took charge of his father's farm. November 7, 1879, he was married to Miss Sarah B. Myers, daughter of James and Salina Myers. Two children were born to this marriage, viz.: Myrtie L. and James R. Mr. Stephenson is identified with the Masonic body and Knights of Pythias. Politically, he is a Democrat.

A. J. STIVERS, banker, Ripley, is a son of Robert and Jane (Meharry) Stivers. His maternal relatives were among the respected families of Virginia, who subsequently settled in Pennsylvania, where Robert was born. He moved to the West at an early day, and located in Adams County, where he was married. He was among those of the early pioneers of that county, and resided there until his death, which occurred in 1855. The subject of this sketch was born on the homestead in 1818. His early educational advantages were limited, and, when he had attained his majority, moved to Ripley and began the labor of life with nothing but his energies and ambition for capital. He secured a position with A. Leggett, a prominent merchant of that day, as a clerk, which proved to be the foundation stone of his success. After a service of some years, he was admitted a partner, and the firm of Leggett & Stivers did a large business in pork and general stock. In the fall of 1847, he was called to fill the position as Teller of the Farmers' Branch of the State Bank of Ohio, in which institution he has since been an officer. His election to the position of Cashier, in 1877, he respectfully declined, feeling its duties too great. Mr. S. has for years been largely engaged in the trade of leaf tobacco, flour and pork, and his success is due to his tireless industry and unquailing purpose, making every opportunity useful. He was united in marriage to Miss Harriet N. daughter of John McLain, in 1845. She died in 1851. His present wife, Mrs. Kate Stivers, was a daughter of John T. Maddox, an early pioneer of Adams County. To this union two children have been born—John R. and Frank A., both residing at home. Mr. Stivers is a strong advocate of temperance, and has filled offices of trust. Politically, he is an adherent of Republican principles, and a descendant of the Old-Line Whigs.

MARION TWEED, farmer, P. O. Ripley, eldest son of John and Mary Tweed, was born in Union Township September 22, 1836. Ripley was then known as Stanton, and was but a small river village. He filled the office of Justice of the Peace in Stanton for a number of years, and died February 13, 1837, aged 77. Mrs. W. died April 17, 1846, at the same age. Mr. W., the father of our subject, passed most of his early life in Brown County. In 1824, he purchased a farm of 60 acres, and subsequent additions made him 275 acres at his death. He cleared up a farm and followed its pursuits all his life. He was one of the original members of the Ripley & Bradysville Turnpike Co. He was a patriot in the war of 1812, and died March 7, 1860. Mrs. W.'s death occurred April 13, 1881. Mrs. Wiles was born in Brown County, and died September 1, 1860, leaving one child—Hestoria L., wife of Marion Young. November 17, 1863, Mr. Wiles was again married to Hannah Martin, a native of this township, where she was born August 21, 1840. She was a daughter of Samuel and Rachel Martin. Two children were the fruits of this union—Georgiana, born July, 1865, and William M., born March 23, 1871. Mr. Wiles is connected with the Christian Church, and Mrs. W. with the Methodists. He is prominently associated with the Grange and in politics is Democratic. He owns a farm of 85 acres and is engaged in agriculture and stock-raising.

He (Joseph B.) was a native of Pennsylvania, and a son of Christian Wiles, who located and settled on a farm upon which the busy city of Ripley now stands. He became popular as a pioneer, and was Sheriff of the county some years, and resided in the county during his life. Joseph B. was raised on the homestead, and in connection with farming engaged in the transportation and sale of live stock in flat-boats to New Orleans. He died at his home in this township in 1880, in the seventy-sixth year of his age. The subject of this sketch was born on the homestead in 1831, and until sixteen years of age worked on the farm, and was sent to school. Subsequently, he attended the public schools at Ripley and assisted his father in the store. His educational studies were completed in the college at Yellow Springs, Greene County, from which he returned in 1854. In the fall of the same year he was married to Miss Juliette B., daughter of Elias Hathaway, who was an early pioneer of Brown, and came with a colony from Connecticut and Massachusetts. His father, Dr. Hathaway, was a pioneer physician, and in his profession attained great prominence and was widely known. Mr. Wiles is one of the oldest merchants of the city. He first engaged in the grocery trade many years ago; at this time he, with his sons, commands a large patronage in groceries and dry goods. Their double store on Second street affords ample room for the large and well-selected stock, where the purchaser is treated with courteous and gentlemanly attention. Ohio Magazine - April 1994

Excerpt from The Marrying Kind by Randy McNutt

A hundred years ago, little Aberdeen, Ohio, was a mecca of matrimony, presided over by two squires who would do anything to accommodate the flocks of eager couples, even row out into the middle of the Ohio river and perform the ceremony in a boat.
The village of two thousand people is known for one thing: the Simon Kenton Bridge, built over the Ohio in 1931. It seems a one-way route: Ohioans cross the river to shop, work and entertain themselves. A century ago, however, generations of Maysville people came to little Aberdeen just to say, "I do." Ever since, genealogists on both sides of the river have been trying to untangle their conjugal roots.
Aberdeen, Ohio, and Maysville, Kentucky, are linked by a steel bridge and a shaky family tree. The smaller Aberdeen, on U.S. Route 52 in Brown County, never culminated in a typical nineteenth-century business district, as did Maysville and neighboring Ripley, home of Ohio's burley tobacco market. Maysville and Ripley are red brick and Southern in appearance, but Aberdeen is more informal, all white and sprawling, as if its founders had to keep their options open.
Aberdeen, meanwhile, has spent the last century trying to live down-or live up to, depending on your family's perspective-past of shotgun marriages and twenty-dollar brides. Some flowed across the river in yellow velvet gowns; others sneaked across at night in homespun dresses. They al sought temporary relief on Aberdeen's muddy shore, where anybody could be hitched for the right price.
Because marriage itself is a gamble, Aberdeen became a rural Las Vegas, and Ohio's number one marriage market. So many couples were married there in the nineteenth century, in fact, that the states lost count. Aberdeenians exploited their town's strategic location on the river by bringing in boatloads of couples and offering low-cost witness service. Brides were Aberdeen's cash crop.
In Margaret's Kitchen, a little white restaurant on Route 52, the old counter and knotty pine seats look comfortable enough on a quiet early afternoon.
I ask where a guy can marry quickly in this town, and people stare as though I were an undercover cop. One of the waitresses says, "Aberdeen was the home of the marryin' squires." People stop in here all the time to ask about the old boys, who must have hitched everybody's ancestors. We hear about the stuff all the time from genealogist. Yeah, Squire Beasley-oh, gracious, he married a lot of couples.
An old man seated at the counter looks up from his serving of pie and says, "Uh, thousands". "Tens of thousands," his friend adds.
And he is not exaggerating. In the 1800's Aberdeen was called "America's Gretna Green," referring to a village in Dumfries, Scotland, once known as a runaway lovers' haven. The nickname came honestly enough, for Thomas Shelton, a Huntington Township justice of the peace elevated the holy bonds to cottage industry status. His successor, Massie Beasley, too the tradition to new heights.
If a couple wanted to elope, all they had to do was go to Aberdeen. No other town entered their minds. After all, in Aberdeen nobody worried about marriage's minute details-license included. Steamboat companies and, later, railroads, made Aberdeen a regular stop on the Cincinnati-to-Pittsburgh route. Shelton's pockets bulged. Keeping his work at a minimum, he stood before each couple and said loudly: "Marriage is a solemn ordinance, instituted by an all-wise Jehovah. Jine yer right hands. Do you take this woman to nourish and cherish, to keep her in sickness and health? I hope you live long and do well together. Take your seats."

In the squires' time, townships were powerful local governments that controlled the schools, taxed, built roads and kept the peace. There were no real "squires", but local people used the term endearingly to refer to their justices of the peace-influential country magistrates elected by the townships. They not only married people, but also served as court officials and worked with township constables to prevent breaches of the law.

Shelton did all these things-and more. Shortly after his appointment in 1822, he determined that marrying couples could be a lucrative sideline to politics. From then on, the good squire concentrated on matrimony. He'd marry anybody who could pay-and do it with or without a license. Beasly was worse. He falsely told grooms he could face a long prison sentence for marrying couples without a license, but, for a fee commensurate to the risk, he'd cooperate. The squire invested his considerable earnings in gold and bank notes.

As word of easy marriage spread in the 1820's, Shelton married couples from all over the South, and from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, New York and other states: Thousands flocked to Aberdeen. Each morning, Shelton followed a ritual: He's walk down to the wharf to watch for steamboats bringing more happy-and sometimes desperate-couples. Shelton used to say, "The early squire gets the wedding." He preferred payment in cash, of course, usually twenty dollars, but, if that wasn't possible, he'd take a pocketknife or anything he considered valuable. Twenty dollars was a large fee in the 1800's, but Shelton knew his customers had few options. If they were poor, he'd accept payment in pork, potatoes, apples, turnips and other vegetables to stock a large produce house that he operated as another sideline.

He was an entrepreneurial wedding machine. He even married slaves escaping through the Underground Railroad. He accepted whatever payment they could offer. "In thousands of cases, the squires didn't bother to record the marriages," says Dorothy Helton, a member of Brown County's genealogical and historical societies. "They married couples under the table, you might say. Other times, the squires intended to file marriage certificates in the courthouse, but they didn't go over to Georgetown, the county seat, too often. When they finally went the forgot to take the certificates. Most of the 'lost marriages' involved Kentuckians, who came to Aberdeen to avoid an 1800's Kentucky law requiring couples to produce a bondsman-usually a family member with cattle or some other form of security-to assure that the marriage would hold together. The funny thing is Ohio in the early part of this century made couples wait three days before they could marry. That's why during World War Two a lot of Ohioans went to Kentucky to be married fast."

The squires' casual attitude has caused much trouble across the river ever since the 1800's. "Some families wonder if their ancestors ever did bother to marry," says Molly Kendall of the Mason County Museum in Maysville. "In my own family, the squires married a number of people, so I can tell you from experience that this is a tough genealogical pursuit. Shelton turned in some of his marriages to the courthouse, but Beasley didn't bother much. He was so eager to marry people, though, that he'd row out into the middle of the river if necessary and marry them right there in rowboats." Years of ignoring the law finally caused trouble, however, when the civil War ended in 1865. Seeking pensions for themselves and their children, widows of veterans applied to the state of Kentucky, only to be told that their marriages were invalid and their children illegitimate. After thousands of widows complained, Molly Kendall says, the Kentucky legislature was forced to recognize marriages performed in Aberdeen before the war.

Despite the criticism, Shelton did not slow down. In fact after the controversy his marriage business increase. More eager couples arrived in Aberdeen, many wearing fancy clothes and riding in carriages. Some were married on horseback, for quick escape. By the time Shelton died in 1870, it was apparent that Aberdeen's business of matrimony had become too big-and necessary-to stop cold. Shelton estimated, conservatively, that he had married ten to fifteen thousand couples in 47 years. The question naturally arises as to why these men were never prosecuted and why the people of the town stood by and suffered their laws to be ignored. The apparently perplexing query is readily explained by the old adage, 'A kind heart covers a multitude of sins.' A more popular man than either of these rollicking, careless old squires never trod the earth, and if they made money easily and in a questionable way, they in turn spent it just as freely among their neighbors.

WHEEL TRUING
TOLERABL

THE QUICK AND EASY
STRAIGHTEN

By Rick Siema

---

Lacing and truing wheels has been a semi-mystery for quite s because people are just scared by what they don't know. All c mysteries that surround wheel secrets are nothing more than aids that people who do these jobs have formed.

Most guys can struggle by with their wheels and some even c fair job, but most have no idea what's going on when they sta tightening spokes. When you check the spokes between motc riders start at one point, like the rim lock or the valve stem an loop and that's it.

That's not the way to go about it.

Sure, the spokes get tight again, but the order in which they are tightened is important, Instead of tightening one spoke, then going to the next one, here's a better system.

Start at any point, say the rim lock, and turn each spoke just ¼ turn; then do the other side of the rim (both) bur. Oak Hill Cem. Carrollton, Carroll Co., MO

Marlys passed away early Sunday morning the 10th of April 2005 from the effects of cancer. She will be greatly missed. She loved her family and loved her ancestors. This site will remain online so that anyone who knows anymore about her family can pass it on to be added to this file. This way Marlys' dream of finding more on her ancestors will come true.

Marlys is trying to find more information about her mother's side of the family namely the WEDMORE, HURD, SAPP & SHELTON lines. These families were all in Ohio by the early 1800's and by the 1850's were heading west to Iowa. Any help anyone can give on these families would be greatly appreciated.

Brief Sketch on BRITTEN FAMILY

GRAECIA BRITTEN

THIS WRITTEN 1980

Four Brittens came to United States all presumed to be sons of

Richard Britton of Batscomb, Somersetshire , England

They were 1. Cananuial Britton who settled in Pennsylvania and was a Quaker.
v. Daniel who settled in New York City had a son Richard ~~bab~~tised Aug 5, 1668
Vl. William believed to be a son (this my ancestor.
vii. Nathaniel who came over with William

The two brothers first went to New Hampshire Area than they left to migrate to the flatbush area of Long Island.
Nicholas married Anne Stillwell and Benjamin married Maria (Mary) Stillwell both were daughters of Anne and Nicholas Stillwell. Its my contention both were probably born in Virginia. [illegible] lived in Virginia before moving North into New Amsterdam than on to Long Island.

William and Maria (Mary) had a good sized family. Among their sons were a Benjamin Britten who also married a Stillwell, She was Martha Stillwell not sure who her family is. She evidently died at the birth of their youngest child ~~abd~~ and Benjamin remarried. Married 1 st tim Benjamin Britten II married 8 Jan 1739 Hannah Lewis daughter of Hannah and Johnathan Lewis. Hannah was born on Staten Island1718/ She soed death date Unknown. He died anout 1769. He left mp will and his brother-in-law Johnathan Lewis who went to court to obtain property for his sister.

| Daniel | Aug 24, 1758 |

Jonathan married and settled in Duchess County, New York. In about .1033 he moved back to New York City where died in 1803. His widow married Barnes H. Smock.

Daniel was suppose to have been impressed on board a British Man of War and tis sais nothing more was heard of him.

Benjamin Briten III born on Staten Island Aug 27, 1740 moved to Monmouth County New Jersey where on Auly 28, 1761 (Family record) but this is in error as he was married by Governors License July 26, 1782 to Abigail Hoff (Huff) (Haugh) Daughter of Peter Hoff and Sarah

They made their in middlesex Monmouth Co. New Jersey
Some say Middletown.

He answered the call to alarm and fought at the Battle of Monmouth. Thus making it possible for some to Join the DAR. When it was easy to join my Aunt Lilly Britten Gibson moved his birthplace to Richmond, Massachusetts as she found Military Service for a Benjamin Britten in Massachusetts Sailors and Soldiers.

About 1800 they moved to New York City to be with their children who had already moved there before 1800. Abigail is said to have died with a couple of years. Benjamin died from a hernia strangleated in 1821.

They had a large family consisting of:

Hannah married a Jonathan Hildrith, Methodist Minister at Middletown N.J. in 1790. Only have record of on son but could have had several more. Benjamin Hildreth became an attorney at Nashville, Tenn.

Abigail Britten never married. She operated a hat store where she made she sold. Her home was at 81 Pine Street, New York. She left chartered Funds to the Methodist Church of New York. At her fathers death she received the bulk of his Estate - no doubt having cared for him for years.

Mary married a John Smith and lived in Georgetown, Kentucky and moved to Springfield, Illinois where she died of Cholera in 1834. Not known if she had any decendants.

Benjamin Britten V left home tis shaid he left home in 1785. Britten men have been known to leave home at a very early age. In early 1800 he went home proably to see his mother before she died. At that time lived accross the river from Cincinnati, Ohio and suppose to have 2 Children. Family report was he was never heard from again. I proved this to be a lie. He may have gone to Kentucky the same time that Peter Hoff took off from New Jersey for Kentucky. Peter Hoff could of been a uncle of his. I located him in Mason County Kentucky than from there to Brown Co. Ohio.

My Great Grand father Gersham Hoff Britten served in the War of 1812. His pension record shows that he went on a trip in 1840 - it first took him to Baltimore, Marland but haven't as yet found who he went to see. In Virginia it turned out that his brother William had dared to go that far. From there he went through Kentucky to Cincinnatti ~~Cinnatti~~ where his pension was transferred. Census records shows he had several sons and daughters. Before anyone had contacted me found that a daughterAbby (Abigail) Britton (Britten) had married Buddy Shelton. in 1820 and a daughter Sarah married 6 - 08-1825 licence only George O'Briant. oath Buddy Shelton

Am very interested in finding information on Benjamin Britten Have data on part on Shelton & Brittingham Families. Have not done anything on the family of Sarah & George O'Briant.

Has your Genealogical Society contacted the Local DAR Chapter or Chapters to find what they have copied for DAR. Know every state submit Genealogical Records to National which they have gathered. Some Chapter Chairmen retain copies of what they have submitted. It may be they will make copies available to your group. I purchase each book my State puts out. Am busy copying County records to be submit to State Chairman.

Please excuse my typing - I am blind in left eye & at times

My vision is impared due to stomach and intestinal trouble. am going to a specialist Friday.

Portland is approximately 200 miles as the crows ~~fak~~ flies, My garden was poor due exceedingly cool weather we have had. The rains have brought us well needed water and crops are starting to grow. If we get a good Indian Summer - crops will finish develping. Notice there are a lott Blackberrys that need picking. a friend who is partly blind & deaf & a young 86 loves them.

Dear Mrs. Shelton:

Having done a little genealogical research I often glance through the genealogical inquiries in the DAR magazine, which hasn't been a particularly rewarding effort. However I was surprised to notice your paragraph "Shelton-Brittin", which seemed to ring a bell. I remembered that my mother said her great grandfather was called Buddy Shelton. I have done very little work on my mother's family which includes Sheltons, Scotts, Campbells. Any information on the Sheltons would be greatly appreciated, I can assure you. I'm afraid I don't have a great deal to offer you but will relay what little information my mother jotted down before she died.

My mother, Ethel Scott, was born in Ellsbury, Ohio, Oct. 27, 1880. Her mother was Mary Eliza Shelton, born June 16, 1860 in Huntington Township, Ohio. She was the daughter of James Shelton, born 1842, died May 22, 1862. James was married to Sarah Campbell. John, a brother of James, had got together a company of soldiers who were among Lincoln's first volunteers, according to my mother. He was joined by his brother Benjamin and by my ~~grandfat~~ mother's grandfather, James. James was in the war one year and was coming home on a furlough up the Cumberland River, to see his wife Sarah and baby daughter, Mary Eliza, when, according to the legend a spy got on the boat and poisoned the food and most of the men died. According to his pension records in the National Archives James Shelton died of fever at Evansville, Indiana, May 22, 1862.

According to my mother's notes James Shelton was the son of Buddy Shelton (Robert), who was married to Abby Britton (Brittin?). His second wife may have been named Mary Hurd. I couldn't make out whether Mary Hurd was Buddy's second wife or his mother.

My mother was born and brought up in Ellsbury, Ohio, near Aberdeen. She said that her grandfather, James, and his father Buddy lived in the old house on their farm, which they had built, a double log house. Buddy Shelton had a large family, but he, his wife, and ~~three daughters died~~ within a week of cholera. There was also mention of a brother(in law) Tom Britton, who lived with them.

I'm afraid that's about all I know. Have a few cousins left in Ohio but seem to have lost track of them. One was Inez Neeper, last address 2166 Argray Drive, Dayton, O 45414, also William Neeper. And Vernon Jackman, who used to live in Dayton but now seems to be in Cincinnati. They are also Shelton descendants.

Will look forward to hearing from you.

> other persons into the colony for which he received 700 acres of land in Accomack Co., Virginia. There he established a plantation near the Maryland border.

In "De Brethenham and Brettingham," Walter Brettingham wrote:

> "So in 1659, at age 19 or 20, he was `brought-in' by John Nutthall (Nutwell, Nuttle), prominent Virginia trader and ship's captain, of Accomac and Northampton Counties, who removed to parts of Maryland and Virginia near present-day Washington, D.C. By 1663, he transferred his land rights for `bringing-in' WILLIAM to Roger Woolford who `brought' him into Maryland. WILLIAM came into Maryland `unmarried' having made some kind of contract with Nutthall and Woolford to pay for his passage across the Atlantic. From the passage of property, it means that he or his sons married into the Woolfords or their relatives. WILLIAM and his family acquired land near Pocomoke River and Pocomoke Sound, some of it on those bodies of water, on both sides of the Virginia-Maryland border, most of it in Maryland. Of the 3 versions of his name in early evidence in the colony, BRITTINGHAM, BRETTINGHAM, BRITEHAM, it is the first variant that took root.

Of the 44 great-grandchildren, 16 were Brittingham boys. By the first U.S. Census in 1790, there were 12 Brittingham heads-of-family in Worcester Co., Maryland."

Dennis. Donnock Dennis (spelled variously Donnoch, Donach, Donagh) was in Northampton County, Virginia, July 31, 1661, when he married Elice Nehulian, or Nebulian. (Northampton records, Wills, Deeds, etc., 1657-1666, p. 114; 24 Journal of American History, p. 214.) Donnock Dennis may be identified with one Tonath (or Tonnath) Dennis who appears as a headright in November 27, 1657, to a patent granted William Roberts for land in Northampton County. (Nugent, Cavaliers and Pioneers ... Virginia Land Patents, 1623-1800, pp. 353 and 356). The baptismal name Elice (wife of Donnock Dennis) also appears later invariably as Ellis. The surname appears as Nehulian, or Nebulian. There was one Darman (or Dorman) Neheuallin (also Nehevellin?) who was a headright to a patent granted November 27, 1657, to Thomas Stratton, of Northampton County (Ibid., pp. 353 and 356). From these references in Virginia land patents it looks very much as though the Dennises, Nehulians and other apparently Irish families arrived in Northampton County, Virginia, about the same time.

Donnock Dennis came from "Northampton-Accomack," in Virginia, to Somerset County, Maryland, bringing his wife Ellis, daughter Elizabeth and son Donnock, Jr., about 1668; probably earlier (Hall of Records, Annapolis, Land records, Liber 11, p. 514). Donnock Dennis obtained lands, both by patent and purchase, on the north and south sides of the Pocomoke River, and apparently first settled on Morumsco Creek. In 1672, Thomas Blake, of Galloway, Ireland, gave power of attorney to friend "Donagh Dinis, of Morumsco Creeke," Somerset County, to collect debts due said Blake (AZ, p. 114), November 13, 1683, Donald [Donnock] Dennis was appointed constable of Annemessex Hundred (O 7 [front], p. 1).

Donnock Dennis, Jr.; grandson Donnock, son of John Dennis; daughter Eleanor, wife of Jeremiah Morris; son-in-law Hugh Porter; daughter Margaret; son Henry Hudson; son John Dennis (executor); son Donnock Dennis. On March 23, 1716/17, Elizabeth Dennis, widow of the testator, "did revoke the will and fly to her thirds." (Md. Cal. Wills, IV, p. 82.) In that Donnock Dennis names "son in law Hugh Porter"; and Hugh Porter in his will dated May 28, 1709, probated August 23, 1701/7, names wife Katherine Porter (Md. Cal. Wills, IV, p. 155), it seems evident that Katherine (daughter of Donnock Dennis) married Hugh Porter. Whether "Henry Hudson" named as son in will of Donnock Dennis was actually son, or whether son-in-law, or stepson, is not clear. Evidently, Donnock Dennis' first wife, Ellis Nehulian, who was living as late as February, 1687/8, (see Roger O'Cane's will above) died, and Donnock married, secondly, Elizabeth (???), who was living at the time of his death in March, 1716/17.

END OF ALL COMMON PLEAS ABSTRACTS PUBLISHED THUS FAR.++++++++++++

I hope some of the abstracts will be of value to you in your research. If you wish, you may make a donation for my time to the Society. I felt that many of these Newman names may (or may not) be related to your Joseph Newman, but perhaps this willXassist you in casting some out that are in Townships other than your research calls for== The name of J. (John) Patterson is given many many times in these abstracts as he was J.P., and I have not listed him always if I felt it had nothing to do with your Patter sons.....also, I checked all names listed in your letter, but listed only when I found the surname.
Once, again, please forg ive this terrible typing...My electric typewriter went out on me, and I once again must get used to this manuel until it is repaired. Please overlook typing errors!

Lore, Legends & Landmarks of Old Adams

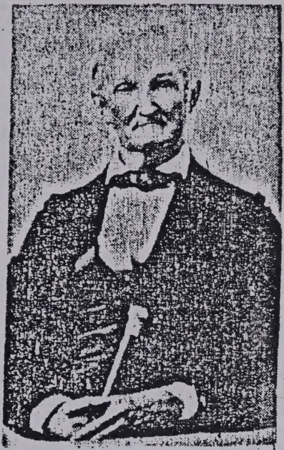
by Stephen Kelley

For several decades the village of Aberdeen was commonly known as the Gretna Green of Ohio. Gretna Green is a village situated in Scotland near the border of England. It became famous in song and prose as a result of the numerous runaway marriages which took place there.

Aberdeen became the Gretna Green of Ohio as a consequence of the actions of two different justices of the peace who resided in the village. Thomas Shelton and Massie Beasley put Aberdeen on the map and made themselves famous by marrying couples who did not have marriage licenses. Over a span of seventy years, more than twenty thousand marriages were performed in Aberdeen without benefit of license.

It all began in 1822 when Shelton began this peculiar practice. He had been born in Stafford County, Virginia in 1776 and had moved to southern Ohio in 1812. He became the second justice of the peace in Huntington Township in 1816 when he succeeded Nathan Ellis, founder of Aberdeen, in that position. He held the JP office for fifty four years surrendering it only upon the summons of the angel of death in 1870.



During those fifty four years, "Squire" Shelton united more than four thousand couples in holy matrimony—all without license. Upon his death it was stated that he had married more people than anyone else in the United States.

Although kind-hearted, generous and described as a lovable old gentleman, Shelton was in the matrimonial game for profit. He always made certain the groom could pay for his professional services before the ceremonies were conducted. He ofttimes spent more time dickering over the fee than performing the wedding. Although he preferred cash, he was known to accept other items in payment ranging from pocket knives to fresh farm produce.

Squire Shelton's marriage ceremony was short (sometimes it had to be)—and quaint. Standing in front of the moonstruck lovers and their witnesses he would state: "'Marriage is a solemn ordinance, instituted by an Allwise Jehovah. 'Jine' your right hands. Do you take this woman to nourish and cherish, to keep her in sickness and health? (Answer) I hope you will live long and do well together. Take your seats." Payment was then made and the newlyweds were on their way.

Pictured is a rare tintype view of Squire Thomas Shelton taken circa 1865. We will tell you about his successor next week.

My interest in my family history led me to Alan W. Eckert's, "That Dark and Bloody River". My ancestors, Edgington, Williams, Tomlinson lives are portrayed there in the Ohio River Valley. It is no wonder then that I have Cherokee and Wyandot Indian blood lines. I have many documents as proof positive as well as testimony from my cousin Paul White a 30 yr veteran researcher. I am decended from Valentine Shelton 1790-1847. I am researching William Tomlin b.1818 mar. Martha Case; Thomas Evans mar. Phoebe Davis, b. July 8, 1847; Nathaniel Tomlinson mar. Mary Edgington, 1724-186?; George Edgington mar. Margaret Brown...6 sons, all in the Revolutionary War; 1 daughter Jemima mar.Benjamin Reed (Stubenville, Ohio).

My living cousins are Mark Cox, Junior Shelton, Paul White, Manchester, Ohio; Steve Brecht, Estate Planning, estplnserv@aol.com, L.A.; Cheryl Copas; Linda Whitford, xlinda@ssimicro.com, Canada; Bell; Nash; Ziegler; many more... Hello, Faith, Marilyn. Oh my! It will take forever but when I die I will know who my grandmother's real mother and father were for sure. So far no one has been able to figure out the Copas puzzle.

The GedCom file that I have lists Valentine Shelton's mother as an American Indian and he had a sister Minerva. This account is from Margaret Burbage and the Georgetown Historical library family file. Hope to find more relatives to exchange info with.

Rosalie in sunny California... I love Adams County, Ohio. My daddy rests in West Union, Ohio.

Larry Parks,

I have read "The Life and *see copy Travels of Lemuel Glasscock" that you sent. It is a fascinating story as well as being a rich source of genealogy information. As a result I have been able to fill in some of the blanks and begin to piece together the genealogy of families living in the area at that time. Here is what I have. I would appreciation any confirmations, corrections and additions that you can supply.

My great, great, great grandfather was Valentine Shelton who settled in the northern part of Huntington twp., Adams co., OH in the early 1800's. He married Sally (Sarah) Jacobs of Mason co., KY in 1812. They had eight children, three daughters and five sons. Sally died in 1839 and Valentine remarried Sarah Bowman in about 1842. They had no children. Sarah was the daughter of Henry Bowman and Isabella Pence. She was born in 1800 and died in 1874. Sarah was probably a sister of Samuel and Nathan Bowman. (Do you know who their parents were?). Sarah's mother's family, the Pences, lived next to the Bowmans.

Valentine Shelton's oldest son was Joseph who married Elizabeth Glasscock in 1832. They had five children the oldest being named Lemuel after Lemuel Glasscock, her brother. (As noted in Lemuel Glasscock's autobiography). Elizabeth died in 1844. Joseph remarried Elizabeth Cochran and they had seven children including Mahala N. Shelton who was my great grandmother. Joseph remarried a third time to Margaret Bolts.

Valentine's son, Thompson Shelton married Minerva Swearingen in 1844. Minerva may have been a daughter of Samuel Swearingen and a sister to the two Swearingen girls who married Lemuel Glasscock and Nathan Bowman. Nathan married Drucilla Swearingen (according to Lemuel's autobiography) but Lemuel never tells his wife's first name. Do you know it?

Valentine's youngest daughter Lucinda married Lemuel's brother, John Peter Glasscock in 1840. They were later divorced and both remarried. Lucinda married Willis Burtt and moved to Ripley in Union twp. John Peter's second wife's name was Mary.? They stayed in Huntington twp. (1880 census).

Valentine's youngest son was Alexander Shelton. His mother-in-law was Phoebe Bowman, sister of his stepmother, Sarah and possibly Samuel and Nathan..

These families all lived close to one another on the East Fork of Eagle Creek in the northern part of Huntington twp., a few miles southwest of Hickory Ridge. The 1876 Atlas of Huntington twp. shows Swearingens, Bowmans, Glasscocks. and Sheltons living in the valley of this creek. My sister and I drove up this valley a couple of years ago and photographed some of the old houses. In the Atlas there is a house called "Mrs. Glasscock" and across the road one called T. (Thomas) Glasscock. We photographed them. On up the road is the home of Lewis C. Shelton, one of Valentine's sons. According to the 1880 census there were several Shelton descendants living near Lewis, including Thompson, the son that married Minerva Swearingen and their sons Lewis and Lafayette. Also nearby were Thomas Glasscock, Patrick Bowman, Jerimiah Swisher (two of Valentine's daughters married Swishers) and John Peter Glasscock.

In 1847, Sarah Bowman deeded her interests in her father, Henry Bowman's estate to Valentine's children. The land lying on the waters of the East Fork of Eagle Creek bordered the property of George Pence and Phillip Bowman. It was in the Humphrey Brooks Survey which Lemuel mentions in his autobiography.

That's about all that I have. Where are you on your genealogy research of the Glasscocks? I would be very interested in hearing what you have.

Look forward to hearing from you.

THE # GLAS(S)COCK—GLASSCO SAGA

(The 1st 5 generations of Glas(s)cocks in America—from 1643 into the mid 19th Century)

The story of Thomas$_1$ and Jane Glascock who migrated from England to Tidewater Virginia by 1643 and established a clan which moved along the Tidewater, into the Piedmont, and then over the mountains to pioneer frontier homes in most of the new states of the young nation as they were opened for settlement. Includes accounts of all of the Glas(s)cock(e)s in the 1st 5 generations in America, of most of them in the 6th generation and much information about later generations. Also includes the complete line of descendants of Enoch$_8$ Glasscock-Glassco who migrated to Kentucky in 1801 and to Illinois in 1828.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

As I began to read about the Glasⓢcock family some twenty years ago, I came upon the following statment in a musty tome in the Western Reserve Genealogical Library in Cleveland:

> "The name - Glasscock - certainly existed in Virginia long before the Revolution...Here we have a family name among the oldest in Virginia and of Colonial as well as present prominence, and yet diligent search fails to make anything approaching a satisfactory family record. The Glasscock family is well worth such study as has been given to many New England families, and if the whole story could be revealed, it would be interesting and worthy." (See note 53, p. 139.)

The family did turn out to be "among the oldest in Virginia." (They were in America almost a century and a half before the Constitution was signed!) And it was also a "very prominent one" in many ways. In fact their story became, indeed, the story of the young country itself as their paths crossed and crisscrossed those of many famous people and events of Colonial America.

Unfortunately many of the people who helped much in the gathering of the information for this book are now dead - and gone with them is much priceless data. As the years progressed, it became more apparent to me that someone should gather in one place all of the scraps of information about the family and publish the whole story of its growth and activities in and since Colonial days. I resolved that somehow I would make available to others the information I was able to gather - before I too went the way of all flesh and my notes were also lost.

I started by writing about my own (Glassco) family and worked backward as new information about earlier Glasscocks was uncovered. As a result the major text had to be rewritten a number of times as I adjusted and readjusted the scope of the book to cover the whole Glasⓢcock clan and to record them in chronological order from their beginning in America. Then, when I was almost ready to publish what I had, it occurred to me that it might be helpful to include some charts which would summarize the members of the early major branches of the family. Little did I realize what a task that would turn out to be - it took a hard working year! The results of those additional hundreds of hours will be found in the GENEALOGICAL CHARTS in the Appendix, which include practically all of the members of the family from 1643 to the mid 1800's. These charts include information about the ancestors of most of the Glasⓢcocks in America and, to my knowledge, such information has never been published before anywhere.

Three hundred copies of the book have been printed. Of course there are many more Glasⓢcocks than that in the country (plus libraries), so I hope no one will be disappointed.

Mistakes are no doubt legion in this work, because there are so many innaccurate, conflicting and uncertain sources. Further, as the work progressed, it became obvious that there had to be a "cut off" point for gathering information. Otherwise, changes and corrections would go on indefinitely and the book would never be published if I kept waiting to get it "perfect" and "up to date." This book is therefore intended to be simply a "beginning" of the story of the family.

I hope that those who find errors in these pages and have additional information will send me their corrections - with substantiating data. I also hope others will be inspired to take up the gauntlet of working out the complete story of this fascinating family into the 20th Century and down to the 12th and 13th generations of the present. My job, as I have conceived it, has been to start the process......

Richard W. Glascock being sworn, saith:

"I reside in the County ofRalls, state of Missouri. I formerly lived in Fauquier County, Va. I am now about 57 years old. I was acquainted with Thomas Glascock, who died inFauquier County, Va. He was the reputed son of John Glascock Sen., deceased, who is said to have died in Brown County, Ohio, about the year 1822. The latter named John Glascock Sen. is my reputed grandfather. I was not acquainted with him. I have heard from my relatives who are older than myself that the said Thomas Glascock was the son of the said John Glascock Sen. deceased, and I have also heard my mother make similar statements. My mother andLeroy Glascock have each spoken in my presence of the land in Kentucky devised by the said John Glascock Sen., deceased, to the said Thomas Glascock."

Isabel Stinson, of lawful age, produced and sworn, saith asfollows:

"I reside in theCounty of Ralls, state of Missouri, I formerly resided in Fauquier County, Va., I am now 66 years of age. I was personally acquainted with John Glascock Sen., deceased, who is said to have died in Brown County, state of Ohio, in year 1822. He was my reputed grandfather and reputed father of Thomas Glascock, deceased, who died inFauquier County, Virginia, about 50 years ago. The last time I saw the said John Glascock Sen., deceased, was at the residence of the said Thomas Glascock, now deceased, in the said county of Fauquier, Va., a short time previous to his moving from Virginia to the state of Ohio, and I am more certain of this because he, recognizing me as his granddaughter and also as the daughte of Thomas Glascock, gave me some calico pieces to be used in making a quilt for myself. When I was quite younger I heard my mother and Leroy Glascock speak of the land in this controversy in thiscause, situated in Kentucky, as the land my grandfather John Glascock Sen., deceased, had devised to his son Thomas Glascock. My mother is now dead and my brother Leroy Glascock now resided in Ralls County, Missouri, who hasconveyed his interest in the land to John Glascock.

Sworn to before John Ralls, notary public

Dear Linda,

After a bit of layoff I've started to delve into family background again. With grandchildren in Maryland, Odessa TX, and Houston TX, we stay on the road quite a bit visiting them. We did get back to Spain last October and went to Peru in November which was quite an experience.

While perusing my copies of the Glasscock/Glasco Saga I came across some info on the Glasscock line that I had not included before. I've included a printout in case you're interested.

Also, an extract from the book "The Glasscocks of England and America" is quoted:
"According to a letter from Mrs Alta Botts, Asa had ten children in Ky, and John Peter was the youngest. Then he apparently went to Clearmont, Ohio, where he married Catherine Grossen who bore him five children and then died. He next married a young widow Mrs Elizabeth (Smyser) Mount who had two sons in Ohio and a nice farm. In 1847 they went to Moultie Co. Ill. where they both died. The account continues confusedly: "They had five more children which made 10 for Asa (+6 for her) but Asa left her Mount sons in Ohio with their grandparents." Grandaughters contacted by Mrs Botts stated that Asa died in Mason Co. Ky, and Mary in Ohio. John Peter died 1902/03."

Sincerely

Barry L Dole

Gregory Glasscock and Elizabeth White (parents of John R.) were natives of Frederick County, Virginia. The "Glasscock/Glasco Saga" indicates she was the cousin of Zachary Taylor. They were married on 9 Dec 1809 by Minister L.C. (Lewis Chastain or Lewis Corbin). He had been married the first time to a Miss McEntree. Gregory joined the 1st Regt Virgnia Militia, Capt Francis T. Mastin's Co. of Infantry of the Line, in the War of 1812. He entered service on 26 Aug 1814 and was discharged on 24 Nov 1814 at Ellicote Mills, 90 miles from his residence in Frederick County. He apparently went in as a Sergeant and held that rank for the 3 months and 3 days of service. His pay was 11 dollars per month. They emigrated to Kentucky (probably to Butler County) and subsequently moved to Adams County, Ohio in 1817. They had five children, Mary A, Samuel H., James W., John R., and Valentine. Elizabeth died in 1827. Gregory married a 3rd ~~second~~ time to Susan Fristo and had two more children: Israel and Alanda. He died in 1851 in Highlands County, Ohio. According to the Brown County History of 1883, Gregory was the first singing teacher in the Township of Huntington. (He was a fifer in the War of 1812)

THE LIFE AND TRAVELS # OF # LEMUEL GLASSCOCK

Forward

This autobiography was written by Lemuel Glasscock about 1840 while he was in prison in West Union, Adams County Ohio. Lemuels book is part of the Library of Congress rare books collection and as far as I know it is the only existing copy. It was collected in 1870 by the library.

The original has some damage that makes it difficult or impossible to read some of the words. Where these damaged passages occur I have used italic print for my interpretation of the words. I have left the spelling and punctuation as it was written. I did capitalize all names for the benefit of researchers. I also have included notes in parentheses in italics.

The original book was printed with different size fonts probably because it was printed in a small print shop, in Maysville Kentucky about 1841, with limited type face, this is why some pages have more or less print on them, I kept the words on the same pages as the original book. This page in the original book was blank.

Lemuel was later released from prison, I do not know under what circumstance, and moved his family to Lewis County, Missouri where he remained until his death. Date of death undocumented as of this date.

Transcribed by Larry Parks, December 1999.
Lemuel Glasscock was my 3th great grandfather.

LEMUEL GLASSCOCK, a son of PETER GLASSCOCK and SARAH his wife, was born in Fauquier county, Virginia, on the 16th of May, 1801. My father being a house carpenter and a poor man, about five years from my birth, concluded to quit the business and try some other occupation for a livelihood. He finally did so, and moved over what is called the Blue Ridge mountain, in Jefferson county, Va (now WV). On a small stream called Blue Skin (Bullskin Run). He there got in with a man by the name of HENRY GANT, to be overseer for him, and remained in his employ three or four years. By this time he had gained right smart to the world. My mother had two children living, my sister HARRIET and myself, having lost several. She being in bad health, the doctor advised her to take a child and raise it and finally one was brought to her. The child was about two weeks old and my mother took it and raised it. About this time my father had a better offer made him in Frederick county, by a man named ORR, a doctor, and he accepted it. He was to get a certain share of the crop, and he raised abundance of wheat, and grain then demanding a high price he picked up in the world very fast. About this time I was sent to school. I was yet a small and mischievous boy, and cared nothing about learning. My father's time with ORR, with whom he had lived for years, being up, and his name of being a good farmer was also up and was spread all through the country far and wide. And now the rich men of that country was anxious to get him to do business for them. Now Judge WASHINGTON (Justice of the Supreme Court Bushrod Washington), guardian of JOHN A. and BUSHROD C. WASHINGTON, his nephews, who had very large estates left them hearing my father was a good farmer and sober man, employed him to farm the young men's estates. Their farms were in Jefferson co; on the road leading from Charles Town to Winchester. The farm my father lived on lay near a place called the white house (White House Spring, near Summit Point WV) , about three miles from the other two farms. I think he had about three hundred negroes under his notice. He received a certain share of all that was raised on each farm. I remember he drew at one place the tenth, at another the eleventh, at another the twelfth of all that was raised on the farm. He had considerable money to loan but on interest. My sister and I were kept at school as the school house was very handy to my father's. I was a very mischievous boy and did not like to go to school as my bad conduct occasioned a frequent application of the birch necessary. It did but little good however, for if I got off with one whipping a day I did remarkably well. About this time my sister ELIZABETH was born. There were then four of us with the one who was adopted into the family. She appeared as dear to me as any of the rest, and in fact there was no difference made by my parents between us. About this time the war between Great Britain and America. My father now joined the old regular baptist church. He then held family worship in his house regularly. He would often talked to me, and told me of the goodness of God, and how God loved good boys and girls who obey their parents and love him and keep his commandments, and love to read good books, and go to meeting, and behave themselves well while there, and pay strict attention to what the preacher says. He also told me, also what became of bad boys, who disobey their parents, who do not love God not keep his commandments, but go on sinning against a most holy just and merciful God. He would offer up prayers in my behalf. But it appeared as if it were all in vain, for, when out of his sight I was as bad as ever. He never permitted me to swear. If he heard of my having done so I was sure to catch a drubbing. I never heard him swear or utter a profane word. Some time in 1814 or '15, I was afflicted with the white swelling to my right ancle, which stopped me from going to school, and kept me under the doctor's hands for a long time. They told me I was out of my senses, and the doctor thought they would have to cut off my leg and ??? it to my father, who told him to save it as long as he could, for says be??? a ???? of a foot is better than none. He paid the doctor $50 ??? ??ing for attending upon me. When I got better there were thirty six small s???? of bones come out of my ancle, and for near two years I went to school on crutches. At school I was kept whenever I was able to go and badly enough I hated it. I was put a English Grammar and hated it so bad I hid my book and said I lost it. They talked of sending to town to get me another book. I thought I might as well get my old on as to put them to the trouble of getting a new one. The teachers name was EDWARD HALY. He was so severe that I seldom passed a day without a whipping. Whilst writing a circumstance which happened about this time recurs to my mind. I concluded within myself not to be abused any longer. So I got me a butcher knife and made a scabbard for it, and carried it inside my vest concealed from any one, and set a firm resolution that if the teacher under took to whip me that day, to kill him. I was so determined to kill him that I never once attempted that morning to get my task in grammar. When we came to school we were as usual called on to recite. When the teacher asked if I had the lesson I answered boldly, No sir! He did not request the reason as he had always done before, nor did he keep me in at play time. I have often times thought of that circumstance and do believe a kind providence prevented him from whipping me that day and me from carrying the knife any more: for I lay and studied about it that night and saw it would not do. I left my knife at home ever afterwards. The next day I went to school but did not escape a drubbing. I formed a resolution within myself if I ever lived to be a man to compensate EDWARD HALY, if his head was as white as a sheet, for his kindness to me when a boy. Now my dear readers, in 1825 I had the pleasure of seeing Mr. HALY. I was then 23 years old I had moved a family from Harrison co. Ky. To Frederick co. After visiting some time among my relations and friends I started home and concluded to take Harpers Ferry in my route. That night I put up a William's Hotel and next morning I rose very early and walked out in the porch and the first man I saw was EDWARD HALY; and I knew him very well although it had been nearly ten years since I had seen him. The promise I had made came into my mind. I thought in a moment it will never so to fulfil that promise. For at that time I was young and called very stout, having a short time before whipped the bully of that county. I walked up to him and said good morning, Mr. HALY. Says he, "sir, you have the advantage of me." "O no sir, I reckon not. Do you not remember the boy you used to whip so much at the White house when you taught there?" I expect he saw something in my countenance that was not right. Says he, "is this LEMUEL GLASSCOCK?" "Yes sir." "Really." Says he. "You have grown out of my knowledge. LEMUEL, you were a very bad boy." "Yes sir, but you whipped me often when I did not deserve it." "Yes but often when you did deserve it I did not whip you, so the accoun's about balance. Let's take some bitters." After washing I went into the bar room with him and drank good friends and parted.

My father kept me to school constantly about the time the soldiers were marching to Norfolk. I yet had to go on crutches, and wanted to go with them but my mother made the negroes bring bring me back. Had my health permitted I would have gone, in spite of my parents. My father compelled me to write every night, what the negroes had done during the day. This improved me in writing very fast, so that I was considered a tolerably good scribe. Whilst I had to walk on crutches BUSHROD WASHINGTON gave me a horse to ride, and JOHN A. WASHINTON gave me a saddle and bridle. I was then fixed off completely, for it was my delight to work amongst horses and was considered a first rate hand with them. I loved horses much better than my book. Little cared I about learning, though being kept at it constantly I could not help learning some. My father would often make me read to him Sundays, and this mortified me exceedingly, so that whenever I could slip away from him he seldom ever saw me till night. Hunting, fishing or in some other way profaning the sabbath day, were my occupations at such times. About this time my brother, JOHN P. GLASSCOCK, was born. My father still kept me at school and badly enough I hated it. Had I been as studious as some boys I might have been as good a scholar as the state of Virginia could afford, as I was kept at school, off and on eight years, and but little good did it do me. My parents were kind and tender, for being the oldest son they thought the world and all of me, and did all they could to bring me up in credit, but I was bad and mischievious and had to be often scourged, and was never hit amiss except when struck at and missed. When I went to school it was customary for teachers to have an exhibition or examination once a year. The last school master, to whom I went, had one, and the subscribers throw in and made a great dinner. Many people attended, for they came in from every quarter and it was almost like a camp meeting. A large stand was erected and curtains put up to screen us from the people until we came out to speak, and also for us to shift our clothing, as we had to dress in different forms according to our speeches or dialogues. I had a part in several dialogues and had learned a speech of sixteen pages in a book. The small scholars were called on first. I was the largest boy in school and therefore supposed they would expect something grand from me. Being called on I came out from behind the curtain to speak my piece. Seeing as many people before me, some in carriages, others on the benches I was so intimidated I could not recollect the first word of my piece. The teacher being seated behind me with the book open spoke the first word, and at length the fright let me, and he said I never missed a word nor a stop nor a shift of the hand nor foot of the whole sixteen pages. When once I got a start I spoke bold as a lawyer. Shortly after this, my father took me from school and put me to work which pleased me much. My father continued doing business for the WASHINGTONS for six years; and in that time he had collected a considerable amount of money and got in a great notion of the western country. This was in the year 1817. So he wound up his business and prepared for moving to the west. He bought two wagons and sold out his property and hired a man to take us out to Brownsville (WV). We were about two weeks getting to Brownsville. The roads were very bad. I was taken sick on the road and my father had to hire a wagoner to drive his team. My father bought an Odean boat which cost him near one hundred dollars. We remained at Brownsville four days. The creek arose suddenly and broke the boat loose; a man caught it a few miles below, and took it across the river, to the mouth of Red Stone. We there parted the wagons and put them in the boat. He also took two other families in his boat. We came down to Maysville (KY), and here my father rented a small house for which he paid $10 dollars per month rent and $4.50 for a small stable. From this place my father moved to Fleming county (KY) and remained there during the winter of 1818. The next spring he came over the river on the little east fork of Eagle creek (near Ripley OH) and rented a farm of the Rev. JOHN MEEKS. Shortlyafterwards Mr. MEEK moved to West Union (OH), I remember a circumstance that took place before Mr. MEEK moved away. I was working with my horsed in his barn yard and got in a pet and used words that I ought not to have used Mr. MEEK thought it was his duty to chastise me. I did not like it and you may depend my answer was not such as one he should have been returned to a preacher giving me good advice. My father sold his road wagon for $175, and his negro woman for $500. In the fall of 1818 he went into Logan co, Ky, and bought 365 acres of land and was to give $1110 for it. What amount he paid down I do not know, but he did not pay all. At that time he got out of the notion of moving into Kentucky and gave his papers into JOHN WILKIN'S hands, to sell or trade for land in Ohio. My mother and myself were very much opposed to trusting it in WILKIN'S hands but whenever I said any thing to father about it he would say "whenever I want to do any thing my wife or children are against it." I then desisted and WILKINS cheated him out of his land. All he ever got for it was a rifle worth $87.50 and one barrel of cider. WILKINS was man of property but he put it all out of his hands so it could not be come at, and so it stands to this day. In the spring of 1819 my father built a house on Mr. JOHN LANEY'S land, joining Mr. MEEK'S place and there remained some years. He and myself turned in to making wheat fans and trunks. We also made considerable by Wagoning, for wagons were very scarce in this country at that time. My father was a very industrious man and a man who strove hard to bring his family up in credit though he had become poor through the rascality of others. It is the worst plan in the world to trust too much to other people's honors.

Now in the spring of 1821, I was taken down with the pleurisy and lay under the doctor's hands for some time. It was not expected that I would live; in fact the doctor gave up all hopes, but through the kind and tender mercies of God my health was restored to me. When I got well it appeared as though I had been in a dream. The reason was I suppose, because I had been out of my senses the greater part of the time during my sickness. I promised to do better for the future, but soon became as bad as ever. My old grandfather who lived about a quarter of a mile from my father's, would often talk to me and give me good advice. He was at that time eighty years of age and had been one of the first Baptists in Virginia; but it appeared that as much advise as he gave me was all to no purpose. Like young people generally I cared nothing for advice, and thought it would be time enough to serve the Lord when I got old. At that time, it is true, I was very wicked but I made but very little use of spirituous liquor, though my father always kept it since my first remembrance. He could scarcely ever get me to taste a drop of it unless it was sweetened, I would then sometimes take a dram. But, dear reader, it is a growing evil, and in the course of a few years I became very fond of it, and when I got in good company, as I considered it, would drink a little too much; and wagoning and boating is the worst business a young man can go at for they get into all sorts of company particularly bad company. In 1822, my father moved to ROBERT SIMPSON'S place. We rented land of JAMES TAYLOR, and LEWIS JONES, which we put in corn. We had to go a great ways to attend it, but raised a great deal of corn, but the squirrels destroyed several hundred bushels of it for us. We put in a very large crop of wheat on SIMPSON'S place and raised a tremendous crop in the fall of 1822. My uncle WM. HAINES moved out from Va. and stopped at my father's some time. He rented a farm in Harrison co. Ky. on a creek called Little Beaver, about eight miles from Cinthian. When he got ready to move he had nobody to drive his team so he got me

He rented a farm in Harrison co., Ky. on a creek called Little Beaver, about eight miles from Cynthian. When he got ready to move he had nobody to drive his team so he got me to go with him. But before we got off my grandfather died. I think he was about 89 years old. My uncle bad but four horses and I put in one of our own and moved him over to Kentucky. Being of age my uncle proposed to me to come and live with him and join teams and to wagoning. I had lived with my uncle, when a boy going to school. I readily took him up at his offer. I remained with him some time and hauled him wood and corn and meat and other necessaries, for he knew nothing about driving wagon himself. I came back to Ohio, and fixed my affairs to return to Ky. I left home on the 14th of feb. I shall never forget that day, for I had been sparking the night before and had to part from my sweetheart that morning, and the snow fell all day, and the weather so cold as nearly to freeze me. I traveled on until I got to Lieking river at the mouth of Big Beaver. The river was frozen over and the ferrymen were cutting a way across it for the boat to go. I got my horse across at last and took some refreshment and started to my uncles and got there that evening. I turned to wagoning and made considerable money for myself and also for my uncle. When ploughing time came on I had to stop my team and put in a small crop of corn for he knew but little about managing horses. After that I went to wagoning again. Some time during this spring there was a application made to me to go on a trip to South Carolina with a load of bagging. I came over to Ohio to see my parents and sweetheart, for I was then very much in love with a girl and to be parted six months went very hard with both of us. So hard was it parting with her and father and mother and sisters and brother, that I cared very little about the trip to South Carolina. My father went with me as far as the bars and thus advised me. "My son, you are going to leave me. Remember that one thing needful. I never allowed you to fight. Now let me give you a piece of advise. Never, as long as you live, impose upon an old man, nor a drunken man, nor see one imposed upon." I returned to Ky. I could get no team to go with me to the south, so I gave out the notion of going. My uncle and his family became dissatisfied and concluded to move back to Virginia in the fall. This was in 1823. He wanted me to drive his team for him and I agreed to do it. He sold out in September and wound up his business and we started for Va. We crossed the Ohio at Maysville, and stayed a few days at my father's. We had a beautiful time. Our journey lasted twenty three days and we had not a drop of rain during the whole trip. There was great rejoicing among my friends and relations, for we had been separated nine years. I turned into work with my uncle, JOHN WARE, at the carpenter's trade. He had under taken to frame a grist mill and saw mill. We framed them and raised, and I made the shingles and put the most of them on . I then undertook to attend my uncle's mills, for one or two months and after that turned into work for a man by the name of MILTON, at the Shannon Dale Springs. Here I got among my old school mates, and it is the greatest place for mirth I ever saw. In 1824 Mr. MILTON and myself built a barn for a man by the name of JAMES ROPER. I knocked around and made a great deal of money but spent it about as fast as I made it. There was to be a camp meeting about ten miles from where I lived and having taken a load of flour down to Alexandria, myself and partner bought a load of water melons to take there, now to tell the truth it was not to hear the preaching that took me there and the more is the pity. I returned home again and went to work for the widow CARLOW. During the spring season I became very well acquainted with the young ladies through that part of the country and when I talked of coming back to Ohio they could not bear the thoughts of parting with me; for indeed I was a great toast among them. I did not like to leave some of them myself but I was too far from home to marry. Most of my relations thought I would not go back to Ohio, and would not believe it until they saw me put off. One of my sweethearts was so loth to part with me that she held to me clear across the yard and then I had to break loose from her. You can depend this went very tough with her. I hope she has done well for she was a pretty girl. I came into Frederick co. (MD) to my uncles WM. HAINES, and PHILIP ARHEARTS and stayed there a few days and then started for Ohio. On the second day I engaged with a man to drive his team across the mountain to Wheeling. When we got there the river was so low steamboats could not run. There was a keel boat loading for Louiseville and I would willingly have worked my passage down the river; but when I went on board the captain had but two hands and wanted to hire and said he would give 37 cents per day. I very readily took him up at his offer, but if I had been cunning Imight have got full wages for I was tolerably good at boating. We were nine days coming down to Maysville.

After we landed I saw my father's wagon coming down the river bank to come across to Maysville. A neighbor, JOHN W. GAMES had borrowed the wagon to bring over a load of marketing. The captain of the boat was a gentleman for he paid me all he agreed to and more and offered me a year's work at good wages. But I wanted to go home, so when Mr. GAMES got through with his marketing I was ready. So we came on out to his house and it was into in the evening and I wanted to come on to my father's but he insisted on my staying for he was going over in the morning. So in the morning we started to my father's and when we got there, there was great rejoicing. I had been gone upwards of a year. Some time was spent by me in visiting my old neighbors and acquaintances, I then turned in with my father and help him about getting in his crop and next spring he wanted me to crop with him, which I agreed to. I was to get a third part of his share. A man by the name of SAMUEL SWEARINGREN lived a nigh neighbor to my father and he had a couple of very fine daughters and I went to see one of them and fell in love with her, and concluding I had run about long enough married her in September 1825. I rented a place of WM. PENCE, and put in a large crop of small grain. We went to house keeping that fall, agreed very well and all things went very smoothly, for I considered my wife as "the fairest among ten thousand and all together lovely." Our oldest daughter, HARRIET LOUISA; was born on the 16th of January 1826. In April I had a logrolling and asked a good may of my neighbors and my wife had a spinning frolic and asked a good may girls. When work was w?? ??? the ??? and girls came together to have a play, and during the evening ??? ??? ??? ??? ?men to get their hides filled with whiskey, for they knew I had ??? ??? ???? threw one or two of the girls on the bed and was playing with them when SAMUEL BOWMAN took hold on me by the heels and jarred me considerably ?? unexpected and threw him on the floor. BOWMAN hated to be thrown where there were girls about. NATHAN BOWMAN, his brother, stepped up and said something in behalf of SAMUEL, which made me mad and I ordered him out of the house, and he ???sery high and I being full of whiskey, went out to him, and we yoked very quickly, I bit his lip nearly off and he gouged my eye out. I suffered enough in ??? ???? ???, and for seven or eight days hardly ate or slept. Shortly after ploughing time came on, and I in this fix. Not able to see, without means to hire, my horses so wild few could work them, my wife beggered my children starving I but through a kind Providence I made out to get my crop in which turned but very well. My friends and especially my dear parents begged me to quit drinking. I was a little more cautious for some time. It was some time before my eye got entirely well. Some people advised me to put the law in force against BOWMAN, but I did not for he was my brother in law, we having married sisters (Drucilla Swearingen), and I knew whiskey was the principal cause of it. So we made up the breach and became as friendly as ever, and all things went on smoothly again. We continued on this place until the spring of 1827, and there being in the neighborhood 3000 acres of unoccupied land, called HUMPHREY BROOKS' survey, my father and myself concluded to move on it and improve it, thinking when the owner came he we could show us some favor as we were poor men. We built a house a piece, moved into them and turned in o hard labor. Our second daughter, MARY JANE, was born in December 1827. On the 19th of January following our house was burned down. But thanks be to Providence we were all out of it at the time. I was at work at a sugar trough about a quarter of a mile from the house. Shortly previous I had been at the house and my wife said she was coming to my father's. After I got through with my trough I looked up towards the house and saw a great fire. My first thought was that my wife had set the brush heap which was hear the house on fire, but recollecting that she had said she was going away, I turned to my father and two young men from Virginia, who were with us, and saying my house is on fire, broke for it. The door was locked and the blaze of the fire coming through its joints. The whole top of the house which contained all my meat, corn and wheat, was burned and it was with difficulty, I saved my wagon which was standing near the house with some thirty or forty bushels of bran in it. Every thing was burned. Not a stitch ofclothing was saved. Not a coat, nor a hat, nor any other article of clothing except what we had on our backs was left to any of us.

This accident, as you may judge, was quite disheartening, but thanks to my kind neighbors I was soon on my legs again; for they contributed liberally of their substance, and turned in and put me up a cabin, and left us in nearly as comfortable circumstances as we were before the accident happened. I turned in to clearing land again, and was obliged to sell two colts to pay my debts. I still continued to drink whiskey and very often got drunk and sometimes would fight. My father expostulated with me again and again, but all to no purpose. I raised a first rate crop this year. We all get in a great notion of moving off to Illinois. That fall I sold most of my property but my father having a good many hogs concluded to fatten them and gather his corn and settle up his other business. So I took his family by land and he was to come by water and bring the heavy lumber to St. Louis, from which place it was to be hauled to Springfield (IL), Sangammon county. Some time late in October we started. My brother in law, HENRY S. GAMES; lived near Frankfort, Ky. and as he was going to Illinois, would have us come by that way so we could all go together. This was more than a hundred miles out of my route, but as my sister would not consent to go unless we did so, we went there, having remained here a few days we started and went on to Louisville, and crossed the Ohio at New Albany. A few miles from this place we had the severest pulling we had ever come across, over what is called Albany hill. This hill is half a mile from the bottom to the top. Two men went with us to see us pull up the hill and they said we would be obliged to double teams. I told them my horses were all true and if a team had ever pulled over it, mine would go it! But you may depend it was severe pulling. When we got to Vineenues we crossed the Wabash river. Here are two roads, the straight road and the shortest to Vandalia, is called the purgatory road, and from all accounts must be the worst road in the fall or spring , that ever man traveled. Even in Kentucky, we were advised to shun that road and also the Vandalia swamps. We took the left hand road at New Marysville and went on to Carlisle within fifty miles of St. Louis, and there turned to the right and went to Springfield. This is the prettiest country I ever saw and also the richest land. My brother in law's father ABSOLOM GAMES, lived east of Springfield about fifteen miles, on the north fork of the Sangamo River. So when at Springfield we struck out for that place. When we came on the main Sangamo river, we found the ferry boat very bad, and being heavily loaded I was afraid to risk it. So I took out one of my horsesand tried the ford. Although it was tolerably deep I preferred it to the old boat. The women and children were taken across in the boat, and I, by hard pulling, succeeded in crossing the ford. My brother thought, as he was not heavily loaded, be would try the boat and being as awkward driver, made a false motion getting into the boat, and his saddle bag fell down, and his saddle fell into the river. He and the ferryman were both so frightened they knew not what to do. I took one of my horses out and went to them and backed their horses out and persuaded to ford it. We went to his father's that day.

Winter now set in and empty houses were scared, but I had the good luck to get one, and good luck it was for there were so many people moving to that country that many were obliged to camp in the timber and erect some sort of shantee to winter in. My brother in law's father gave his son eighty acres of land and gave me privilege to build on his land and live there so long as I pleased by taking care of the land. So my brother in law and myself built each of us a cabin and we moved into them. Our third daughter, SARAH, was born on the 6th of March 1830. Shortly after this the old Mr. GAMES died, he was a sincere Christian and died triumphing in the hope of a glorious immortality beyond the grave. He suffered much in his last sickness, yet not a murmur nor a word of complaint escaped him. "Thy will, O Lord, be done," was his constant exclamation. Often did he desire to see my father, for though not related being close friends in youth, they were dear to each other as brothers. This was in the spring of 1830, and my father did not reach there until some time late in July. He appeared to be very sorry that he did not get to see Mr. GAMES before he died. My mother had rented a house about one mile from SAMUEL COX'S at whose house Mr. GAMES died. My brother in law and myself lived about five miles from this place. My wife had not yet got well, having recently had a child. But very few had settled yet near where we lived and it was with difficulty I was enabled to get any land to put in corn. I at last obtained six or seven acres of land about five miles from home, and raised a noble crop of corn. Some time in the last of June or first of July I was taken sick with the fever and was very bad for some time. I got better and myself and wife went down to my mother's and whilst there I relapsed, and lay under the doctors's hands some two or three weeks, and it was thought I would never get over it.But God through his tender mercies, raised me to my feet again, and about this time my father returned and you may depend there was great rejoicing. My father was very much pleased with the country, and he said such as were not pleased with this country, ought not to live in any country. But alas poor man! he know not it was so sickly.

Shortly after that my poor old mother and all the rest of the family were taken sick; some with the fever and some with the fever and ague. The sickness prevailed all through the neighborhood, so much so, that it was a thing almost impossible to find enough persons in good health to attend upon the sick. My father was taken sick with the chills and fever and the fever fell on his lungs and he lasted but a few days. I was just able to ride about and had been down to see him, two or three days before his death. He was at work hanging some scythes. I enquired how all were; and he said he was well but very week. Son, says he, I want to tell you some thing and desire you to keep it to yourself. Just as he said that I looked around and saw a neighbor riding up to us, and says my father some other time will do. But the next time I saw him he was speechless and dying. The day of his death I was at the mill and news was brought me that my father was dying! When I got my grinding, I came by to see him. What a distressing sight met my gaze! My poor old father lying on one bed dying, and my mother on another not expected to live from one hour to another, and on a third a sister and brother very sick! My dear reader, you may imagine my feelings at that time. No tongue can express, or pen describe them. After a short time I was obliged to leave, to go home and attend to my own helpless family. Next morning my brother in law started to see them, and went past THOMAS SWEARINGEN'S, my wife's cousin, and enquired how there child was, and was told it was dead. SWEARINGEN, himself, had no idea his child was in any danger, and had gone over to my father's to see how they all were. We went down and found my fathers corpse; my mother and the rest were on the mend. We had a sad duty to perform in communicating to SWEARINGEN the news of his child's death. We buried my father near his old friend Mr. GAMES, who had desired him often in his last sickness. I trust they have had a joyful meeting in Heaven, where they will never more part but continually praise the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world, in songs of rejoicing, forever and forever more! God through his tender mercies restored us all to health again. We had a very hard winter, for the snow fell four feet and half deep on an average and lay on from January till March. The stock suffered severely, for nearly all the hogs that run out in the woods perished and

God through his tender mercies restored us all to health again. We had a very hard winter, for the snow fell four feet and half deep on an average and lay on from January till March. The stock suffered severely, for nearly all the hogs that run out in the woods perished and abundance of deer and turkeys starved. There were several crusts on the snow so that deer could be caught with dogs wherever people could come across them, and it was almost impossible for people to travel with a horse even to go to mill. Many had to live on hominy but as luck would have it I and one of my neighbors not having much to do concluded to improve our leisure time in getting in our winter's meal, that we might have time to hunt. We lay in as much as we could find room for, but when pinching times came we had plenty of neighbors, who borrowed and continued borrowing till we were put to shift ourselves. Living in the timber we fared tolerably well for fire wood, but those who lived in the prairie suffered severely, for they had to burn rails and any thing they could come across that would make a fire. I heard of one man who lived about a mile from timber who had to burn the puncheons, sleeper, clapboards and joists of his house. My poor old mother had to burn several hundred rails, and as soon as a track was broken I hauled her some wood, though at five miles distance. Spring coming on I rented a farm adjoining the place where I lived. I put in this spring about twenty five acres of corn and raised a noble crop. There was a great stir among the people this spring, for the Indians broke out about a hundred miles from where we lived and volunteers were raised to go out and subdue them. There was no need of a draft, for more volunteers turned out than were called for. They all met at Boardstown and then went to Rock Island to join Gen. GAINES, and his regulars. When they all got to the Indians' town they went on the other side of the river and then concluded to make a treaty with Gen. GAINES, and thus ended this affray. This being a sickly country, my mother and brother in law determined to move back; my mother to Ohio, and my brother in law to Kentucky. My wife also became dissatisfied, and said if they all went back she would not stay, so I concluded that as she humored me in leaving all her friends in Ohio to go with me, I, in turn, ought to humor her, by coming back. So we made sale of our property, and started. We got on board a steamboat at St. Louis, and were obliged to pay $4 per head, for grown people, and $2 for children, for passage to the falls of the Ohio.--- From the falls we got so much of our property as we had not sold hauled to the mouth of Beargrass, and there got on board another steamboat and came on to Cincinnati. We there got on board the steamboat, Gyan, which conveyed us to Maysville where my father in law's team was waiting for us with which we hauled our goods out to hishouse and there was great rejoicing, you may depend. I continued with my father in law some time, and then rented a house from THOMAS BOWLES, and lived there until the spring of 1832, and then concluded to go and build on the same tract of land that we lived on before going west. I did so, and turned into real hard labor, cleared a patch of ground, and worked at my trade to get money enough to buy a horse, for at this time I had neither horse nor cow. Hard work it was too you may depend, to keep my family in provisions, buy a horse, and have enough of grog money, for getting among my old comrades I must needs renew my acquaintance with the whiskey bottle. O yes, whiskey I must and would have. Thus I continued working and drinking and sinning, and yet my blessed Lord and Master, who is slow to anger, bore with it all. I struggled along until I got a right smart place open. My poor old mother settled on a piece of vacant land about four miles from where we lived, and she is living there at this time. On the 4th of Oct. in this year, my sister (ELIZABETH) was married to JOSEPH SHELTON. We still scrambled along and although at times it was pretty tough, yet thank God, what es did get we got honestly, and although rough enough, it was at least as food as I deserved. On the 5th of Dec. 1833, we were blessed with a son, our first male child, whom we named, JOHN P. GLASSCOCK. At that time we had four children and all in their right shape. Some time in this year my second sister departed this life to go home to rest. This is the child whom my mother took to raise when she was two weeks old. She seemed as dear to me as did any of my brothers or sisters. I made no difference, nor did my parents make any, that I could ever perceive. On the 4th of August, 1833, the Lord blessed my youngest sister, ELIZABETH SHELTON, with a fine son, and she called him, LEMUEL, after me. I still continued on my new place and cleared more or less ground every season, for the Lord bore with us and gave us our health, so that every thing around us seemed to prosper; and yet, we still continued in wickedness and rebellion against our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us that we might live. I might go on and dwell on the mercies of the Lord, but I will advise those who read these lines to search the scriptures for their own satisfaction, and if there be any who hear these lines read, and can not read the scriptures for themselves, let me persuade you, as a friend, to go to meeting and hear the precious gospel preached while you have the chance, lest you meet with the same misfortune that your unworthy writer has fallen into and be deprived of the blessing of hearing the gospel preached. When I had this blessed opportunity, I did not make a good use of it, for many others, I preferred the grocery and tavern to the church. O wretched man! that would thus go on in the broad road to destruction, having the devil for his preacher and the world and whiskey for his God. It makes me tremble to look back and see how I have been sinning, so many years, against a holy, just and upright God. Yet he bore all this and more, for I would get drunk and sometimes fight and was not very easily handled unless very drunk. I was very good natured when drunk save when imposed upon and if obliged to fight I fought with all my might, and never did I have to cry enough but once since I became of age, and since that time I have bad seven fights and some of them very bard ones. But my dear readers, this thing of fighting is poor business, and it is hateful in the eyes of God.

But my dear readers, this thing of fighting is poor business, and it is hateful in the eyes of God.

We still continued to live at the same place and by this time had got a right smart farm opened so that we could live tolerably well, by hard scuffling. I worked hard and still continued drinking and sinning against my maker. O it is wonderful, that God will bear with such miserable, sinful creatures! Yet he bears it all, and showers down blessings upon us with out number, and gives us warning to flee the wrath to come in many ways, sometimes, by sending afflictions on us or our children, our relations or dearest friends; at other times, by sudden deaths or night visions; we are warned in many ways, and yet will not take heed until it be eternally to late. During the fall of 1835, there was a great uproar among the squatters that lived on this land, for there was every now and then a land jobber coming around, pretending to own it , and trying to get them all under rent. This was a hard matter for them to do, for some of the squatters were very stubborn. There were forty five families of them and all too poor to go to law, which, in fact they had no right to do, having no right save that of possession, nor do I believe the land jobbers had a much better right though they produced some sort of a title, which, of course, was sufficient to overthrow a squatter's claim. For my part, I scarcely knew what to do, for I had labored as well as a great many others and had cleared considerable land and received but little benefit, as yet, for my labor. I did not like to give it up. I resolved to quit clearing, but determined to hold fast as long as possible, and not be scared at trifles. I did hold on for a year after all the rest except two had rented. So they went around hunting the corners with some of their lickspittles, pretending they wanted to buy, and I believe some of them were partners with the jobbers, but were afraid to own it for fear of catching a drubbing, for they would persuade those who held out to come under rent.

In the fall of 24, a curious circumstance happened to one of these land jobbers living in this settlement, which undoubtedly put a stop to his career, for he was going about, trying to bring the people under rent, and taking the bread out of the children's mouths, and distressing the poor that lived on the land. The circumstance is this, somebody was so kind to this gentleman, that they made him a coffin and took it to him. This was shocking news indeed, for a man to have his coffin made and taken to him and he alive and in perfect health. It is said the horrid sight was first discovered by his son in law, who was living with him. This man made a practice of going or sending to Maysville market once or twice a week, and being busy that morning, sent his wife, a while before day. There being some two or three fences of bars to go through, he went with her to let her through the plantation out into the main road. On his return home at a pair of bars, between a quarter and a half mile from the house he made a discovery of the coffin, which, he says, was not there as he went out. I do suppose the man was prodigiously frightened, and it is said, the little man ran home about as quickly as it is possible for one of his size to do it. When he got to the house he was so much exhausted as to have nearly fainted, and was some time unable to tell what had happened him. This alarmed the old gentleman, and I do believe was the principal cause of his quieting the land jobbing business, for I never beard of his being engaged in it afterwards.

In the spring of 1836, these land jobbers that pretended to own the land having finished their surveying, and got all the people to come under rent, came to me with one or two of their lickspittles and asked me if I wanted to rent. I told them I believed not at present, for I had a small place here of my own, which, I thought, would do me awhile longer, as my family was yet small. I had been taking a dram and was in tolerably good plight to talk to them. The owner, as he called himself, Mr. WALTER DUNE, said, "Sir, if you will not come under rent I will fetch the Sheriff and throw your property out of the house." "Very well sir, when you go at that I will help you," responded I. He was kind enough, however, not to come that year. I put in a tolerably large crop of corn and as the Lord would have it, raised a noble crop and had no rent to pay for it, for I sold a part of it as soon as it would bear to be gathered and the remainder I hauled to my brother in law, HENRY SWEARINGEN'S. I raised that year, twenty on bushels of Orleans beans which sold $1.12 per bushel. I raised a considerable chance of potatoes and a food many pickle cucumbers and sold them. All my neighbors except JAMES HUGHES, had bound themselves to come under a rent of $2.50 per acre. This they began to dislike as they saw that HUGHES and myself had no rent to pay. They then wished they had not rented, but it was too late, for when they rented they gave possession at once. I continued on this place until the next spring and, at sugar making, turned in and made as much sugar as I could. God blessed us all with good health, and he also blessed us by sending us another son, whom we named SAMUEL A. GLASSCOCK. He was born on the 31st day of August, 1835. When the spring came on, my old father in law persuaded me to move my family up to his house and have no more dispute with the land jobbers. I did so. About this time ROBT. LATTY was going out to Illinois, and wanted me to go with him to help build a steam mill, and offered me very good wages. My old mother in law and father in law were anxious for me to go and see that part of Illinois, as I had never been up the Illinois river. So they said they would take care of my family, if I would go, for they had heard such great accounts from that country, that they wanted to know the straight of it. My wife being willing I concluded to go. So I got together my tools and clothes, and agreeably to a previous appointment, met Col. LATTY, at Aberdeen, on the morning of the 7th of April, 1837. We started for Cincinnati on board the steamboat, Swift shore. When we arrived there we learned the engine was not done and would not be for ten days. So LATTY gave ANDREW LYTLE and myself the choice to stay there or go on. So we concluded to go on, and got on board the Paris, bound for St. Louis. We had a very pleasant trip and a quick one, for the waters were up in beautiful order for steam boats. When we got there we shipped on board the steamboat, exchange, which was going up the Illinois river to Peru. There were a great many passengers on board this boat. Numbers had been to New Orleans and several families were moving to that country.

We continued our journey up the river, which was very high, having overflown its banks in many places, and entirely covered many fine bottoms. This put LYTLE and me out of heart, for the boat stopped at a certain warehouse, where a town was laid out, to unload some articles, and they were obliged to scaffold up to take out the goods, and we were told that the water was at this place twelve or fourteenmiles across. Had an opportunity offered at this time, we should certainly have returned to Ohio, but none presenting itself, we pushed on. We landed at a little town called Henry about two miles below the place where the mill was to be built. There was not the first lick struck towards the mill as yet, although LATTY had told us the frame was to be up and ready when he should come along with the engine, but a dispute arising among them, they had done nothing towards it. I went to work a few days after my arrival, for wages were very good; $20 a month for a common laboring hands; from $1.50 to $2 a day for mechanics. I thought this was the prettiest country I had ever seen. LATTY was so long coming that we became quite uneasy about him, and I planted some potatoes and cabbage and other vegetables, as I then thought I would move my family to this place. Such time as I was not attending my vegetables I worked at the mill or something else, for there was always plenty of work to do; as the people living here are the laziest I ever saw. The land in this prairie has not yet come into market, and there are but few who have deeded land. They hold the land by making some little improvement on it and then claim it as their own. And this is the way they get along in that country. This is the greatest country for fish I ever saw. The man with whom I lived, and myself set a trot line and caught a prodigious lot of fish. We caught one catfish that measured nine inches between the eyes and weighted 125 lbs. We many mornings took off the line a number of fish, weighing from twenty to fifty pounds; this country is chiefly settled with New Yorkers, and real skinners they are too. When a stranger comes among them, they flock around him like swarm of bees, especially, if they think there is money to be made out of him, and each one having one of the before described claims endeavors to cheat him into the buying of one, to support their laziness, for work they will not if they can help it. Col. LATTY came on at last with the engine, which weighed 7300 lbs. You may depend it was a great disappointment to him to find that nothing had been done towards the mill. All the parties concerned soon got together, settled their disputes. And employed a man to frame the mill. They went to work in fine spirits and all things went on smoothly. They laid off a town which was called Webster, after Daniel Webster, who passing through that country called to see it. Learning his intention of visiting the place some time before hand, the proprietors of the town sent off and got some power and for want of a cannon charged a stump to give him a welcome gun. When the boats came up there were two lashed together, escorted by many others, landed to take a view of the city. He spoke to us all as he came up the bank and said, that it was really as pretty a site for a city as he had ever seen, and hoped, as it had been named after him, that it might prosper. Business went on quite flourishing and LATTY sold lots very fast and at a high rate. There was a great strife among the purchasers to obtain the lots nearest the steamboat landing, but for my part I concluded if the town did prosper, the main steamboat landing would be at the mouth of the creek. I went to LATTY and asked him what he would take for the lot. He said he would let me have it for $200, and give me two years to pay it in, and take it out in work. I thought that at the wages I was then getting I could soon pay for it, and therefore took it. The rest of the boys took their lots as near the public square as they could get them, and laughed at me for picking my lot in such an out of the way place. I told them to never mind, that if the town ever went on that was the place. And in the course of a short time I sold my lot for $250. The man, who bought of me, said, if he only had the lot adjoining this one, he would be satisfied. I said nothing but went to LATTY and told him I wanted to buy the lot adjoining mine on the river. He told me I could have it. I immediately returned to the man and told him I could sell him the lot he so much desired. After some conversation he agreed to give his obligation to LATTY for the two lots and me a yoke of oxen and $25 for my bargain. Now the time came on that I laid by my corn and I could work for wages, which I did and made money very fast, but spent a good deal more than I need have done; my dram of coarse, I must have.--- about this time the carpenters had got the mill ready to raise, and a heavy raising it was, for it took us two days with as many as could get round it. We gotit up at last and nobody killed, and but one man, Mr. ANDREW LYTLE, who received a pretty severe clew across the nose with a handspike, crippled. We were well fixed for raising this building or we never could have got it up, for the timbers were very large and heavy, and it was the best frame I ever saw put together in my life. We had two blocks and tackles, and very hard work it was too at that, for it was a very warm day, so warm that many of the hands gave out and could work no longer. I had no use for the oxen for which I had traded, and as I had not time to run about and done and would not be for ten days. So LATTY gave ANDREW LYTLE and myself the choice to stay there or go on. So we concluded to go on, and got on board the Paris, bound for St. Louis. We had a very pleasant trip and a quick one, for the waters were up in beautiful order for steam boats. When we got there we stepped on board the steamboat exchange, which was going up the Illinois river to Paris. There were a great many passengers on board this boat. Numbers had been to New Orleans and several families were moving to that country.

I had no use for the oxen for which I had traded, and as I had not time to run about and trade them off I got Col. LATTY to trade them for me. He traded them off for a very fine horse brute and got a cow to boot. I was very well pleased with the trade as cows were very scarce, and I then thought of moving to that country, and for a person poor as I was, it was joyful news indeed to send home that I had a horse and cow already paid for. When hay making came on I turned in and put me up two real good stacks of hay, and I had a stack of oats. About this time the mill wrights were dashing away rapidly. About seven miles from this town is a place called Indian town, where the Indians once resorted to bury their dead. I went to see it several times and saw where their old chief was buried. His name was SNACK WINE. The lake near this place and also the creek which flows from it take their names from this chief. The Indians had set up a big pole at the head of this chief but the mischievous white people would not let it stand. The dead are buried only two or three feet below the surface of the ground, so that the wolves, which are very numerous in this country scratch up the bodies and scatter the bones all over the burying ground, which is a high bluff and the paths to it are in some places worn two or three feet deep. Men of truth have told me that there are certain characters in this country, who make a practice of digging up the bodies that they may get the treasures that are attached to them. Men who would do this would steal acorns from a blind hog. The country about here became very sickly and although the residents there deny to new comers that it is sickly, yet it is, and in my opinion, always will be so on the water courses, for there is but very little fall for the water and vast quantities of it stagnate all along the river Illinois. Now the calculation was that LATTY and myself should return to Ohio together and I having relations about 100 miles from this place, down the river, got on board a steamboat and went to see them. They live near the mouth of Spoon river in Futlin county, I have three brothers in law in that county and found them all well. This is a much healthier part of the country than that about Webster, being about 16 miles from the river. I stayed with them a few days, and leaving my mare with them returned. On my passage up the river I was taken sick with the ague, and we landed at Webster on the Sabbath day. During my absence the old lady with whom I boarded died. I trust she has gone happy for she was a great friend to me, in fact she was almost a mother to me, as she appeared to be as kind to me as to he own son, and indeed there is nothing strange about that, for this ungracious son seldom ever waited on her or paid any regard to her whatever. I had the ague for some days, but getting better I undertook a job of hewing and took JOHN BEAM to help score in for me. We had a pretty lengthy job of it. A number of my companions, several of the millwrights, and in fact nearly every body in that whole section of country was taken sick. I never sent for the doctor but took some pills and salts, and used prickly ash berries in whiskey. Sometimes I used aloes, which, I assure you, is not very palatable to the taste. So many getting sick, put me out of all concert of this country, and so I tried to sell my corn and other stuff, but money becoming scarce , those who wanted to buy held back, in hopes of getting the articles for nothing, knowing that I was sick and wanted to leave the country. LATTY was taken sick about this time and would frequently come to my lodgings, to try some of my bitters. He made his home with a Mr. FOSTER, who lived about two miles from this place on the other side of the river. Here he was taken suddenly ill with the bilious fever, and never returned to Webster again. I was so unwell myself that it was with difficulty I could go to see him. He was very much scared when first taken, and as I was told offered the doctor a heavy fee to raise him again, but this was beyond the power of man. I was fixing to start to Fultin county, whither I intended to ride, as I had sent my tools by JOHN BEAM. Before starting I called to seeLATTY. We had considerable chat for he said he felt much better than he did when I called to see him before. He said

I hear you are going to start in a few days. I told him it was so. Well, says he, do not stay longer at your brother in laws than you can help. I told him I would not as I was anxious to see my family. When I got ready to start he had fallen asleep and the man of the house thought I had better not awaken him. The next news I heard from him was that of his death. I wanted very much to go and see him, but as that was my sick day I would not venture across the river. Two men had undertaken to make his coffin and one of them took sick whilst we stood talking with them, and the other persuaded me to turn in and help him, and this I did, although so sick and weak I could hardly stand. We got the coffin done an hour before sundown, and as it was so late it was thought best not to bury him that night. The next morning it rained and I did not get to see him. I trust he has gone home to rest, for I have understood that he appeared quite willing to leave this troublesome world.

My dear reader, you do not know my feelings at this time, I being sick myself and seeing so many sick around me. It was enough to dishearten a man thirteen or fourteen hundred miles from home. I began to fear I never should see my little helpless family again, if I remained here much longer, and so came to the conclusion that start I would, at all hazards, and I thought if I had to die, I might as well die on the road. So I saddled my horse, bade the people good bye, and started. It was raining at the time and I went but nine miles that day and put up for I had the ague. The people were very kind to me and I stayed all night. The next morning feeling somewhat better I prepared for starting, and asked the landlord what was his bill. Nothing sir, says he. I told him I did not want them to be at so much trouble on my account and charge nothing for it, that I would rather be would take something. Not a cent, sir, says he, and trade them off I got Col. LATTY to trade them for me. He traded them off for a very fine horse brute and got a cow to boot. I was very well pleased with the trade as cows were very scarce, and I then thought of moving to that country, and for a person poor as I was, it was joyful news indeed to send home that I had a horse and cow already paid for. Not a cent, sir, says he, and when a man traveling stops with you, do you make the same charge. And dear reader, I never in my life, charged a man a cent for a night's lodgings or a meal's victuals. I went on down the Illinois river as far as Chillicothe, and there got me a pint of French brandy which helped me considerably. That day I got to my brother in law's who lived near Louiston, in Fulton county, and found them all well. It was on Wednesday that I got there and one of my nephews being desirous to go to Ohio prevailed on me to wait for him until the next Sunday. We then started, and my brother in law, and JOHN BEAM, came with us to the mouth of spoon river. We there parted with them and went on the other side of the river and I there looked up my box of tools, and left them in the charge of a tavern keeper by the name of FOSTER. I took this man to be a gentleman and therefore took no receipt of the delivery of the tools to him; I have sent several orders for them and he now says he knows nothing about them. This was about the 30th of September 1837. A boat soon came along bound for St. Louis. We had no time to get provisions before starting, so we were obliged to get them as we could catch them at the little towns, as we passed along. We stopped at Alton, and I there boughs a sheep's ham, thinking it was a venison ham, for which I paid a dollar. When we arrived at St. Louis, we bought some bacon and sugar and other articles necessary for us on our journey, I also bought a buffalo rug to sleep on. I still had the argue and was very weak. I went to the captain of the steam boat, Orion, which was loading for Pittsburg, and made a bargain for our passage to Maysville. I was to give him eight dollars for SAM BISHOP and myself and I was not to woad, being yet sick. So we started off in full sail for Ohio, and when we came to the Ohio, we found it very low, but being lightly loaded we came on although we found many boats aground at the riffles and bars. At Flint Island bar there were seven or eight steamboats that had called a halt. We got fast on a bar but as luck wouldhave it were obliged to stick there only about an hour. We also experienced some difficulty at French's Island bar, where there were four or five boats awaiting the rise of the water. We came on safe to the mouth of the canal, and then went on up to the mouth of Beargrass, when the captain said he could go no farther. We had paid our passage to Maysville and he did not feel disposed to give us back any of our fare, but part of it we would have, and he finally gave us back a dollar a piece. We got on board another steam boat which took us to Cincinnati, and we then got on board the Swift Shore. I still had the ague and was very weak, but began to feel thankful that I was so near home, for about the time that Mr. LATTY died I was fearful I should never see home again. We came to Maysville and landed between midnight and daylight. My heart leaped for joy at the thought of getting home once more for I had been separated from my family six months and when I started did not calculate on being gone more than three months at farthest. This was a very bad time to land for the taverns were all shut and the ferryman gone to bed. We tried to get a craft on that side of the river but could not, and then halloed to the ferryman on the Ohio side, but we might as well have cried to the winds. As luck would have it there was a runaway match on hand and old SQUIRE SHELTON persuaded Mr. CAMPBELL to come after us, which he did, and thankful we were for his kindness, although it was his duty to attend to his ferry. When we got over we went up to JAMES HELMS', who, as soon as he found out who we were, got up and let us in. He enquired about LATTY and seemed to be very much shocked when I told him he was dead. I tried to get a horse to ride out to home that night but could not, so I concluded to try to walk there, weak as I was , for I knew there were plenty of houses on the road where I could stop if I could not stand it. But thanks be to God I stood the journey much better than I expected I could. We got to my father in laws about two hours before day. We knocked at the door and were told to come in. SAM BISHOP went foremost to see if his grand father would know him. The old man after enquiring about my health, asked about LATTY. I told him that he was dead, and his sister, who was in the house but I did not know it, overheard it. Poor girl! She took it very hard. My wife was up stairs and the old man called her and she came down, and there was great rejoicing you may depend, for this was the longest time we had been apart since we were married. There was no sleep the balance of the night, for we had a great deal to talk about. They were all well but the ague still clung to me until the middle of the winter. My mother who lived about two miles from this place would have me to come and live with her. I moved there and worked at my trade when I could get any of it to do, and when I could do no carpenter's work I would turn to some other work, for I was poor and needy and had to work hard to maintain my poor, little helpless, family that thank God we never suffered for anything to eat. I had all my provisions to work for and would have wet rations as well as dry. In the fall of this year 1838. I undertook a job of digging a mill race for Doct. HAMILTON, on Eagle creak and I worked very hard, and drank very hard and slept in the open mill so at length I was taken quite sick and was obliged to quit work and discharge my hands and go home. I continued to grow worse and worse, and at length the doctor was sent for, who pronounced me in a very dangerous situation. He took a pint and a half of blood from me and left orders to have as much taken from me on the following day. I knew myself I needed bleeding and wanted to do it, but my folks would not let me. After the bleeding I soon got better. Dear reader, I have not forgotten the promises I made my Lord and Savior if he would restore me to health again. And bless his most holyname he did restore me to my feet again. The lord blessed us wonderfully with our health. At this time we had five children and it kept me raking hard, to keep them in provisions and myself in grog. But blessed be God I made out to get along and never starved; we generally had enough if it was a little rough at times. On blessed comfort is, I can say with a clear conscience before God and man, I never had to steal nor do I think I ever shall, so long as I keep my senses. Although I am in debt I can not help it at this time. I trust the kind Providence will provide some way for me to compensate my debtors, and if I can never pay them, may our heavenly master reward them an hundred fold in blessings both temporal and spiritual, for their kindness to me a poor sinner shut up here in prison. O sinner, follow not the steps your unworthy writer followed in days past, but seek ye the Lord while he may be found, lest the day and the hour come when it shall be eternally to late. In the spring of this year, 1839, I concluded to move off of the place where I had lived, for it was vacant land and to be hackeled about by the land jobbers as I had been, was more than I could bear. So I went and rented a house and garden spot from a man by the name of HANDY CROPPER, for which I was to give him one dollar per month. The time came on for us to move, and we did so. All things went on prosperously with us for God had blessed us wonderfully with health although unworthy the least of his favors. On the 8th of April, 1829, we were blessed with another child, a girl, whom we named DRUZILLA. About this time I had a very unpleasant dream which troublesome exceedingly.--- I thought I was walking near a branch, and there was a large rock with a hole in it, and at a short distance from it lay a great number of snakes.--- There was one snake that was larger than the rest and I could not get to kill him, as he always crept in the hole, and then I would always awaken. I dreamed this dream twice or thrice, and the last time I thought it was at the before mentioned place, and the big snake appeared to have a spite at me and attacked me, and we had a pretty smart combat and he was like to get into his hole again and when he got about half way in, I thought, that with my knife or some other edge tool I cut him in two. So ended this miserable dream as it turned out to be. The last time I dreamed it was on the night of the 16th of June. At this I was not well and had been for better than a week. I was unable to do anything but light work, such as making rakes, stocking cradling seythes, &e. My sickness, I believe, originated from making too much use of spirituous liquor, which I had at this time put in roots for bitters, and I assure you, I was very fond of this medicine. I had one or two scythes brought to me to put cradles to them. I had something like seven or eight sneeds wrought out, and some braces, and finger stuff. I was getting ready for the business as fast as I could conveniently. I had some rakes and forks made for sale. This was all fetching me something to live on. On Thursday, the 20th day of June, NATHAN BOWMAN, my brother in law, came to my house with a scythe in his hand, and asked me how I was. I told him I was poorly and not able to do much. He then said I want you to make me the best cradle you ever made in you life. I promised to do my best. He then said he was going over to see JOHN CAMPBELL, to whom he was about to lend some money, and insisted on my going with him. This, after some persuasion, I consented to do. So we went to CAMPBELL'S, and finding him not at home, returned. I turned into accommodate him and hung his scythe, and , although I say it myself, it was hung completely. He appeared very well pleased with it and said, let's go up to REUBEN CROPPER'S and get something to drink. I told him there was plenty of whiskey in the house. O says he, I don't like it, 'tis too bitter, I want some of the pure stuff. I told him he could go, but I was to busy.--- No, says he, you must go and take a bottle with you; so we started off and on the road going through the field, be pulled out a ninepence and handed it to me. I told him I did not want him to buy whiskey when he came to see me, but he compelled me to take it, and we bought about three pints of liquor. We drank a while in the field, where BENJAMIN BOWMAN, his cousin, was at work. We then went down to my house and we ate our supper. He would go to the bottle to drink, as I thought, and insisted on my drinking. My wife whispered to me and said you will get so drunk directly you can't stand; NATHAN only pretends to drink. I then held up. He wanted to trade knives, and for my knife, offered me a better one and fifty cents to boot. After he found he could not get the knife, he got mad. He first wanted me to go home with him. I told him I could not and wanted him to stay all night. No, he said that he would go home. We stepped out at the door as men would do before going to bed. He commenced swearing and said that he wished his soul might sink into hell if he did not do something. Says I, what is the matter? NATHAN, what have I done to make you mad? My wife came to the door and told him to go home. He then swore he had whipped me, and could do it again an would. I told him I did not want to fight and was not able to fight. Wait till some other time, for he knew very well that I was weak as I had had a bowel complaint for nearly a week. My temper then began to raise and my wife begged us to hush, so we both hushed and went in and took some more to drink, and, as I thought, it was all made up, and my wife made a bed on the floor towards the front door. He wanted me to sleep with him. I told him I would rather sleep with old ANNA. He commenced abusing me again. I told him to hush and several times he said he wished his soul might sink into hell before day light if he did not have revenge. The last time he said so, I sprang out of bed and said go out of my house or I will try to put you out. We met about the middle of the of the floor; he knocked the skin off my nose, and, I do believe, his intention was to have gouged out my other eye. Some how or other, I got my knife out of my pocket, not with the intention of killing him, of this I had no more thought than I now have of killing the king of France, but instead of letting me go he crowded on me the harder, and tore the left sleeve of my shirt. Somehow or other I threw him on a chest standing between the two bedsteads, and at this time my wife pulled me away from him, and he got up off of the chest and says to me, you have cut my guts out. I said why didn't you behave yourself. I went out and called my nearest neighbor, PERRY CONLEY, who lived about four hundred yards distant, to come over quick. He wanted to know what was the matter but I was afraid to tell him for fear of scaring his wife as she was in a situation not capable of hearing such news. So I ran down to his house and told him what had happened. He came up with me and I then went to gather some more neighbors and got wet up to the hips going through the wheat. I then urged some of them to go after the doctor and at length, one of them did go and brought a doctor, but he said he could do no good, for it was beyond the art of man to save him. His friends came in from all quarters, for the news spread far and near. Some of my friends persuaded me to go over in Kentucky, and stay a while until we could see how the thing would operate. They sent off after a squire. I remained until ten or eleven o'clock the next day, I then yielded to the persuasions of my friends and went off. Now my dear readers, this man and myself were good friends so far as I know except that when drinking he would abuse me, so that I have went away from places wherehe was drinking to get rid of him, and he would follow me from one house to another. This has been proven before the court of Adams county; if I had felt a spite at him would I have dropped the work I was at, and fixed his sneed, and hung his scythe? No, not to have saved him, for I had plenty of work to do without working for him. I do, and always will, think he had some devilment in his head when he came to my house. What ever possessed him to want my knife so much as to be willing to give a better one and fifty cents to boot? Now my dear reader, he was too fond of money to have fooled it away, had he not had some end to accomplish. They attempted to prove, and by a cousin of BOWMAN, who had been up before court for stealing eggs and butter, did prove that fourteen years ago I threatened to have revenge. If I ever made such threats it must have been when I was crazy or drunk, for I have no recollection of ever having said any thing of the kind. Had I wanted revenge how often could I have taken it when he was drunk and no one with him but my self? The truth is I blamed SAMUEL BOWMAN more for the loss of my eye than NATHAN. Witnesses can be adduced to prove that I have oftentimes expressed myself thus. Now he is a poor man who won't defend himself in his own house; perhaps it would have been better for me however, to have given up house, wife, children and all, and fled into the wilderness, as David did from Saul in days of old. My sister in law tied me up some clothes and I and one of my neighbors started off through the fields together, and he gave me fifty cents. We took many drams from a bottle of whiskey, which he had and wanted me to take in my budget. I shook hands with him, bade him farewell, and went on to the house of Mr. ROBERT COVERT, a man whom I always did respect. I stopped there and got something to eat and remained there until night. His son had gone to my house and so when he returned I got to hear what was going on, and bow BOWMAN was. He said there were about sixty persons started out on the hunt of me. My friend went off to try to borrow some money for me but could not get any. About dusk I bid them good bye and started and went on down to the mouth of Eagle creek. I lay on the bank of the river and stayed there until morning, and hunted up and down the river for a craft and heard a man chopping wood on the other side of the river. I halloed to him and he took me across the river. I then started for my cousin's and arrived there just as they had set down to dinner. We had not seen each other for fourteen or fifteen years, so we had considerable chat and I soon told him of the circumstance, and how it happened. I remained unwell for some days, but in a few days I turned in to work for my cousin, on a store house, and after this was finished I set in at the new court house and gaol, in Brookville the present county seat of Bracken county.

One of my relatives came over to see me and told me I was running great risks by remaining in so public a place, but previously I had written to my wife and had the letter taken on this side of the river and given to one to take and read to her, to tell her what to do. I knew very well it would not do to send a letter by mail, as they would watch that, and I was not such a fool as to be caught in this way. I remained there until a few days before the election came on, when my brother came to me and told me they had advertized $300 reward for me, and that I would surely be taken if I remained here. My brother and myself went into the woods immediately back of my cousin's place, and there I wrote a letter. With much sorrow and many tears I wrote, for the thoughts of leaving my dear companion, and poor little children, almost broke my heart. My brother told me I had best go to Canada, or else I would surely be taken. I told him I would die first, and was fully bent on that very thing. My cousin came to us and we talked much about the matter. They went to Brookville to buy me a pistol, but could not get any. The next day there was to be a meeting of the candidates at Brookville, and I knew there wouldhe one man, THOMAS PAIN, from Maysville. So the next morning before day I bade them all good bye and started.

I walked nine or ten miles before sun up and struck the Ohio river just below the Rock spring mills and then went down the river and crossed at a little town called Mechanicsburg, and then took down the river as if I was going to more thought than I now have of killing the king of France, but instead of letting me go he crowded on me the harder, and tore the left sleeve of my shirt. The next day there was to be a meeting of the candidates at Brookville, and I knew there would be one man, THOMAS PAIN, from Maysville. So the next morning before day I bade them all good bye and started.

I walked nine or ten miles before sun up and struck the Ohio river just below the Rock spring mills and then went down the river and crossed at a little town called Mechanicsburg, and then took down the river as if I was going to

Cincinnati, and went on below Nevilleville, and then turned short to the right and struck out through the country. I thought I might come across a man by the name of ZEKEL M'CORMICK to whom my father had lent money in 1817, for he allowed to move down in that section of country not far from the Miamis, and I thought if I could find him I might get a fresh supply of money. I struck in towards the Miamis, and enquired for him but could not hear of him. I heard of a settlement of M'CORMICKS on the Little Miami. So I went on there but found them not the same. They told me there were M'CORMICKS living a Hambleton on the Miami. My shoes being tight blistered my feet so much that I could scarcely walk. I had walked too hard at first, and the weather being extremely hot and dry it was hard on me and I got sick and had no stomach to eat. For two days a biscuit and a half was all I ate except a few apples. I suffered very much for water, for good water on the canal is very scarce. I travelled on to Dayton which is a most beautiful place. From Dayton I went to Bellefontaine, for I knew a man who moved out of our settlement and who lived not far from this place. On the road I suffered both for water and provisions. I asked at different housed and could not get either, for they said they had to carry their water so far they could not afford to give it away. This part of the country is thinly settled, from a little town called Sidney, and the settlers are chiefly German Dutch, and so very tight that it is a query with me whether they have a clear passage or not. May God Almighty help the people and save them in the end if agreeable to his divine will! I travelled on towards Bellefontaine as fast as I could. I had plenty of cakes in my saddlebags that I had brought from Kentucky, but they had got so very hard that I could not eat them. I concluded to try one place more to see if I could get something to eat. So I went on to a house standing a piece from the road on the left side, and asked if I could get any thing to eat. The lady said she would get me something directly. Says I madam, I will tell you before hand I have no money, and 'tis the first time I was ever without when travelling. Well says she, sir, we crn't live without eating. I soon saw the lady was well raised, and there is not the least doubt in my mind but she was raised by christian parents, for she had her house in good order, and, so far as I saw, her children under good command. I know the good woman was a christian herself; her kindness to me, a total stranger, shewed that. She soon got me a bite to eat and apologised because she had nothing better. I told her it needed not apoligies, for, hungry as I then was, it was indeed very good. When I finished I offered her one of my knives. She refused it saying, that was a poor person who could not give a fellow mortal one meal of victuals. I would be happy if I could accommodate the reader with the lady's name, but do not now recollect it. I travelled on and fell in company with an old gentleman on foot going to Bellefontaine. He had been at work at a little town on the canal called Pickaway. We went on to town and I there made some enquiry concerning my old friend Wm. RILEY, who had moved out there some years ago. I learned that he lived about eight miles to the right of the road leading to Sandusky. When I got to RILEY 'S house he was not at home, but his wife was. I spoke to her and she did not know me at first, but soon found me out and was apparently very glad to see me. Her husband came home in the evening and I believe was very glad to see me, for we once were great cronies and near neighbors. We had considerable chat about old times, and we walked out into the field and I related the whole circumstance to him. This was dreadful news indeed, but it was past and could not be helped and the thoughts of being deprived of my poor, little, helpless, family, almost broke my heart, RILEY and his wife both appeared to sympathize with me. I continued with him until I got rested. I turned in to work for a widow woman by the name of SULTON. Her sons were sick and unable to work. She had a heavy oats harvest and also much meadow to mow; and I hung on with her until I got her oats and hay and corn hauled in and stacked for her. One of her sons got so in the course of a few days thathe could help me and we made out to get through it and then she wanted me to thrash out a stack of rye and a flail, at 6 cts per bushel. I thrashed out twenty seven bushels of rye for the widow, and had got it all cleaned up ready to measure, when a couple of men from Kentucky, came after me. They had first came to RILEY'S and got his son, a young man, to come and show them the way. When I saw them I was helping young SULTON to fix his sled to haul a gum to put the rye in. It popped into my head when I first saw them that there was something going on not right, but when they drew near I saw that one of them was my cousin; but Satan was in me and had they resorted to rash means at the start, it would undoubtedly have made bad worse; but thanks be to God for my great deliverance at that time and all others. I have been thankful to my blessed master times without number, that there was no person undertook to take me only the ones that did, for I was well armed with a good pistol and a knife to second the motion. When they came up I soon found they were both cousins, although one of them I had never seen but once before, and did not know him until cousin SNOWDEN SUMMERS had given me an introduction to him. I enquired how the people were in Kentucky, and asked them what they were doing in this state. They said they were looking at some land and happened to see Mr. RILEY and heard him mention my name, and they thought they would come and see me as it had been a good while since they had last seen me. This conversation was all before Mr. SULTON, which gave him no suspicion in the least what they were after. We started out in the woods after the gum, and in going along we had considerable chat about my family and other affairs. They told me that they saw fight in me as soon as they came up. I told them there was fight in me and a considerable chance of it too! for I had one hand in my pocket on my pistol, but I took a thought in a moment that they knew better than to attempt to force me into measures. So we came back with the gum and we all turned in to measure up the rye. I had a bottle of whiskey at the barn and as I was going away we had to drink it up. After drinking we all went to the house, and I settled with the lady and she paid me off. She wanted me to thrash more rye for her. I told her I would see about it, but I knew very well at the time she wouldn't get me to thrash any more for her shortly. How the poor woman came out about getting her rye thrashed the Lord only knows for I bade them good bye, and have never been back since. We all went to RILEY'S and had considerable chat about my misfortune, and they seemed to think I could get clear, for they told me that a great many people said they could not do any thing with me, and they also told me that lawyers said a man had a right to defend himself in his own house. They told me it was their father's request and my mother's for me to come back with them, lest somebody else should take me, and it would be much better to be with my family, for if I could not have my trial right away I could get bail and live with my family. They said they could fee a lawyer and if they could not get the advertisement money which was $300 they would pay it themselves. Now if they had not come at the time they did they would not have found me there, for I intended to leave there in the course of a few days and where I would have gone the Lord only knows.--- There was a man living in this settlement who knew me, and he and his wife had gone on a visit to Flemming co. Ky. I knew very well he would hear of the circumstance for he was going right among my relations. So I thought it would be best to move my washing, and so I did but it was towards West Union prison. It was with much persuasion they got me in the notion of coming with them, but the thought of being separated from my dear little family was grievous to my heart.--- These men brought me to their father's and there we got our dinner. The news was soon spread through the settlement and they got to hear it at my mother's, and my dear little daughter who was living with her grand mother, came running to see me, and Lord bless the child, for she would run through fire nearly to see me at any time. We met but not without tears; thanks be to my Lord and Master, he hath spared me and my dear little daughter to meet once more on this earth. At my request, these men, after dinner, started with me to my father in law's where the rest of my family were. They went by the widow BOWMAN'S and told her they had got the ??? ???? ???ized, and that they wanted her to get an officer and takepossession of me, and they also told her they would take me to old man SWEARINGEN'S. We rode on to my father in law's, and when we rode up they called to the old man and told him it was my request to see my wife and children. Well says' he alight and come in. My wife was absent but being sent for soon returned. My dear reader here was a meeting long to be remembered by me, for never, so long as I tarry on this earth, shall I forget it. Thanks be to God for that great blessing.

When night came on there came a great gang armed with clubs and weapons to take me from the men who had me in custody, but finding these men were not to be trifled with, they desisted, and it is a God's blessing they did not, for some of them would, most assuredly, have been killed, had they persisted. They went off and got an officer and took me before a squire, and there we were until nearly day break. The squire sent off for two witnesses, and a lawyer to do the business for him, and never asked me if I wanted a witness or not, and were until the chickens crowed for day writing a commitment to send me to West Union prison. Between the squire and his clerk, they made out to write something. Whilst they were fumbling about this business I could have written a small journal. So they brought me back to my father in law's, where I shifted my clothes and from there they took me to THOS. SIMPSON'S, for he was the deputy constable, and there we got our breakfast; we then went on to the cross roads and stopped at the famous city called Clayton. There we had to take some refreshment, for the company could not pass by two splendid taverns, without giving them a call, and of course they had to treat their prisoner, which they did quite genteely, and it came very acceptably, for I loved it and thought more of it than I did of the God that made me. It being the day of the high muster we didn't tarry long in the city. Several came along who had to come to muster, my brother, JOHN P. GLASSCOCK, was one. All were in tolerably good spirits except my self. I was sorry to leave my family which I hadn't seen for several months only once, and then merely a glimpse of them, then hurried out of their sight to be dragged off to prison. But I was so hard hearted that the thoughts of the prison did not daunt me in the least, for I knew nothing about being shut up in prison before I came to this, and in fact, I thought I could be bailed out, but in this I was very much mistaken, as also were many others, for the Sheriff told me a million of dollars would not bail me. We came on to West Union, and there found the pitiful, stinking hole I was cast into. This was on the 15th of Sept. 1839. Court was to come on in the course of two or three weeks, and I expected to have my trial then. There was in the room above me a man by the name of JAMES KISCADDON. He had been put in for killing his own son in law some little time before I left home. Now the dispute between these men I know not. I shall only tell what I do know. He told me there were some words between them, he, at the time, had a gun on his shoulder, and being intoxicated, considerable chat about my family and other affairs. They told me that they saw fight in me as soon as they came up I told them there was fight in me and a considerable chance of it too! for I had one hand in my pocket on my pistol, but I took a thought in a moment that they knew better than to attempt to force me into measures. He told me there were some words between them, he, at the time, had a gun on his shoulder, and being intoxicated, and out of humor, he took his gun from his shoulder and shot him through the breast. He told me that when he pointed the gun at him he had no thought of killing him but did. I little thought when I was put in here that I was going to be ironed, but in a few days the Sheriff sent two or three blacksmiths in to me to put irons on me, such as I never saw before. They came in looking very much frightened and said it was the sheriffs orders to put irons on my ancles. I told them there was no need of putting them on me for I was not going to break out. They said it was nothing to them nor was it their doings at all. I told them to come and slap them on if they had to do so and not to stand off like bound boys at a frolic; for they stood off in one corner as though fearful that I would hurt them, which I would not have done for the world, had they not first injured me. They put the bands on and fastened me to a large log chain in the floor. The chain was large enough for three or four yoke of oxen to pull by, and yet all this did not the least daunt me, a poor, sin hardened wretch! None of my people came to see me, to let me know whom to summon and court was drawing near, and at length came on. There was an abundance of people came to hear KISCADDON'S trial. He was found guilty of murder in the first degree. My attorney told me I had better put my trial off till spring and have it at the Supreme court, for says he, these little petty courts are not fit for such a trial as yours. I was poor and unable to fee a lawyer so my dear brother, JOHN P. GLASSCOCK, feed one for me. And now, my dear reader, I thought if a man employed a lawyer or doctor, he ought to go by their directions. I was taken out of prison, to go before the Judges of the court of Common Pleas, and when I went in the charge was read to me, and the Judge asked me what court I wanted my trial in. I told him in the Supreme court. I was then gallanted back to prison by two respectable gentlemen. There was no fire in the prison, nor had there been as yet. I told my attorney to see to it, and he said he would, and did I believe, but the sheriff cared nothing about the fire nor me either. I would tell him about it every day and he would promise, O yes he would attend toit, and so it went on until the first of November. They then put up a stove in another room two or three feet from the door, and this door and iron one and locked was between me and the stove. This stove remained there some time for me to look at but no fire in it. Now the man who was in the room above expected to be hung, though his attorney was pleading for a new hearing, but he knew nothing of it. A day or two before he hung himself there was a man talking to him, who asked him if he had made peace with his maker; he answered, yes. Why, said the gentleman, some one was saying, you were swearing a short time since. To this he answered not a word, for it was the truth, and I, myself, heard him swearing most bitterly. Oh miserable man! that would go on swearing in that way, when he knew he must die. But he was a Deist, and did not believe there was any punishment hereafter, but I warrant he found the contrary to his sorrow. His wife was with him the evening before he put and end to himself, and, it is believed, helped him make the rope out of an old piece of bed tick. The morning that he did the deed, he asked me which would be the easiest way for a man to die, hang himself, to cut his throat. I told him I did not know, I had never tried nor did I want to, I would suppose either way would be very severe. He had signified several times, that if he had to be hung the sheriff should not have the pleasure of doing it, for he said he got a considerable sum of money for it, and he said had done all he could against him, and that money was all he cared for. Now, I do believe if the poor man had always come as nigh telling the truth as he did at that time he would have fared much better. He and myself were both up after daylight when the butcher blew his horn, and he said that man is blowing his horn for the dogs to come and take away the carrion. now his meaning was that the beef we got was very poor and tough, and he swore we always got the neck, for he could see them as they bought it, for the market house stood immediately in front of the prison. Now there was a very heavy frost that morning, and I having irons on and no fire, went to bed again and covered up. The last words he spoke to me were those concerning the butcher and his beef. Bye and bye our breakfasts were handed in to me, and I spoke to him and told him they had come at last. He made me no answer. I spoke to him again. Still no reply. I then looked up through a hole in the floor and saw him hanging by the neck. I immediately went to the window and called to Mr. FOSTER'S little son, to run for his father. Some time elapsed before any body came, and when they did come he was dead. They took him down and bled him but he was gone past recovery. This was on the 29th of September; it was some time before I could forget the looks of him, for when I thought of him it appeared to me that I could see him hanging by the neck and this made me feel miserable. Knowing he had committed an unpardonable sin it put me on a deep study, and set me to reading. I borrowed the history of the United States and read it through in four days and a half. But little good it did me for my mind was too mush flustered to remember any thing I read five minutes at a time, for when without whiskey, my mind was running on that, for I thought I could not live without it, and the sheriff did not allow any body to bring it to the prison. I got it however, in spite of him, and at one time I remember I had three bottles full and some in a tin cup, a pint would not last me more than a day.--- The sheriffs lady would at times vex me very much, for she would let no one come to the window unless they were some of my relations, and then she would make her little children watch to see if I got any thing from them. But children can be fooled as well as grown people, for whiskey I would have, though they had board fence eight feet high, round the prison, and a gate which they usually kept locked. Now this reminds me of the Irishman, when he saw a lock to a pair of saddlebags, for says he when I see a lock to a pair of saddlebags it makes my knife laugh. They were so particular as to fasten my window shutters nearly every night which they needed not to have done, for God knows, that with the exception of three or four days after KISCADDON'S death, I would never have tried to escape, if I had ever so good an opportunity. If the materials had been at hand at the time, I would have made my escape, and would never have been brought back alive. About this time the sheriff and his family went visiting and I think his wife and family were gone something like a week, but he was backwards and forwards every day or two and then kept the gate locked all the time and did not allow any body to come to see whether I was suffering or not. I did suffer for wood, water and provisions. But blessed be God I am yet alive, and what is better than all, I have a hope of getting home to heaven some day. Now the sheriff rented a house about two hundred yards from the prison, and moved to it, and then there was no person living in the building joining the prison. I was alone by myself and no person could come even to the window, without first asking leave and getting the key. I was very lonesome for some time, but soon got used to it. When all the doors and gates were locked, I was under eight or nine locks, but I did not mind this at all if people could have come to the window to talk with me.---This I believe, was done to prevent people from finding out how I fared. Now after they moved over to that house, they got prouder I suppose, for my fare got better in the eating way but as for wood and water, it was worse. About this time the commissioners came to see me, escorted by the Sheriff. They asked me if I got plenty to eat; I told them I did at that time and I thanked God for it. They asked if I got enough of wood and water; I favored the Sheriff and told them I was neglected at times but not long at a time, and was generally pretty well supplied. This I did hoping I might fare the better for it. But my hopes were all vain for things got worse and worse, for they depended on their little son to give me wood and water.--- The wood was chopped and lay buy the window, in order to make people believe that I had wood in plenty; but it should be remembered that this wood was out of my reach. This boy would very often go off and give me neither wood nor water. I would tell him I must have them. Sometimes he would give me a few sticks of wood at other times he would make use of the word he learned from his father, "yes, I will," and march off, and if in the morning, I would see no more of him until night. Yet I have no doubt he would tell his mother I had plenty, and she knew no better, for the woman at that time had a small child, and of course had plenty to attend to, and FOSTER, himself, seldom ever called to see how things were with me. As I said before my fare in the eating way was getting better and it still continued to mend all winter and may God bless the woman for her kindness at this time. Now I read a great deal for God was so kind to me, a poor perishing sinner, as to give me an appetite for reading his precious book, and this I read daily, and the more I read the better I liked it. This was sometime in the last of November, and at length I began to feel a deep interest in the welfare of my soul. I began to feel the weight and burden of sin very much. I studied about it a great deal and thought I would try to pray, for who knows but there is pardon yet waiting for me, a poor, perishing sinner, not worthy of the least of God's mercies. Now there was nobody in prison with me, and the gate was still kept shut; and nobody could come to see me. None of God's people came near me to encourage me; and my wife was absent from me two months. This also grieved me very much, for she left me on the 24th of Nov. and did not return till about the 24th of Jan. When she left me I was under great concern about the welfare of my soul, but said nothing to her about it, nor in fact to any body else, for God had not yet opened my eyes to see myself a wretched undone sinner, but did it in a few days afterwards, blessed be his most holy name. I was setting at my window reading my bible and it appeared to me all a t once that I could see all my sins laid down right before me, and it appeared that I could see all the sins that I ever had committed from the time that I was a little boy up to the present day, and seeing was not all for I felt the extreme weight of them and the burden appeared to intolerable for me to bear, or they seemed as a mountain, yes, mountains upon mountains. I closed my bible and cried unto the Lord, in these very words, Lord have mercy upon me a poor perishing sinner O Lord, I beseech thee, have mercy upon a poor, penitent sinner; bestow it, I pray thee, or I am undone. Save, Lord Jesus, or I perish, was my cry. I wept. I mourned. I lay down on the bed and tumbled about like a little boy with the belly ache. What shall I do to be saved! was my cry. Then there words came unto my mind, only believe and thou shalt be saved. Lord Jesus I pray thee give me this power and I will believe. Lord I believe, help thou mine unbelief. I tried to pray but could not, for Satan would tell me it is too late now for God will not hear your prayers; time was when you might have repented but now it is too late. Satan strove and I strove and sometimes when I went to get on my knees, it appeared as if some person was behind me pulling me back. At other times I fancied I heard some person walking round the house, listening to me, although the gate was locked and nobody could come in without my hearing them, nor could any body climb the fence without my knowing it. Now in this way I worried on for some time and had but little appetite, and could scarcely eat at all. The sheriff came over and asked me if I was sick. I answered no. Why says he, you look very pale. I could have told him my sickness, if I had chosen, but I knew he would only laugh at me and would not help me if he could, and so I kept the matter hid now if ever there was a sin sick soul I was one. Sometimes I would pray and at other times it appeared that I could not, for my heart was as hard as stone. I at last picked up the resolution that Queen Esther had when she went in to the king, I can but perish if I go, and if I must perish let me perish at the feet of my blessed Jesus, who bled and died for such poor, perishing sinners as I am, for my bible tells me Christ died for all and why not for me though the very chief of sinners. I then viewed him hanging and bleeding on the cross, and the two thieves, one on each hand and his sweet reply to the believing thief, when he said at the very hour of death, Lord remember me when thou comest home to thy kingdom. O the sweet answer my blessed Jesus made, this day shalt thoube with me in paradise. I then fell on my knees at the feet of my blessed Jesus loaded with iniquities, saying, Lord Jesus, I have sinned and transgressed thy laws and commandments, and deserve thy wrath years ago. And now; O Lord, I give myself up unto thee, a living sacrifice. Take me, I pray thee, and do with me as seemeth good unto thee, only deliver me from that horrible pit. Have mercy on me, O Lord, according to thy loving kindness and according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. Blot out all mine iniquity and cleanse me from all sin. And now, O lord, I humbly entreat thee to take full possession of my heart and cleanse it, for I do acknowledge that it is deceitful, and, above all things, desperately wicked. Without thy pardoning grace, Lord Jesus, I am undone. Remove this mountain of sin from my guilty soul. Give unto me the gift of prayer and a hearty desire to pray and the praise shall be thine. Father, Son and Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

I felt some relief after I prayed but could not rest. At length I fell into a dose of sleep and wakened myself praying. I lay there and 'wept, entreating the Lord to have mercy upon me. I then thought of this promise; he that will come unto me I will in no wise cast out. I got out of my bed and prayed with all the powers of my soul, and although, I cannot say , I heard these words, thy sins be forgiven thee, yet this I know that I felt an immense burden removed from my weary soul. Such feelings, such love as I then had, no tongue can describe. Such freeness of speech to return thanks unto my blessed savior I never had before. It appeared I could pray all night, and indeed, I do not believe I came much sort of it. My soul was filled with love towards my blessed Redeemer, and it appeared that I loved every thing and every body, and the next day as I saw the people through the cracks of the fence, as they were passing, my soul was filled with love towards them. Now my dear reader, although I had never believed in hearing people shouting or crying aloud unto God, I was so filled with the love of god that I hardly knew how to contain myself or to refrain from crying aloud with praises unto that blessed Jesus that suffered and died the ignominious death of the cross to redeem poor, perishing, sinners, such as we are.--- As I told you before, none of God's people came near me, for I kept this to myself, lest they should say I was acting the hypocrite. Now I had like to have forgotten to tell you that about this time I was taken with a spell of sickness, something like the cramp cholic, which worsted me very much. I took considerable medicine and became very weak, but whom God loveth he chasteneth, and as David said, it is good for me to be afflicted, for it makes me more humble and obedient unto God's most holy word and may I ever be kept low at the feet of my blessed Jesus, pleading for his mercies which he is always ready to bestow unto the humble and thou that are of a contrite spirit. About this time there was a great revival of religion all through the land, and, of a truth, the Lord visited this part of his vineyard, for all the people seemed alive and on wings in search of that heavenly treasure that is laid up for those who love God and keep his commandment. Now the big meeting among the Methodists came on and I could see the people pass by to the people of God, and my heart was melted with love for them. I could also hear them preaching and praising God, but could distinguish but very little that they said; but oftentimes did I get up out of my bed and go to my window and wished that they were nearer to me that I could hear what they did say. This was not done once or twice but many times and with many tears. My wife came up to see me on the 24th of Jan. and one of my brothers in law, JOHN CAMPBELL, came with her. Now my dear reader, this thing was not to be concealed any longer. I told my wife the Lord had converted my soul, and exhorted her to turn to the Lord, for he would have mercy and abundantly pardon. I told my brother in law I wished be had brought a preacher with him. Why, says he, I will do it yet if the Sheriff has no objections. He said he had none. My brother then asked me what preacher I would have. I told him old Father Meek, if he would come. O says he, he will come. And blessed be God he did and more of God's people with him. My heart leaped for joy when they came in at the door. The Rev. Mr. MEEK, that faithful servant of God, stepped up to me and shook me by the hand and asked me what was my request. I said I want you to pray for me. He said let us go to prayer. The room was crowded, and never, never, will I forget that sweet hour, for it appeared to me that the Lord Jesus himself had come down to dwell with us on earth again. And now my dear reader, though this was one year ago, it is with many tears I tell it you, and whilst writing, I have to lay down my pen and fall at the feet of my blessed Jesus, and entreat him to draw nigh unto this prison again, as he did on that day. They remained but a few minutes after prayer, so I had but a few words with this blessed servant of God, nor did I tell him at that time that I thought the Lord had done something for my soul. He promised to return to see me again before he went away; but learning that the sheriff was to be absent two or three days he sent me word he could not come back until the return of the Sheriff. He madehis promise good but it was a long time before he did come. But my dear reader, that though his time was delayed in coming, when he did return it was as Noah's dove, for it was with tidings of great joy. The Sheriff brought two Baptist preachers to see me and one of them made a beautiful exhortation and both of them prayed, and I trust their prayers for my soul, were not without answer. I am comforted with these words, soul, why dost thou doubt? my grace is all sufficient for thee. What blessed promises are encompassed within the lids of that precious book. For it says in one place, come unto me all ye ends of the earth and be saved. Now my dear reader, I call that a blessed invitation, and it is not to one nor two, but to all, for he that will come unto me I will in no wise cast out. Lord strengthen thy unworthy servant and guide and direct my pen, that I may write something pleasing unto thee, and edifying to those who may read in time to come. May it be done with sincerity and with fear and trembling, may that fear of offending thee be continually kept alive in my heart whilst I remain in this earthly tabernacle, and when my days are ended in this lower world, accept of me, I beseech thee, unto thy heavenly kingdom, and the praise shall be thine, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, world without end; Amen.

This has been a very had winter and I suffered much with cold by not being attended to. Spring came on and my trial came to hand and they took the irons off of me to take me out to court. I could scarce walk at all, for the irons were very heavy and I was shut up in a small room where there was but little chance to walk even if I had not had irons on, nor had I seen the sun for six months and a half. I went on to the court house with them as quiet as a lamb to the slaughter. There was an abundance of people came to hear my trial and their eyes were all placed on me. I suppose they thought that I would perhaps be scared and faint. The charge was read and the Judges asked me if I was guilty or not guilty. I answered I was guilty in self defense. So the jury was picked out and the witnesses sworn and some of them swore to point black lies. The jury hung and it is said, there were but two smart men among them. I knew but one and he is any thing but smart. Ten were for bring me in guilty of murder in the second degree and two manslaughter. So I was taken back to prison there to remain for another year. It seems hard for a man to suffer so much for defending himself in his own house. There were two other men in prison with me and one was a crazy man in the room with me. One would suppose my own troubles were enough, without being tormented with, I may say, two crazy men, for the man they called crazy had a good deal the most sense of the two. They would quarrel and fight nearly every day and I would have to part them. At last the Sheriff took them both to Columbus; the crazy man to the Lunatic Asylum and the other to the Penitentiary. Now my mistress began to slight me again, and had it not been for Mister JOHN BROWN'S family, I think I should have died for want of water. May God bless them here and hereafter for their kindness to me. Now the kind and blessed Providence was so kind to me, though unworthy of the least of his mercies, as to send his faithful servant, the Rev. JOHN MEEKS, to preach a sermon unto me. He preached from these words, when a few more years are come I shall go whence I never shall return. Never shall I forget my feelings on that day, for my heart was melted with love towards my blessed Jesus and his faithful minister. My fare through the summer was very rough, for they gave me the fat rusty pieces of bacon, that were fit for nothing but to be thrown into the soap grease, and one half of the time it was not half done, and very often I did not get that but twice a day. They sometimes sent me out bread that had been made up for a number of days. This bread I never could eat. Frequently my neighbor, Mrs. BROWN, would go on the Sabbath, to 9 o'clock class, and return before I got my breakfast. This kind of breakfast is no rarity to me and when I had no sour bread, there came very often stewed apples that had taken the second sour and beet pickles, I suppose they thought anything was good enough for any person who is in prison. If there be any Christianity in this sort of treatment I know it not. So they draw their money they don't care if Satan had me, but thanks be to God this does not lay in their power. Now my dear reader, I wearied along through a long and tedious summer not without many trials and temptations, but the grace of our Lord Jesus is all sufficient for us. If we will be faithful he will not leave us nor forsake us but we must love him and keep his commandments. About this time the Lord who is merciful and kind, gave my poor old mother health and strength to come and see her unworthy son. This was the first time I had seen her since my dreadful misfortune. I was afraid she could not stand it but thanks be to God that he enabled her to bear it surprisingly. It grieved me to think that I, her eldest son, instead of being a joy and comfort to her, was bringing down her gray hairs in sorrow to the grave. My wife came up with my mother and they stayed with me several days, and then returned home again, and thanks be to God, she returned home tolerablywell reconciled, considering the dreadful situation I was placed in. On the 8th of August 1840, God's blessed and faithful and blessed servant Mr. ALEXANDER M'LAIN, came to the prison and preached from this text: this is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation that Christ came into the world to die for sinners of which I am chief. The sermon that was preached that day I trust will long be remembered by many as well as myself. All I heard speak about it was pleased with it, indeed I don't see where in they could be displeased with it for I thought it was much to the purpose, and such a prayer as he offered up in behalf of poor, perishing sinners I think I never heard beaten in my life, and his prayer for my soul I trust was not without answer. May our God, and the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob bless this, he servant, and his household and save them in the end for Christs sake.

I wearied along through a long tedious summer and had very good health considering I was shut up in this nasty stinking hole, for a stinking place it is and it is a thing almost impossible to get the sheriff to clean it out or have it done, for this causes him to call upon his purse and this he hates; as a cat about fish so is he about his money, they are fond of fish but dislike to get their feet wet; be is fond of money but hates to work for it. Now the pride of the heart, the love of money, and, let me add spirituous liquor, is the root of all evil. Had it not been for this last evil, I would not be here at this time. About this time I got some boiled potatoes, and some of the neighbors sent me a tin full of butter milk to eat with them, for which I felt very thankful, but my mistress getting to learn it forbade them sending any more. This was very hard I thought and reminded me of the dog in the manger, he could not eat the hay himself nor would he let the ox eat it. September court came on and there were two poor souls to be tried, one for putting on another man's coat without leave, the other for shooting a man. They were both cleared, and really I was glad of it, for the man that took the coat was deranged at times, and his family did not know where he was until I wrote to them for him. The other was a young man and the Jury brought him in guilty but his attorney worked it somehow that he was cleared. I believe he nullified the jury. Before court broke up my mother, my wife and cousin SARAH HAINES came to see me. They had sent me word they were coming and my heart leaped for joy when I heard them at the gate. My wife came without her child and it was only by the greatest persuasion she was induced to remain all night with me. My mother and cousin remained with me several days and went away pretty well reconciled considering the dreadful situation I was placed in. About the first of Oct. the Sheriff went to keeping tavern, and the bell in her coney knew not how to contain herself, for at times she made a tremendous noise as though she had two clappers in her instead of one, but this was only an aggravation, for many times the dinner did not come for two hours after the bell had rung. On the 25th of Oct. my wife and oldest daughter came to see me, this was on Saturday evening and the next day they went home. I tried to prevailed upon my wife to remain until Monday morning, she would not but promised very faithfully to return in three or four weeks and bring the other two children whom I had not seen for eighteen months.--- Now this time rolled on and she did not come, three months rolled round and still no wife. It appears I have become a stranger to my companion, aed an alien unto my mother's children. My wife was absent from the 26th of Oct. until the 31st of Jan., and had it not been for shame I believe she would not have come at all. She heard I was sick and God softened her heart and caused to come at last, but she did not bring my children. She promised to return in three or four weeks, but this was another false promise, for the time has passed and she has not come.

On the 20th of March my trial came on and there was much difficulty in getting a jury, but no difficulty in getting false witnesses; It is astonishing to me that a man can, without any provocation, get up in a court and swear to a point blank lie. I feet it my duty mention the names of two of these two men, GODDARD PENCE and ELISHA TUMBLESON. And now I caution the community against these men, lest they should meet with the same fate that your unworthy writer has fallen into, men, who would as willingly swear a man's life away as take a drink of grog. One of these men was so drunk he could not stand still whilst he was testifying. By such witnesses as these the jury brought me in guilty of murder in the second degree. My dear reader, this is hard that a man should be snatched from a family of little helpless children and sent to the penitentiary for life.

Lord Jesus, I entreat thee, even on this bit of paper to carry out the work thou hast begun in my family. Take them into thy precious care and make them thine. Bless them and feed them with the bread of live; save them and all that are near and dear with thy unworthy servant, and the praise shall be thine, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, world without end. AMEN!

The defendants John Howell and Jane Swisher answer to the petition of plaintiffs and say that it is true as stated in plaintiffs petition, that on the 14th day of December A.D. 1853. Jacob Swisher and the defendant Jane Swisher executed a general warranty deed conveying to the defendant John Howell certain real estate particularly described in plaintiffs petition These defendants further answer & say that it is not true as stated plaintiffs petition, that said deed was fraudulently obtained and without consideration, but say; but say there was a valuable and sufficient consideration for said conveyance. The defendant's further say in answer to plaintiffs petition, that it is not true as stated therein that the said Jacob Swisher at the time of executing said general warranty deed was without mind and mental capacity to contract or make a deed. Defendants further deny that said deed was or is now void on account of any fraud by these defendants or from any want of mental capacity in the said Jacob Swisher to make the same. Defendants say that it is true that said John Howell took possession of the real estate mentioned in said petition of plaintiffs, and that he still holds possession of the same under his general warranty deed from the said Jacob & Jane Swisher, and receives the rents and profits thereof. Defendants admit that said Jacob Swisher has departed this life, leaving plaintiff and these defendants heirs; but deny that the plaintiff as heirs of of said Jacob Swisher are entitled to any partition of said real estate But say that the defendant John Howell is legal owner of the same. Wherefore they ask that plaintiffs petition may be dismissed and that the defendant John Howell title to said real estate may quieted, and for other proper relief. John Howell

THE SHELTON FAMILY

Mrs. A. E. Whitaker, St. Louis, Missouri

In August, 1927, I published a book containing the lineage of the Shelton and allied families, with all data that I had been able to secure after a research of more than ten years. I have since received letters from all parts of the country asking for information, and giving me many interesting facts. It is impossible to answer all fully, so I feel this article will be timely and its publication in the William and Mary Quarterly will assure its reaching those most interested.

The Shelton history has been apparently hopelessly tangled on account of the misspelling of the official records. As all of the family were highly educated it was many years before I even looked into records under other names. Three years ago in Richmond, Virginia, a genealogist of high standing assured me that all of the records in Middlesex County, Va., Christ Church Parish, under the name of Chilton, Chelton, Skelton and Shelton belonged to one family. On careful examination I found this to be correct and started to unravel the tangle. This I have only recently succeeded in doing.

The Virginia Historical Collection states that "Three Shelton brothers came to America from England in 1638; one built his home 'Rural Plains' in Hanover Co., Va., one went to Nelson Co., Va., and one went to Connecticut. John Shelton, the Hanover brother, married Eleanor Parks, daughter of Wm. Parks, first editor in Virginia and founder of the Virginia Gazette; and their daughter Sarah married Patrick Henry." Part of this is correct.

Two Sheltons did come to Virginia in 1638, according to Greer's "Early Immigrants;" a Fr., and a Richard Shelton; whether or not they were connections of the Hanover Co., Sheltons is not, as yet, known; but the early historians have not taken into account the generations in their statements.

It has always been conceded that the John Shelton of "Rural Plains" was descended from Sir John Shelton, of Shelton Hall, Norfolk, England, and his wife Anne Boleyn. As Lady Anne Shelton was a great aunt of Queen Elizabeth's, the English records are very complete, and are part of the history of England in her Doomsday Book.

After Elizabeth was crowned she sent for the family at Shelton Hall, who had given her shelter many times when she was so bitterly persecuted, and they lived at the Court for fifty years until the death of Elizabeth in 1603.

In looking up the history of the American Sheltons the connecting link seemed to be always missing. We could never connect the "Sir Ralph Shelton" and his "son, James Shelton, (misspelled Skelton in some of the records) Gentleman" who were members of the Second Virginia Company, with the Norfolk family, as none of the English historians whose work is accessible in America, told us that "Sir Thomas Shelton, Gentleman Porter of the Tower" under Queen Elizabeth, and who is buried in St. Peter's Church in the Tower, had a son Ralph. Thomas was a son of Sir Ralph Shelton by his first wife, Mary Wodehouse. (Record made by Eng. Gen. from Davy's Pedigrees).

This Ralph, son of Thomas Shelton and his wife Elizabeth Flowerdew, was knighted at Theobald's in 1607 as "Sir Ralph Shelton, of Shelton Hall, Norfolk, England." He was a member of Parliament and signed the petition circulated there by the London Company in 1610 and was a member of the Second and Third Virginia Companies. (Official Records of the London Company—Genesis of the U. S. by Alexander Brown, p. 544.)

There is nothing to indicate that Sir Ralph Shelton ever came to Virginia. If so, he returned to England; but his son, "James Shelton, Gentleman" came with Lord Delaware in June, 1610, remained and founded the Shelton family of America. (Eng. Rec.—Stith's Hist. of Va.—Smith's Hist. of Va.—Alexander Brown's Genesis of U. S.—and the Records of the London Company by Kingsbury.)

James was a resident of Jamestown in 1620, (Smith's Hist., vol. 2, p. 549), a member of the Court of June 7, 1624 (Genesis of U. S. by Brown—and Records of the Virginia Company, Vol. 2, P. 539) and is given in the "Partial List of Families in America entitled to bear arms; James Shelton, the immigrant (Plate he used). Reuben Shelton, Hanover County; (same). (William and Mary Quarterly, Vol. 1, Book 2, P. 59.) The illustration of the plate, however, is not given.

In the 1600's the Sheltons were living in Gloucester and York Counties, Va. They are listed with the resident families of Abingdon Parish, Gloucester Co., from 1677 to 1761. (Abingdon Ch. Colonial Reg. P. 192). In 1662 a John Shelton (a grown man) is on record in York Co., Va. (Tyler, vol. I., p. 273). This must have been a brother of James (2) as John, later of Rural Plains, was only a child then.

In 1681 Wm. Shelton had a grant of 150 acres in Gloucester Co., Va., and on December 10, 1698, he married Hannah Armistead, daughter of Capt. Anthony Armistead, who was born in Elizabeth City Co., in 1648. (Eliz. City Co. Rec.—Pittman's Americans of Gentle Birth.)

The name of James Shelton is in an old book at "Rural Plains" with date of 1663. John Shelton, of "Rural Plains" born in York County in 1650, was a Vestry man at St. Paul's Church, Hanover (?) Co., (Hanover Co. was not formed until 1720; probably this should be New Kent, Goochland, Henrico or York Co.) in 1705. He is mentioned in the records as "Son of James."

James (2) must have been living in York Co., as late as 1716 for in that year "James Shelton and Thomas Cole sued the wardens of Charles Parish, York Co., for a debt." (York County Records)

"James Shelton (3), Gentleman" was one of the commissioners in a court called for Goochland Co., the 25th of June, 1733. (Va. Mag. Vol. 1. P. 328, 330). He is on record as living in St. James Parish, Goochland Co., in 1735. In 1723-26, James Shelton had grants of land in Henrico Co., Va., of over 7,000 acres. (Va. Land Grants)

John Shelton, first of "Rural Plains" was the son of James (probably (2) as the first James would be an old man by this time, if still living). It was the third John of "Rural Plains" that married Eleanor Parks and their daughter Sarah, married Patrick Henry. (Records of Old Fork Church, in record book of St. Paul's Church, Hanvoer Co., contains the names of this Shelton family).

The histories speak of the first wife of Patrick Henry as, "A woman of low origin, daughter of a poor farmer and tavern keeper." The facts are that there is no finer lineage anywhere than that of John Shelton, father of Sarah Henry, and as to his being poor, besides his land in New Kent Co., York Co., etc., he owned thousands of acres in Westmoreland Co., Va., when Sarah married Patrick Henry. (Va. Land Grants)

The "Inn," at Hanover Courthouse, was part of the inheritance of Eleanor Shelton, wife of John, from her father Wm. Parks. (Will of Wm. Parks date of 1750). Patrick Henry was only eighteen when he married not at "four o'clock in the morning when returning from a dance," as some historians state, but in the parlor at "Rural Plains" in a room in which the writer has slept, in a bed brought from England three hundred years ago by the Sheltons.

John Shelton closed his country home, "Rural Plains," moved to the tavern and supported the wife and children of Patrick Henry while the latter completed his education. If it had not been for his father-in-law, America would probably have never heard of the "Tongue of Virginia."

It was the son of this John Shelton (3) of "Rural Plains" and Eleanor Parks, Wm. Parks Shelton, who settled later in Nelson Co., Virginia. In 1749 this William owned land in King and Queen Co. and purchased land on Byrd Creek in Fluvanna Co. His first wife's name was Patience; by her he had Wm., Jr., Henry and Sarah who married Augustine Shepherd. His second wife was Eliz. Rogers, daughter of Robert Rogers, of Goochland Co. His children by this marriage were John, Gideon and Thomas. (Assembly Test of Albemarle Co., Va.—Will of Robert Rogers 11/18/1740). This John was John of "Red House," Louisa and Goochland Counties.

The third Shelton brother referred to in the Virginia Histories, Daniel, was born in York Co., Va., in 1668; he was a son of James (2) and a brother of the John who built "Rural Plains." In 1685 he was shipwrecked on the coast of Connecticut; he was cut off from his brothers in Virginia by the Indians and was given four hundred acres of land in Stamford, Conn., where he remained and founded the Connecticut branch of the Shelton family. In 1692 he married Eliz. Welles, granddaughter of Gov. Thomas Welles, of Conn. These Sheltons figured prominently in the social and civic life of Conn., and none of this branch ever returned to Virginia. (Conn., Official Rec.—Shelton Gen. by Jane de Forest Shelton—New Eng. Ency. of Hist. and Biog.)

After the death of Reuben Shelton of Hanover Co., (another brother of Daniel's) who died without issue, a suit was brought for the settlement of his estate by his brothers; as Daniel had disappeared and it was not known up to that time, whether he was living or dead.

Mr. Haw of "Dundee", Hanover Co., Va., in 1926, told me that John of Hanover, Reuben, Daniel, etc., had a brother Richard. I have never been able to actually connect any Richard with the Hanover Co. Sheltons, and will appreciate any information about this branch of the family. There was a Richard in Lexington Parish, Nelson Co., (with a William, Ralph and Edwin, all family names) in 1779. A Jane Shelton born 9/1/1747, married April 3, 1766, Josiah, son of Charles Ellis and Susanna Harding. She was a daughter of a Richard, but I cannot link him up with the main line. A Colonel Richard Shelton of Amherst Co., Va., had a daughter Nancy who married in Feb., 1767, John Rucker. These appear to be descendants of Wm. Parks Shelton, son of John and Eleanor of "Rural Plains," but I cannot link them up without further information and I find no trace of Richard in the three earlier generations. The Greensboro, North Carolina, Sheltons are descendants of a Richard Shelton and claim to be of the Hanover branch, but the connecting link is missing.

In the list of "Soldiers of Virginia in the Revolutionary War" the records on Page 619, 620 and 621, are those belonging to the "Chilton" family, as the affidavits accompanying them, which were made by people who had known the family fifty years, prove. The wills of George Chilton and Martha Chilton are filed in Loudoun Co., Va. "Will of George Chilton, Loudoun Co., Va., filed April 9, 1771, wife Ann, son Thomas Chilton, and Sarah." "Chilton, Martha, Loudoun Co., Va., will filed October 1, 1777; sons Thomas and Mark, daughters Sarah and Nancy." (Loudoun Co., Rec.) These men have no connection with the Shelton family. The Charles who married Betty Blackwell 12/19/1760 was a Chilton not a Shelton.

Another error which has come down for generations and been published in at least five books (I have seen it in that number) is about the wife of Thomas Jefferson, and the husband of Jane Meriwether. These were both Sheltons; the first not by blood however; she was Martha Wales Shelton, the widow of Bathurst Shelton and married Thomas Jefferson at "The Forest", Charles City Co., Va., on January 1, 1772. (Record of marriage in St. James' Parish, Goochland Co., Va.) Ann Wales, sister of Martha, married Henry, son of Sir Wm. Skipwith. In several records it is stated that Henry Skipwith married Bathurst Shelton's widow.

Jane Meriwether was a daughter of Francis Meriwether and Mary Bathurst (who was a daughter of Launcelot and a niece of the wife of James Shelton, who was Mary Bathurst, daughter of Sir Edward Bathurst). Jane married Dr. James Shelton of Essex Co., Va., and their daughter Sarah, "Sally as she was called, married Col. Thomas Jones, (born in 1726), of the Naval and Military family of Washington, D. C. There is in existence somewhere, a Bible which belonged to Meriwether and Reuben Shelton of Hanover Co., Va. It has a wide double spread with the coat of arms of the Shelton family. This Bible is said to be in possession of the Jones family in Kentucky. I have written to all of those I know that belong to that family, but have never received a reply. I will greatly appreciate any information concerning this book. The mistake in the records of the Jones and Meriwether books came from not verifying a poorly written record in the marriage of Thomas Meriwether, son of Nicolas (1) of Wales and Susanna Shelton, born in 1689; she was a daughter of Peter Shelton (son of James (2)) and Susanna Jaxon, of Middlesex Co., Va., and a sister of Ralph, born in 1685 who died in 1733 and is mentioned in the will of Thomas Meriwether (1708) as "My brother-in-law, Ralph Shelton." Ralph Shelton, son of Peter Shelton (1) and Susanna Jaxon, was born in 1685. In 1706 (about) he married Mary Crispin Their children were—

Thomas b.—1707; had Reuben, b.—5-6-1733; Micajah, b. 6-20-1742; Mary, b. 2-21-17 37/38, and Thomas, b. 5-2-1740. Thomas, d.—1742, March 24; he married Mary Probert, Jan. 14, 1730.

Ralph—b. 1709; Mar. Mary Daniel June 10, 1731. Living in Amelia Co. in 1758. (Va. Hist. records).

Elizabeth—b. 1711; Mar. Wm. Davis, Oct. 29, 1728.

Crispin—b. 1713; Mar. Letitia and had a son Wm., b. 3/4/1735 and ten other children.

Reuben—b. 1715, April; died Oct. 8, 1715.

Mary—b. 1-21-1716—d. July 18, 1719.

Catherine—b. 1719; mar. George Blakey, 12-31-1743. Died before 1750, leaving child Patience Catesby Blakey.

John—b. 1722. Living when his mother died in 1750.

Benjamin—b. 1724. Living when his mother died in 1750.

James—b. 1726. Living when his mother died in 1750.

Daniel—b. 1729, mentioned in mother's will as son and heir.

Ralph, Sr., father of these children, died in 1733; his widow, Mary, married a man named Clock, in Amelia Co., Va., where Ralph (b. 1709—husband of Mary Daniel), owned 400 acres in 1745.

Mrs. Clock died June 30, 1750. Her children mentioned in her will, were Ralph, John, Crispin, Benjamin and James Shelton, and a grandson Reuben Shelton, and granddaughter Patience Catesby Blakey and daughter of Elizabeth Davis' (son of Thos. and Mary Probert—born May 6, 1733). Evidently Thomas and Catherine (besides Reuben—who died the year he was born, and Mary who died in 1719, July 18th), had died before their mother's death in 1750, as they were not mentioned in the will. Peter Shelton (1) by his second wife Abigail (?) had Thomas—born Sept. 20, 1693, Henry, born Sept. 20, 1691, and Zebulon, born Aug. 4, 1700. Both Peter (1) and his son Peter (2) died within a year of each other; one Dec. 17, 1717, the other Oct. 1, 1718. Zebulon married Mary Goar Feb. 20, 1720. Henry died Dec. 28, 1716. I cannot place Thomas born 1693. Zebulon was in the Westmoreland Co. Militia in 1733.

Peter (2) born in 1687, was also a son of Peter (1) (son of James (2)) and Susanna Jaxon. He married in 1708 Eliz. Downing. Besides Eliz., Peter (2) and Eliz. had Susannah, b. 8-20-1710, d. Apr. 29, 1733. Thos.—b. 12-24-1714; mar. Dorothy who died 4-25-1741 when her daughter Mary was born Apr. 12, 1741.

The third child of Peter and Susanna was Susanna, who married Thomas Meriwether. She was born in 1689 and her mother died at her birth or soon after, as in 1691 Peter Shelton married Abigail (?). After the death of Peter, Sr., in 1717 or 1718, Abigail Shelton, his widow, married Robert Holderness: Several Shelton lines in this article have been worked out and cleared up since the publication of my book last August, by the facts furnished me by different branches of the family. Abigail Holderness died Oct. 17, 1729. Her children by Peter (1) Shelton were Henry (b. 1691; died 1716), Thos., b. 1693 and Zebulon who married Mary Goar.

The first record in the Meriwether book is written thus: "Thomas Meriwether married Susanna (Skelton ?) showing that the name was not clear on the records. From an error of this kind all the generations of this branch since have come down wth the name Skelton when they are entitled to the wonderful history of the Shelton family in England and America.

I never could understand why I could find no official record of the Revolutionary service of my immediate ancestors. I knew my great grandfather and his father and grandfather were in the Revolutionary War from the beginning. Only recently I have found them masquerading under the name of "Chilton" in the official records. This has been taken up with the War Department and Mr. Dwight Davis, Secretary of War, has personally assured me that the explanation will be attached to the official record, so as to assist all future inquirers. John Shelton, Sr., of "Rural Plains" (Capt. of the Third Virginia Regiment, misspelled Chilton in the list of Revolutionary soldiers—Va. Co., Rec. Vol. 6, p. 243), husband of Eleanor Parks fell at Brandywine in 1777. His son, Capt. John Shelton, afterwards Colonel, (who marched to Williamsburg with his brother-in-law Patrick Henry, to demand satisfaction when the Governor removed the powder from the magazine) was his heir, and the government grants were issued to him. This Capt. John was president of a Regimental Court Martial Sept. 1 and 12, 1779 (Va. Historical Magazine, Vol. 13, Pages 315 and 430); his brother

Thomas of Lancaster Co., Va., was Corp. then Capt. in Captain Taylor's Company, Second Virginia Regiment (Official Rec. and Saunders Early Settlers of Alabama—P. 458 and Family Records) and "in 1777 Capt. Thomas Chilton (Shelton) Gentleman, of Taylor's Company was recommended for Lieut.-Col."; this was confirmed by the Gov. at the Court in the Spring of 1778 and Col. Thos. Shelton served throughout the war (P. 1460, Washington Manuscript; Westmoreland Co., Militia.) There was also a Thomas Shelton from Pittsylvania Co., and a Thomas Shelton in the 14th Virginia Regiment, probably the Thos. from Louisa Co., Va., in the Revolutionary War, but on account of this error in spelling, the service of Col. Thos. Shelton of Lancaster Co., Va., and that of his father and brother has been lost to posterity. His son, Jesse Shelton, of Lancaster Co., Va., (Corp. then Serg't) also served in Taylor's Company, Second Virginia Regiment (War Department Rec.) The wills of John (1) and John (2) of "Rural Plains" and his son Thomas, were filed in Westmoreland Co., Va., (Hanover Co. was not then formed) where they owned thousands of acres of land. These, too, are filed as Chilton. The records of the third John of "Rural Plains" were destroyed when Hanover and Richmond Courthouses were burned, and the graves in Hanover Co., entirely demolished by the Northern troops during the War Between the States. The swords and helmets worn by the Shelton men are preserved with great care at "Rural Plains." The Sheltons have been among the first to volunteer their service in every war America has engaged in, since its founding; one of the St. Louis branch, Grayson Shelton enlisted at eighteen and served all through the World War with the Machine Gun Company of the Fifth Marines, which was part of the famous Second Division. He was killed at the battle of Mont Blanc, October 4, 1918, and lies buried in France.

The title of Knight is not hereditary in England but is conferred for service; a Shelton (and sometimes several) of every generation was knighted from the first Ralph de Shelton, who served with the King's own Company, at the Battle of Crecy, in 1346, and was knighted for saving the life of the Black Prince, down to the Sir Ralph, knighted at Theobald's in 1607, father of our American James. (Davy's Eng. Ped.)

This is indeed a record of which to be proud.

Thomas Shelton of Lancaster Co., son of John of "Rural Plains" and Eleanor Parks married Sally Hord; (Family Rec. and Hord Gen.) Their son Jesse Shelton married Miss Gilmour, a sister of the John Gilmour who married Cordelia Ball, daughter of the sixth Wm. Ball, and heiress of "Millenbeck." John Gilmour and his sister were children of "John of Scotland" Gilmour, "a man of great wealth and influence." (Ball Gen. and Family Record.)

The son of Jesse Shelton and Miss Glmour, John Gilmour Shelton was born in Lancaster Co., Va., March 1, 1802 (Bible Rec.); he was brought up by his aunt, Mrs. Gilmour, both of his parents having died while he was an infant in arms. When Mrs. Gilmour married, in 1814, Mr. Wm. Raleigh Ball of "Belle Isle," John went to a Mr. Grayson in Fredericksburg, Va., an old friend of his father's. Here he remained until 1826 when he went to Lynchburg and married there a daughter of Wm. Byrd (5) (son of Thomas Taylor Byrd and Mary Armistead).

Thomas Taylor Byrd was the son of Col. Wm. Byrd (3) and Eliz. Hill Carter) and Mary FitzGerald of the "Leinster" FitzGeralds, of Amelia Co., Va. His first wife died in St. Louis, Mo. (where both the Byrds and the Sheltons had moved from Lynchburg, Va., in 1832) and Mr. Shelton married her sister Mary Walker Byrd in St. Louis, in 1835.

Genevieve Shelton, daughter of John Gilmour Shelton and Mary Walker Byrd was born in St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 26, 1844, and died there July 2, 1913. In 1869 she married Rev. C. D. N. Campbell, D. D. (son of Benjamin Tillinghast Campbell and Eunice Noble, and a lineal descendant of John Campbell, first Earl of Breadalbane and his second wife).

Their daughter, Mildred Genevieve Campbell, born in St. Louis, is the author of the "Shelton Genealogy." She married March 10, 1904, in Washington, D. C., Alexander Whitaker, of St. Louis, Mo.

They have one child, a daughter, Dorothy, born Feb. 16, 1907, in St. Louis, Mo.

The Shelton home "Rural Plains" built by the first John in 1670 and never remodeled, is still in a wonderful state of preservation and is thought to be the oldest house in America still occupied by the direct male descendants; it has never been out of the possession of the family.

I have spent ten years of hard work in digging out the facts, but I shall feel repaid, if it keeps others of the family out of the labyrinth in which I found myself when I started to clear the record of the Shelton family that a correct history might be handed down to posterity.

SHELTON NOTES

Since preparing the above article, many facts have come to my knowledge; lack of space will prevent my giving copies of documents, but I will be glad to give any information to all who are interested.

I have copy of will of "Sir Thomas Shelton, Gentleman Porter of Her Majesty's Tower." He died without issue in 1595 and his brother Ralph Shelton succeeded him. This Ralph was knighted in 1607; he married Dorothy Jermyn and was killed at the Isle of Rhe in 1628, not 1602 as stated by "Rye" and "Davy." This Sir Ralph was "minister to Spain and Sec'y to the Prince of Wales," and it was his son James who came to Jamestown June, 1610. Many different spellings of the Shelton name have come to light; for the sake of clarity I will use the correct name in every case.

The Sir Charles Shelton, who commanded the "Coronation" and who went down with his ship in 1691, and his brother Henry, Major Gen'l of His Majesty's Forces, who followed James II to Paris and died there, are registered at Cambridge as "sons of Maurice Shelton, of Norfolk," but they appear in the official records as "Skelton." The coat-of-arms used by the Sheltons in Virginia is given by Burk, in his "Encyclopedia of Heraldry." The earliest records in America are spelled: Shelton, Skelton, Sheldon, Shenton, Sealton, Shersone, Charlton, Chilton, Chelton, and even Yelton (Stafford Co.) Twelve years ago, when I started my work, I could not have believed these to be one family, but they are. I was in error in stating that the Blackwell connections were not in the Shelton family. All descendants of "John Chilton—Miss Ball" who had John and Capt. Thomas who married Jemina Cook are Sheltons; John had no other children by either wife. It was this John (d. 1726) who bought the "Curriomon" estate; the first deed 1704 reads John, Jr., the second 1709, reads John. He left the Westmoreland estate to Capt. Thos. and to his "elder son John, land in Stafford Co." This John and his wife Ann sued his brother Thos. in 1747 for recovery of part of the land; the record reads "John of Caroline Co. and Ann his wife."

Another correction is about Wm. brother of John of "Rural Plains"; this Wm. married Katherine Metting; there was no issue; Wm. died 1727 and his widow married Robert Armistead, son of Capt. Anthony. It was William, eldest son of John of "Rural Plains" who married Hannah Armistead; besides John who inherited "Rural Plains" they had four sons and one daughter. I have never been able to get the official record of the marriage of James (1) and birth of his children, but the descent is indisputable. James may have gone back to England and died there; there is a record in England of a "Mr. James Shelton, Gentleman, aged 29" who died in London about that time. The Sheltons owned ships and were constantly back and forth, but are on record here in Virginia from 1610 to date.

A death of "James Shelton, Gentleman" in Richmond, is given as April 7th, 1735, this was probably the father of John (1) of "Rural Plains." The Daniel Shelton of York Co., Va., referred to as "possibly the son of the Archbishop of Canterbury," was no doubt the Daniel Shelton, born in York Co., Va., in 1668, and who founded the Connecticut family. I have been able to place the "Col. Richard" of Amherst Co., Samuel of Albemarle and Col. Joseph but space prevents my giving data here. I do not know who was the father of the "John Shelton g.son of Sir Ralph" who married Anne, daughter of Peyton Randolph, according to the "Buford Genealogy." The Ball and Lee connections I have found hanging on the Chilton family tree. There is a large Shelton connection in Maryland. The first Skelton to come to Virginia was Josiah, son of Judge Joseph Skelton of Princeton, New Jersey. He died in 1821 in Powhatan Co., his daughter was Mrs. John Williams of Richmond, Va., her son, Mr. Edmund Randolph Williams of Richmond states that he has the Skelton Genealogy and no mention is made of any connection with the Jefferson family, and he has never heard of it.

All of the Skeltons in England and America are entitled to the Shelton history. Nicholas de Shelton of the Norfolk house married in 1215 and bought an estate in Cumberland Co., he was one of the rebelling barons against King John. Only 16 of the Magna Carta barons left descendants, and the Sheltons have direct descent from 14 of these.

Your friend & Serv$^{t}$,

"To The Hon'ble James Monroe, Esq$^{r}$.

"Governor of Virginia, Richmond."

With such testimonials to the esteem and affection entertained for him by his countrymen, we can give no credence to the statement of Mr. Jefferson, in his often cited letter to Mr. Wirt, that "Mr. Henry's apostacy sunk him to nothing in the estimation of his country." The apostacy was in Mr. Jefferson's imagination, and the disfavor was confined to him and the bitterest of his partisans. This was manifested in a most indecent manner at the next session of the Legislature, when a resolution for the execution of a marble bust of Mr. Henry, to be placed in the hall of the House of Delegates, was laid on the table by Republican votes. But this feeling was changed within less than twenty years. Mr. Wirt wrote in 1817, "The sentiments now so universally expressed in relation to Mr. Henry, evince that the age of party resentment has passed away, and that that of the noblest gratitude has taken its place." Reverence for his character has continued to increase as years have passed, and when, in 1850, the names of the men were selected whose figures should surround the equestrian statue of Washington to be erected in the Capitol Square, at Richmond, the name of Patrick Henry was one of the first determined on. And, as though Nemesis had ordered it, the bronze figures of Henry and Jefferson were unveiled, along with that of Washington, on February 22, 1858, before a people who honored the memory of Henry not less, certainly, than that of Jefferson.

By Mr. Henry's first marriage there were six children—John, William, Edward, Martha, who married John Fontaine, Anne, who married Spencer Roane, and Elizabeth, who married Philip Aylett. Of these, John, Edward, and Anne died before their father. By his second marriage there were eleven children—Dorothea Spotswood, who married George D. Winston, Sarah Butler, who married first Robert Campbell, a brother of the poet, and afterward Alexander Scott, Martha Catherine, who married Edward Henry, Patrick, Fayette, Alexander Spotswood, Nathaniel, Richard who died in infancy, Edward Winston, John, and Jane Robertson, who died four days after her birth.

Mr. Henry left a will dated November 20, 1798, and written throughout with his own hand. By it he divided a large estate between his widow and children, sufficient to make them independent. After disposing of his estate, he added these words:

> "This is all the inheritance I can give to my dear family. The religion of Christ can give them one which will make them rich indeed."

Along with his will there was found, as has been stated, a copy of his resolutions of May 29, 1765, against the Stamp Act, sealed up and directed to his executors. He seemed to care for the preservation of no other evidence of his public service. The endorsement was his parting address to his countrymen. After describing the circumstances of their presentation and adoption, and stating that they established the point of resistance to British taxation, and brought on the war which established American independence, he added these memorable words, which cannot be too often recalled by every American citizen :

"Whether this will prove a blessing or a curse, will depend upon the use our people make of the blessings which a gracious God hath bestowed on us. If they are wise, they will be great and happy. If they are of a contrary character, they will be miserable. Righteousness alone can exalt them as a nation. Reader! whoever thou art, remember this; and in thy sphere practise virtue thyself, and encourage it in others.

"P. HENRY."

I have checked out records (court) in Albemarle, Louisa Stafford but nil on Val, Buddy, Alex.

I believe that William & Fanny were parents of all three. I can't find in records of Wm & Fanny after they married 1763 in Albemarle Co Va. Wm's father Henry had land in Louisa Co. also Alex had son Wm B 1823±2 in KY. There was a Wm in Brown Co early in 1800s Ann Johnson dug up old court records.

I have checked Mormon Library Salt Lake City. Fort Wayne Lib. Ohio State Lib. & etc but can't find any thing on these,

You might try to connect Valentine with some children names like Joseph (1st born). & etc. Note he had a son George which was a name of a descendant 1776 also James & Thomas Shelton of Stafford co were son of George.

CHILDREN OF JOHN SHELTON (1) OF "RURAL PLAINS", HANOVER CO.; VA.

Spelled Chilton in Lancaster Co., Va., Records

THE children living in 1706 (when his will was proved) of John Shelton (called Chilton) who built ''Rural Plains'' in 1670 were John, presumably the eldest son as he was left the home plantation ''Currioman''; William, Thomas, Mary, Sarah nd Elizabeth. ① John married Lettice Ball first, and later, Mary Watts. ② William married Hannah Armistead. ③ Thomas (data given later on in this history.) ④ Mary married John Sharp of Lancaster County. ⑤ Elizabeth married Bryan Graves and ⑥ Sarah married, first, Richard Gissage. She was widowed before September 30, 1703, when she married Joseph Bickley of King William County, Virginia, son of Sir Francis Bickley of Norfolk, England. Joseph died before his father and William, son of Joseph and Sarah Shelton Gissage, inherited the title and estates of his grandfather. He lived in Louisa County, Virginia. Sarah is always referred to in the records as Sarah Shelton, and her son by Richard Gissage, Ralph, took his mother's name, Shelton. He was born in 1698. In 1722, he married Mary Pollard and from them descend the line of Col. Richard Shelton of Amherst County, Virginia.

Thomas, the youngest son of John (d. 1706) married Winifred King in 1723 and died in 1738. He left a son, Thomas, and probably other children. John, husband of Lettice Lee, called ''Captain John of Belleview'', (later of Currioman) had Captain Thomas (probably his eldest son, as Currioman was left to him) who married Jemima Cook, and John Shelton, later of Caroline and Stafford Counties, Virginia.

William Shelton and Hannah Armistead had a daughter, who married a Trueheart, and sons: David, Joseph, Samuel, William and Captain John of "Rural Plains", all living (except Joseph and Captain John) in 1780, when Joseph's will was proved. Two sons: Ralph and Richard had died previously. Captain John married Eleanor, daughter of Colonel William Parks, the first editor in Maryland, and Virginia, and ②Thomas was their second eldest son; [illegible] eldest son was ①James—on whom John settled the "Red House", Louisa Co., Va., plantation. This Captain John's daughter, Sarah Shelton (sister of Col. Thomas) married Patrick Henry in 1754; not "at four o'clock in the morning, coming home from a dance" and "by a Justice of the Peace", as some of our historians tell us, but in the parlor of old "Rural Plains", the house still occupied by the Sheltons, having descended from father to son for eight generations. It has never been out of possession of the male line of the family, and never been remodelled, although it has been under shell fire in many battles. This is a record, I believe, unequalled by any other house in America. The brick for the outer walls was brought from England; that for the inner walls was made on the place.

The first time I had the honor of being the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Robert Shelton at "Rural Plains" was in 1926, when I slept in a bed brought over from England more than 300 years ago, by the family. The swords and helmets worn by the Sheltons in the Revolution and in the War of 1812, are preserved there with great pride. The elder Captain John, father-in-law of Patrick Henry, w[illegible] a Captain of Cavalry and was killed at "Brandywine". His son, Captain (later called Colonel) John, marched with Patrick Henry to Williamsburg to protest to the Governor against the removal of the powder from the old magazine. The Sheltons have volunteered and served in every war in England and America. Six sons of Crispen Shelton and his wife Letitia or Lettice, fought in the American Revolution. They have been patriots always. Thomas, second son of Captain John, Sr., and Eleanor Parks, was a Colonel of the Westmoreland Militia in the American Revolution, and his son, Thomas Shelton, held the title of Lieutenant-Colonel of the same regiment in the War of 1812. Thomas, Sr., was on the muster roll of forces in the army on October 25, 1754, commanded by Hon. Col. John Starkey, Esq., "in Captain Hick's own Company"; he re-enlisted from Lancaster County, Virginia, in Captain Taylor's 2nd Virginia Regiment, January 29, 1776. He had served as Corporal, Lieutenant and Captain by October 8, 1776. In 1777, he was "recommended for Lieutenant-Colonel" and this was "confirmed by the Governor at a Court of 1778". In 1778, he is given as Lieutenant-Colonel in a list of Field Officers in the 4th Regiment Light Dragoons and, in 1781, he was Colonel of the Westmoreland County, Virginia, Militia. (In the later records, Thomas's name is spelled Chilton.) He is mentioned in the Washington Manuscripts as Shelton. He was the great, great, great grandfather of the writer of this book. In 1783, he receipted as "eldest son and heir" (his elder brother James, was dead) for 4000 acres B. W. allowed to heirs of his father, "Captain John, killed at Brandywine"; The heirs were allowed the full quota for their father's rank as Captain, although he only served from January, 1777, until September 11, 1777, but was
